HEARING ON GREEN CASES

Over Two Hundred Thousand Dollars in Claims Allewed by Court.

SIXTY THOUSAND FOR BANK CREDITORS

Priority of Remaining Claims Referred to Referee Mayne to Pain Upon-Amount to Over Hundred Thousand.

Judge Smith McPherson, at a special ses sion of federal court yesterday, after a hearing lasting all day, handed down a decree in the case of the bankrupt Green Cattle company, which went to the wall when the two private banks of H. S. Green at Dow City and an adjoining town failed last January. M. K. Parsons of Sait Lake City is receiver of the Cattle company, while William Arnd of this city is truste. for the creditors in the bankruptcy of H. S. Green. These claims, which are for notes given by the Green Cattle company to H. S. Green and by him negotiated elsewhere, were allowed: Hank of Denison 5,87.77

Commercial National bank, Council Bluffs 10,615,55
Thompson-Tipton, Chicago 1,12.00
State Bank of Chicago 19,539,48
Des Moines National bank 24, 4,99,68
Merchants National bank, Omaha 5,994,56

Judge McPherson ordered that the c.aim of the Omaha National bank, amount ng $28,293.57 be paid in full out of funds in the hands of the receiver, he having disposed of the cattle on which the bank held a first mortgage to protect its loan. Other payments ordered were; A. Hanaue; Salt Lake City, $24,000; Smith, Carey Co., Chicago, $2,000, and Commercial National bank of Council Bluffs, $7,000

The night before H. S. Green's banks were closed he sent out notes of the Green Cattle company, amounting to $59,300, to several banks. Trustee Arnd claimed them as belonging to the estate of the bankrupt banker and this was resisted by the receiver for the cattle company. Judge Mc-Pherson held that these notes belonged to the estate of Banker Green, as they had been sent out by him as additional and no substituted security. They were ordered turned over to Trustee Arnd and consequently will form part of the indebtednes; of the Green Cattle company. The notes and the banks to which they were sent by Banker Green are as follows:

State Bank of Chicago
Century Savings bank, Des Moines.
Central Trust Co., Chicago
Merchants, National bank, Omaha.
Des Moines National bank
Thompson-Tipion, Chicago

Claims to the amount of $27,429.95 which are not secured, among the largest being those of F. M. Leet for $14,153.41 and the Smith-Carey company for $5,664, were established against the company. The claim of the Crawford State bank of $20, bility of the cattle company, but as the bank held other security from H. S. Green the court ordered that no payments be made on this claim until further orders. The question of the priority of the claims remaining was referred to Master in Chancery W. S. WOMAN CREATES A SENSÁTION Comes from Omnha and Meets Man Whom She Says She Fears, A well dressed woman, later identified as Mrs. Goldie Evarta, who is said to keep a boarding home at 1610 California street, Omaha, created a scene on Broadway yesterday morning by falling prestrate on the steps of the Council Blufts Savings bank. She was apparently in a bad state of intoxication and was taken to the city lall. where she lay for several hours in an almost comatose condition. Later developments led to the suspicion that the woman might have been suffering from the effects of morphine taken with suicidal intent.

Few people nowadays ask 'Who are you?' but instead they demand to know what you know and what you can do to make the world a better place to live in. Today the world demands an unselfish education that can and will spread its advantages abroad." And then she compared the education of the boys and boys before they were entrusted with their responsibilities and the welfare of the world and the indifference and neglect of the education of the girls, who as mothers and wives and home makers hold so much school, for she does not get it at home now; there is too much required of her socially, in her church and otherwise, and her education should be such that she can apply it to her after life, which with the great majority of women has largely to do with home and-home making." The Daughters of the American Revolution are in the midst of another political campaign that promises to be as strenuous as usual. Considering the well known policy of the Daughters to choose their general officers as nearly as possible with reference to "pulls" at the national capital, it can hardly be called a -coincidence that the two candidates happen to be wives of national candidates of opposing parties, Mrs. Alton B. Parker and Mrs. Charles W. Fairbanks. Some question has been raised as to Mrs. Fairbanks' elegibility to re-election, but her friends all over the country are willing to take the risk and refuse to allow her to withdraw, as she has offered to do. And more than one reason is ascribed to their eagerness to continue her in office. The chief promoter and active supporter of Mrs. Parker's candidacy is Mrs. Daniel Manning, whom, it will be remembered, Mrs. Fairbanks defeated in a bitter contest for the office of president general, and it is asserted by Mrs. Fairbanks' friends that the present opposition to Mrs. Fairbanks is but a continuation of the former struggle; that Mrs. Manning's real interest in Mrs. Parker's success is prompted by a desire to even up an old score, for which even the honors o the office of president of the board lady managers of the St. Louis exposition have failed to compensate. And all of this is attracting its share of attention, considering the prominence of the women, and to add to it, Mrs. Charles Mercer Hall. daughter of Mrs. Parker, and Mrs. John W. Timmons, Mrs. Fairbanke' daughter, are taking an active part.
