CORNHUSKERS SHAKEN

Coach Booth Surprises Team by Introducing New Signals and Line-Up.

WILSON CANNOT PLAY THIS SEASON

Assistant Coach Westover Returns from Denver with Richardson, Who is Recovering, but May Not Re-Enter Game.

LINCOLN, Oct. 18 .- (Special.) - Coach Enoth uncorked a supprise on the Nebruska rooters when the present week of practice opened by installing a set of new agnals and by switching the lineup until it presented only a suggestion of its former The most important change was the transfer of Captain Benedict to right end, where he played during the greater part of last season. Booth is depending upon Barwick, Reddick or McDonald to tike Benedict's place at quarter and all three are being given a tryout at that osition. Weller, substitute full back since the inception of the present season, was used at center in last Saturday's game against Creighton, and he proved so aggressive that Booth is convinced he is line material of high quality. The present plan is to experiment with Weller at right tackle, changing off with Cotton, who still h s a bad knee.

The institution of the new signals has made the practice ragged so far, but Booth hopes to have matters running smoothly efore the Knox game on Saturday.

The return of Wilson, star end of last The return of Wilson, star end of last year, gave Booth and the followers of the Cornhuskers just cades for elation, but this was turned to gloom, for Wilson remained only a day and then encountered a paternal request to get back to the farm. Wilson's father is in poor health. He gave his consent last week that the son could resume his college studies, but a gudden relapse prompted the elder Wilson to issue the decree that the son must forego college and football for the year.

Change is Dangerous.

Wilson was assured of his old place at right end, but his departure compelled Booth to transfer Benedict to end, as the other candidates have not been showing 'varsity form. Booth admits that the penson is so far advanced that a shaking up of the lineup is a dangerous matter, but up of the lineup is a dangerous matter, but he did the same thing a year ago and the results were beneficial. Meanwhile the rooters are hoping for the best.

The fuss stirred up by the action of Chancellor Andrews in refusing to certify to the eligibility of Bender and Fenion has apparently blown over. The chancellor is said to have come to the conclusion that was scarcely justified in superseding the thietic board, which had investigated the wo players and declared them eligible, and as a result it is predicted that the chancellor will hold his views in abeyance until the end of the season, at which time it is quite likely he will invite a general conference of western colleges looking to saner solution of the problem of ama-

IOWA CITY, Ia., Oct. 18,-(Special.)-Iowa's confidence is unimpaired by the outcome of the Chicago game and the men are swinging into practice on Iowa field this week with a vim that has not characterized their work for a week past. While some of the reguars are stiff and sore yet the grueling attack of the Chicago Licks, they are playing with old time dash us to the probable outcome of the Normal game, and the men are confident of winring the championship of the state at last. Chalmers will devote much of his i me to the lowa forwards whose work is s ill at times slow. The men worked well for the first half in Chicago and charged the Chicago line in a way that was entrely foreign to their work against Drake, but still more improvement is looked for and an attempt will be made to bring it the injury that put him out of the Chiergo contest after the second half had started and is again in foot ball togs. In the practice game last night the work of the two sub quarters, Kent and Valarious, evoked applause from the crowd of rooters that had assembled in the grand stand. Kent is improving rapidly as the scason advances and is showing especial ability in defense.

Inflammatory Rheumstism. I was laid up in bed for six months, and the doctors I in bed for six months, and the doctors I had did me no good. They changed medicines every week and nothing they prescribed seemed to help me. Finally I began the use of S. S. My knee and elbow joints were swollen terribly, and at one time my joints were so swollen and painful that I could not close them when opened. I was so bad that I could not move knee or foot. I was getting discouraged, you may be sure, when I began S. S. S., but as I saw it was helping me I continued it, and to-day I am a sound well man and have never had a return of the discase. S. S. S. purified my blood and cured me of this severe case of Rheumatism after everything else had failed. I have recommended it to others with good results.

HARNESS RACES AT MEMPHIS Major Delmar Easily Beats Lou Dillon

Major Deimar Easily Beats Lou Dillon in Race for Gold Cup.

MEMPHIS. Oct. 18.—C. K. G. Billings' Lou Dillon, the champion trotting mare, went down to defeat today before Major Deimar, owned by E. E. Smathers, in the third and last contest for the Memphis gold cup, the feature race of the opening day of the fourth annual meeting of the Memphis Trotting association. After sustaining a terrific pace to the three-quarters pole in the first heat of the contest it was apparent that the mare was in bad condition and she was pulled up, Major Deimar winning in a jog. Despite a critical examination by veterinary surgeons, who pronounced the mare affected by an allment known to horsemen as "the thumps." Lou Dillon was again brought out on the track by Mr. Billings, and he announced that as a matter of form he would start the mare in the second heat. Major Deimar rounded the course in easy time, Lou Dillon following at a slow trot. Mr. Smathers, representing the New York Driving club, becomes the permanent owner of the cup. The great crowd present was visibly affected by the misfortune of the mare.

The diamond handicap was won in straight heats in easy fashion by Sweet Marie. Marie.

The 2:10 pace furnished the interesting contest of the day, Dan R., Gallagher and John M. each winning a heat. In the final trial John M. was pulled up.

The track was in superb condition and ideal weather prevailed. Results:

'armers' Institute Workers Hold Convention at Fair to Discuss Meth. ods of Advancing Interest in Agriculture.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 18.-In commemoration of the thirty-seventh anniversary of the transfer of the territory of Alaska to the United States, Alaska day at the World's' fair was observed today. One of the features of the ceremonles was the unveiling in the Alaska pavillon of a bust of William Henry Seward, secretary of state when the purchase was made. The presentation speech was made by Francis Lemoine Loring of New York city, to which Governor John G. Brady of Alaska responded. Addresses were made by Rev. G. M. Irwin of Juneau, Alaska, and President D. R. Francis of the exposition.

Institute Workers Meet. The American Association of Farmers Institute Workers convened today in the Agricultural building at the World's fair. During the sessions, which will continue intil Thursday, the improved methods of increasing products of farming and of arousing a more intelligent understanding, especially among children, of the value of farming will be discussed. Papers were read by delegates from American and Canadian institutes.

Observe "Helen Keller Day." "Helen Keller day," named in honor of Miss Helen Adams Keller of Boston, who, born deaf, dumb and blind, has acquired national fame through her educational success, and the only person in whose honor the Louisiana Purchase Exposition company has designated a special day, was celebrated at the World's fair grounds today with exercises participated in by prominent educators of the deaf, dumb and blind from all parts of the United States.

The annual conference of the superin tendents of American schools for the deaf, session here, suspended the regular order of business in honor of Miss Keller and took part in the exercises, which were held in the Hall of Congresses. Prof. E. M. Gallaudet of Washington, D. C., presided and introduced Miss Keller, whose address proved the feature of the exercises. In addition to her other accomplishments, Miss Keller has learned to speak in a well modulated voice, with unusually plain articulation, and her remarks aroused considerable enthusiasm. Addresses were made by Miss Sarah Fuller of Boston, Miss Keller's personal instructor; William Wade of Oakmount, Pa.; Alexander Graham Bell of Washington, D. C., and Warring Wilkinsin of Berkely, Cal. Music was furnished by an orchestra from the Missouri School for the Blind. The day's celebration closed with a reception in the Missouri World's fair build ing given by the deaf of St. Louis.

The fourteenth annual convention of the Illinois Bankers' association convened today in the Illinois World's fair building President William George of Aurora, Ili.,

Addresses were made by J. B. Vanblar com of St. Louis, President D. R. Francis of the exposition, George M. Reynolds, vice president Continental National bank, Chicago; President George of the Illinois association, and Seymour Walton, representing the Illinois Society of Public Accountants.
