FREIGHT RATES IN BALANCE

War Likely to Result from Present Sugar Tariff Conditions.

CHICAGO CONFERENCE NOT CONCLUSIVE

Local Railroad Men Apprehensive that a General Onslaught Will Grow Out of Fallure to Adjust the Schedules.

One of the fiercest rate wars in recent years is imminent. The stage of operations just now is at Chicago where a meeting is being held with a view of bringing order out of the disturbed conditions. The fight as yet hinges upon the sugar tariff and the rate for canned goods, but if burmony is not restored the fight promises to extend to other lines of goods. While the Mallory lines are held responsible for the present demoralized condition of the sugar tariff, back of it all is the Grand Trunk Line association which is charged with violating the tariff on canned goods.

The shading of the tariffs, it is said, began with the import traffic and has gradually extended to domestic shipments. The cutting has been done secretly and has been going on for some time until now the situation is regarded very serious The meeting now being held at Chicago is one of several which have been arranged in the last few weeks to undertake the almost hopeless task of straightening out the muddle.

Look for Further Trouble. Local officials are of the opinion that the end is not yet in sight. The fact that the Chicago sessions are so prolonged without reaching an understanding is taken as conclusive evidence that the crisis has not been reached and there is no prospect that it will be.

The situation with regard to the rate on canned goods seems to be as bad if not worse than that for sugar. There is not even a pretense of maintaining rates on this commodity, so intense is the competi-One instance is noted where the rate of 27 cents has been cut 3 cents from Chicago to the Missouri river, and there is a prospect that the rate will go still lower. While a great deal of the blame is thrown on the Mallory lines, it is be-Meved that the mischief commenced with the Canadian roads. The canned goods shipments have been unusually heavy owing to the fact that eastern brokers have waited until the last minute before

Through from Russia to Omaha. Eight through tickets from points in Russia to Omaha were sold by the Rock Island Wednesday and brought out the fact that there is a general exodus from that country to America. The movement has been aggravated by the war in the far east. There is a sentiment in Russia that before the war is over even those males may be conscripted into service who have already put in three years of enforced milltary life necessary in Russia.

One of the peculiar features of the contracts agreed to by the transportation company is that the passenger shall receive $20 in American money before he leaves the ship. The amount is sufficient to insure him entrance into this country, and saves him from bumping against the provisions of the immigration laws. Four arge coupons have to be made out. One is the purchaser's receipt for the ticket. Another form is kept by the rallroad company, a third form is sent to the steamship line, and the fourth is mailed to the pas-

As soon as the steamship line receives the coupon it notifies the passenger on what day he may sail. The notice is accompanied by a railroad ticket for the nearest port must take. The passenger must take that train and no other. Representatives of the steamship company meet him at the station. He can sail only on the steamer provided by the steamship company. At New York the passenger receives the $20 and a railroad ticket. If he is coming to Omaha he may get here in

Passenger Agents' Convention. Several important questions are to be taken up at the annual convention of the assenger and ticket agents at Old Point Comfort, Va. The coast delegation has al- floral offerings. ready started, but it is unlikely that Omaha MRS. GEORGE A. HARTMAN, will be represented at the meeting. While the work of the convention is not legislative, recommendations are made which are and acted on . A great many remedies have been brought about in this way.

A question uppermost just now is that of adopting safety paper, similar to that used by the government, for printing tickets. The idea was suggested by the American Association of Passenger Agents some years ago. Complicated forms of tickets have been issued, but each year counterfeiters of railroad tickets are becoming more expert in their work and bogus tickets are becoming more difficult of detection. The question of a uniform ticket to be used by all the roads of the country is also to be brought up and the adoption of such a plan is to be urged with all vigor. A uniform method in granting stopovers will be recommended. The present trouble will be recommended. The present trouble is regarding the question of whether there shall be stopovers on the return portion of the tickets giving ten days, regardless of the final transit limit of the ticket. The abolition of Sunday excursions will be a subject of discussion. Some of the roads have acted individually in the matter and have decided to run no excursions, excepting when absolutely necessary. Many of FIRST DAY ness exceedingly profitable and are not inlined to discontinue it. Even if the na tional association recommends the abelition of the Bunday excursion, it is believed improbable that the action will be ratified by the territorial associations.

Swamped with Wheat.

An effort is being made by the northwest ern roads to move 40,000,000 bushels of wheat eastward, but nearly all the lines are inundated with grain. Cars are being hurried west as fast as they can be secured but the supply is not equal to the demand movement was unexpected by the Union Pacific, although it was understood that the crop in Oregon would be larger than usual. The Oregon Railway & Navigation road is said to be swamped. The situation is worse than two years ago. when the congestion occurred over the immense shipment of live stock and sheep. Railway Notes and Personals.

A railroad man said yesterday that the present rate of $3 to Minneapolis is not without precedent. The California trip meant a ride of over 1,800 miles.

HE'S OFF THE POLICE FORCE Former Member of Chicago's "Finest" Charged with Vagrancy in Omaha.

"How the mighty have fallen," said police court official when William Corrigan, arrested on the charge of vagrancy, was arraigned before Police Judge Berka. "What do you do for a living?" asked the police magistrate of the prisoner, who stood at the bar like a tower of strength and physical manhood. "Well, judge, I'll tell you. I was on the Chicago police force and was mentioned for meritorious services, but-but I got off the force some way," replied Corrigan, his voice faltering toward the last. Corrigan showed a pair of calloused hands as evidence of recent work-not on the police force, but in the wide, wide world-so the judge discharged him.

IOWA WHITECAPS SEND NOTE Dr. Pries.

Clarke County Farmer Warned to Get Out, but Declines to Stampede.

The United States authorities in Omaha have been asked to look into a whitecap case developing in Clarke county, Iowa, last week, and in which one George Holden is cautioned to leave that section or take the consequences. Mr. Holden was in receipt of the following letter, written in pencil, which is given verbatim et literatim:

From Hed quarters of the White Caps.
P. m. Oct. is. Clarks County, Iowa. Mr. holden We deam it nessary to Notify yo to go to other Parts We treat you as a man
this time But as a houn next time. The letter was enclosed in a dirty white envelope, upon which were the following directions: "From H D W A P, E V S Holden Chariton Iowa." The letter was delivered by some unknown messenger at Mr. Holden's house. He knows of no particular reason why he should be singled out for the special wrath of the whitecaps, and instead of taking the advice contained in the letter he has turned it over to the United States authorities here in Omaha. This was done on the suggestion of the county attorney of Clarke county. As the case does not come within the jurisdiction of the authorities in the Nebraska federal district, the letter has been sent to the postoffice inspector's department at St.

Louis, Mo., for further investigation. In his letter transmitting the warning note Mr. Holden expresses the bellef that it is in earnest, and while he has no special fear of the consequences of his failure to comply with the demands of the whitecaps, whom he thinks are the relicts of a former whitecap organization which operated in that section a few years ago, he nevertheless is of the belief that the matter is worth while looking into.

Damages Resulting from Fall While at Work. Martin V. Sheehan has brought suit in the United States circuit court for $15,000 damages against the Omaha Packing company for injuries sustained by a broken leg while in the employ of that company on October 17, 1908. Sheehan was at work about a meat rack operated on a track switch in the plant, and he fell through an unguarded switch, breaking his left leg in two places, all of which he claims was through the neglect of the packing company to have the proper safeguards placed about the switch. The case is transferred from the district court of Douglas county.

The trial of a prisoner charged with

Daniel J. Smith was arraigned on complaint of Dr. R. F. Pries of 2421 Charles street, who charged the prisoner with having stolen wearing apparel and a valuable ring. Smith's arraignment before Police Judge Berka precipitated a tilt between City Prosecutor Lee and Detective Drummy Pries had just sworn to the complain against Smith before the police magistrate when Detective Drummy asked the city prosecutor if the case could not be dis osed of then, as two detectives and the loctor were being detained from other du ties and as the man had the stolen goods on his person the detective suggested the strength of the case.
