TALKS POLITICS AND CROPS

Secretary Wilson Says Roosevelt's Election is Assured.

NEBRASKA CORN CROP IS A BUMPER ONE

Fallure to Rotate Crops Held Responsible in a Large Measure for the Falling off in Wheat Yield.

"Theodore Roosevelt will be elected president of the United States. This is a foregone conclusion." This was the statement of Hon. James Wilson of Tama, Ia., secretary of agriculture, who arrived in Council Bluffs yesterday morning from Colorado arose from some practical joker hiding the and will remain here until Monday, when he will go to St. Joseph, where he speaks

Secretary Wilson is enjoying the best of health and was greatly pleased to be back in Iows. He planned making a short visit Tama, but was prevented, and he then ecided to rest over here until Monday. Mr. Wilson when seen in his room at the Grand hotel was more inclined to talk about the wonderful crops this year than about politics, although he said he had not the slightest doubt of President Roosevelt's election. He has just completed a tour of colorado and his observations while in that state caused him to say: "Colorado will go republican as sure as owa will. There is, of course, some disension over the state ticket, but the state will be for Roosevelt without any doubt." Mr. Wilson also expressed the opinion that Governor Peabody and the entire state republican ticket would be elected in Colo-

Referring to matters which seemed more o his liking and about which he was more villing to talk Secretary Wilson said that the corn crop this year was the largest the United States had ever seen. "As I rode through Nebraska on my way from Colorado I had the privilege of seeing the marvelous crops along the Platte river val-Nebraska this year has the greatest of corn of any state in the union Iowa, of course, is a great corn state, but this year Iowa had a little too much raft and the conditions in Iows were not as ideal as they were in Nebraska."

Reverting to politics Secretary Wilson said he believed the republicans would Nebraska this year without any doubt

Regarding wheat Mr. Wilson estimated that the crop would fall short about 50,000,-000 bushels this year. The trouble with the wheat crop in the Dakotas and other wheat raising states, all the way to the Pacific coast, was that the farmers had exhausted the land by continually planting wheat in stead of rotating their crops, as they did in Iowa. Planting wheat every year, he said had exhausted the fertility of the land and weakened the crop so that it rusted. Mr Wilson, however, looks for better things in the wheat crop, as the department of which he is the head has been importing seed from Algeria and the banks of the Volga in Russia, which is known as "durum" wheat and will produce crops in localities where the rainfall does not exceed ten inches in the year. Experiments with this seed, he On the certificate sent by the secretary of of from twenty to thirty bushels an acre in localities where heretofore it was con sidered impossible to raise wheat owing to tack of sufficient rain.

Bloomer School is Closed.

The Board of Health, at a meeting spe cially called yesterday afternoon by Mayor Macrae, ordered the Bloomer school closed week. This action was taken or account of trehe having been two cases of diphtheria among the pupils attending this school, reported last week, one case (that of the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. James Thomson) resulting fatally.

While the board announced that a thor ough investigation showed that there was no epidemic of diphtheria in the city schools it decided to order the school closed as a matter of precaution. There was a suspicion that probably there were other cases in the school which had not been eported and as the period of the incuba tion of the diphtheria germ is about sever days it was thought best to close the school for this week, so that by the time it is opened again, a week from Monday, the langer of further contagion will be practically past. The building was fumigated and disinfected from cellar to garret yesterday and this will be repeated at inter vals during the week it is closed,

Dr. Macrae, at the board meeting, stated that he had called the members together as a number of persons whose children were attending the school had become more or less alarmed since the death of the Thomson child. This alarm, he contended, was unfounded and was due, he said, to a great extent by certain papers trying to give the impression that there was an epidemic of the disease, while in fact there was not.

NEITHER WILLING TO STAND THE LOSS

Large Number Granted Permission to Practice Medicine in lows-Binffs Man Drafted Into Wyoming

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, Oct. 22 .- (Special.) -- Gov mor Cummins today issued a pardon to Charles Cackley, whose record is a most remarkable one. Cackley was a soldler in an Iowa regiment and soon after his return from the war to Van Buren county he got into trouble and was arrested. custody of a constable he got into a quarrel with him and the constable was killed Cackley was thrown into jail, but managed to escape and disappeared completely. He went to Missouri and settled in Wash ington county, where he changed his name married and raised a large family. After thirty-seven years living under an assumed name he applied for a pension and his identity was disclosed. Officials went from Iowa and brought Cackley to Keosauqua, where the old indictment still hung. He pleaded guilty to murder in the second degree and was given the minimum sentence. He was committed to prison last spring. His old neighbors in Washington county, Missouri, appealed for a pardon and showed that during all these years Cackley had been an upright citizen and had shown that he was not disposed to crime. He is old and feeble, and was literally torn away from a large family who had never known of his past life. Many old soldlers who had known him also petitioned for his pardon, and in view of his age and long career of honor, he was ordered released, and he will be given his liberty and sent back to his home in Mis-

Congressman J. A. T. Hull returned today from New York, where he is one of the managers of the national congressional committee. His time has been wholly occupled with the work of that committee, and he declares that there is now no doubt that a republican house will be secured to back up the next administration. A great deal of work has been necessary, he states, and it has been difficult to make a campaign in many of the states, owing to lack of interest, but now the voters have become interested in the questions and he the Monona County Board of Supervisors feels confident the campaign will end triumphant for the republicans.

Saunders Goes to Wyoming. The republican state committee was notified by the national committee today that it had drafted Senator C. G. Saunders of Pottawattamie county, for campaign work in Wyoming, to fill the dates made for Senator Warren of that state. In return for this the national committee promises to send a number of good speakers into Iowa later in the campaign.

The date for Secretary Shaw's first speech in the state has been fixed for November 4 at DeWitt, Clinton county.

Steffens to Come to Iowa. It is announced here that correspondence has been had with a view to having Lincoln Steffens come to Iowa and make an investigation of political affairs as he has done in a sensational way in Wisconsin and other states. It is not anticipated that conditions will be found here that will look as had as in some other states, but sufficient would be found to make an interest ing story.

Dead Man Identified. Identification of the man who was killed here on Thursday was effected today, when it was found his name was Fred Doyle and that he came originally from Belle Fountain, O. He was a laborer there and had evidently traveled about over the country a good deal. He had sought work in Des Moines and failed to find it, but so far as known was not dishonest. Charles Morton, the negro who killed him, is held New Iowa Doctors.

Everybody recognizes the need and convenience of the "charge account," which is commonly regarded as the modern system of trade. Particularly is it desirable in buying furniture and furnishing a home, as these bills are not insignificant and cash means serious inconvenience, especially to wage earners and people in moderate circumstances. We believe in the people and WE TRUST THE PEOPLE, hence you, regardless of your station, are invited to avail yourself of our liberal terms of accommodation.
