

Telephone 94. WE CLOSE SATURDAYS AT 5 P. M. Best Oct. 27, 1904.

"It is always right that a man should be able to render a reason for the faith that is within him."

Outing Flannel Sleeping Robes

The pretty styles and patterns shown, together with the good materials, workmanship and liberal fullness of the gowns has made our line a popular one. You get value received for every gown you buy here.

WOMEN'S GOWNS AT $5 AND $5.50—Made of pink and blue striped outing flannel, square yoke, high neck, finished with fancy stitching. WOMEN'S GOWNS AT $1.00—Several styles to choose from, in white and colors, neatly trimmed with braid.

Y. M. C. A. Building, Corner Sixteenth and Douglas Streets.

Thompson, Belden & Co.

Y. M. C. A. Building, Corner Sixteenth and Douglas Streets.

the absence of Ambassador Choate, who is in the country. Ready for Cabinet Council. All the cabinet ministers have been instructed to hold themselves in readiness in case a cabinet council should be necessary.

being in the North sea is not only unforded, but is absolutely ridiculous. Instead of a warship. The version of Admiral Rojevsky's report given out in London says Rojevsky states that there never was any intention of firing on the British trawlers.

Denmark Has a Theory. COPENHAGEN, Oct. 27.—The correspondent of the Associated Press learns that the Danish ministry of marine was informed that several ships chartered by the Japanese were in the North sea.

Denmark Has a Theory. COPENHAGEN, Oct. 27.—The correspondent of the Associated Press learns that the Danish ministry of marine was informed that several ships chartered by the Japanese were in the North sea.

Denmark Has a Theory. COPENHAGEN, Oct. 27.—The correspondent of the Associated Press learns that the Danish ministry of marine was informed that several ships chartered by the Japanese were in the North sea.

Denmark Has a Theory. COPENHAGEN, Oct. 27.—The correspondent of the Associated Press learns that the Danish ministry of marine was informed that several ships chartered by the Japanese were in the North sea.

Denmark Has a Theory. COPENHAGEN, Oct. 27.—The correspondent of the Associated Press learns that the Danish ministry of marine was informed that several ships chartered by the Japanese were in the North sea.

Denmark Has a Theory. COPENHAGEN, Oct. 27.—The correspondent of the Associated Press learns that the Danish ministry of marine was informed that several ships chartered by the Japanese were in the North sea.

Denmark Has a Theory. COPENHAGEN, Oct. 27.—The correspondent of the Associated Press learns that the Danish ministry of marine was informed that several ships chartered by the Japanese were in the North sea.

Denmark Has a Theory. COPENHAGEN, Oct. 27.—The correspondent of the Associated Press learns that the Danish ministry of marine was informed that several ships chartered by the Japanese were in the North sea.

Denmark Has a Theory. COPENHAGEN, Oct. 27.—The correspondent of the Associated Press learns that the Danish ministry of marine was informed that several ships chartered by the Japanese were in the North sea.

Denmark Has a Theory. COPENHAGEN, Oct. 27.—The correspondent of the Associated Press learns that the Danish ministry of marine was informed that several ships chartered by the Japanese were in the North sea.

Denmark Has a Theory. COPENHAGEN, Oct. 27.—The correspondent of the Associated Press learns that the Danish ministry of marine was informed that several ships chartered by the Japanese were in the North sea.

Denmark Has a Theory. COPENHAGEN, Oct. 27.—The correspondent of the Associated Press learns that the Danish ministry of marine was informed that several ships chartered by the Japanese were in the North sea.

Denmark Has a Theory. COPENHAGEN, Oct. 27.—The correspondent of the Associated Press learns that the Danish ministry of marine was informed that several ships chartered by the Japanese were in the North sea.

Denmark Has a Theory. COPENHAGEN, Oct. 27.—The correspondent of the Associated Press learns that the Danish ministry of marine was informed that several ships chartered by the Japanese were in the North sea.

LOUD CHEERS FOR STICKNEY

Bankers Applaud Great Western President, Who Addresses Them. NEBRASKA'S OPPORTUNITY HIS SUBJECT. Association Vice-Presidents President Treney and Vice President Foida Will Publish and Circulate Stickney's Speech.

Unquestionably the feature of the closing session of the Nebraska Bankers' association yesterday afternoon was the address of A. B. Stickney, president of the association, on "Nebraska's Opportunity."

Stickney's speech was a ringing one, and he was greeted with loud cheers and applause. He spoke of the great future of Nebraska and the responsibility of the bankers to see that this future is realized.

Stickney's speech was a ringing one, and he was greeted with loud cheers and applause. He spoke of the great future of Nebraska and the responsibility of the bankers to see that this future is realized.

Stickney's speech was a ringing one, and he was greeted with loud cheers and applause. He spoke of the great future of Nebraska and the responsibility of the bankers to see that this future is realized.

Stickney's speech was a ringing one, and he was greeted with loud cheers and applause. He spoke of the great future of Nebraska and the responsibility of the bankers to see that this future is realized.

Stickney's speech was a ringing one, and he was greeted with loud cheers and applause. He spoke of the great future of Nebraska and the responsibility of the bankers to see that this future is realized.

Stickney's speech was a ringing one, and he was greeted with loud cheers and applause. He spoke of the great future of Nebraska and the responsibility of the bankers to see that this future is realized.

Stickney's speech was a ringing one, and he was greeted with loud cheers and applause. He spoke of the great future of Nebraska and the responsibility of the bankers to see that this future is realized.

Stickney's speech was a ringing one, and he was greeted with loud cheers and applause. He spoke of the great future of Nebraska and the responsibility of the bankers to see that this future is realized.

Stickney's speech was a ringing one, and he was greeted with loud cheers and applause. He spoke of the great future of Nebraska and the responsibility of the bankers to see that this future is realized.

Stickney's speech was a ringing one, and he was greeted with loud cheers and applause. He spoke of the great future of Nebraska and the responsibility of the bankers to see that this future is realized.

Stickney's speech was a ringing one, and he was greeted with loud cheers and applause. He spoke of the great future of Nebraska and the responsibility of the bankers to see that this future is realized.

Stickney's speech was a ringing one, and he was greeted with loud cheers and applause. He spoke of the great future of Nebraska and the responsibility of the bankers to see that this future is realized.

Stickney's speech was a ringing one, and he was greeted with loud cheers and applause. He spoke of the great future of Nebraska and the responsibility of the bankers to see that this future is realized.

Stickney's speech was a ringing one, and he was greeted with loud cheers and applause. He spoke of the great future of Nebraska and the responsibility of the bankers to see that this future is realized.

Stickney's speech was a ringing one, and he was greeted with loud cheers and applause. He spoke of the great future of Nebraska and the responsibility of the bankers to see that this future is realized.

Stickney's speech was a ringing one, and he was greeted with loud cheers and applause. He spoke of the great future of Nebraska and the responsibility of the bankers to see that this future is realized.

NEW YORK SUBWAY OPENS

"City Hall to Harlem in Fifteen Minutes" Becomes a Reality. MAYOR McLELLAN TURNS ON CURRENT. Formal Exercises Held in Afternoon at the City Hall—Trains Are Thronged Throughout Evening.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—"City hall to Harlem in fifteen minutes," became a reality today when the main artery of Manhattan's great subway system was opened to the public.

The formal opening exercises held in city hall this afternoon were attended by invited guests, Mayor McClellan presided and addresses were made by Chief Engineer William Barclay Parsons, Rapid Transit Commissioner A. E. Orr and John H. Starin, contractor John B. McDonald and August Belmont, president of the operating company.

The actual opening of the subway to the traveling public took place tonight. Long before 7 o'clock when the first train was scheduled to leave city hall, the park surrounding the hall was jammed with a goodly crowd.

The first train was scheduled to leave city hall at 7 o'clock. The park surrounding the hall was jammed with a goodly crowd.

The first train was scheduled to leave city hall at 7 o'clock. The park surrounding the hall was jammed with a goodly crowd.

The first train was scheduled to leave city hall at 7 o'clock. The park surrounding the hall was jammed with a goodly crowd.

The first train was scheduled to leave city hall at 7 o'clock. The park surrounding the hall was jammed with a goodly crowd.

The first train was scheduled to leave city hall at 7 o'clock. The park surrounding the hall was jammed with a goodly crowd.

The first train was scheduled to leave city hall at 7 o'clock. The park surrounding the hall was jammed with a goodly crowd.

The first train was scheduled to leave city hall at 7 o'clock. The park surrounding the hall was jammed with a goodly crowd.

The first train was scheduled to leave city hall at 7 o'clock. The park surrounding the hall was jammed with a goodly crowd.

The first train was scheduled to leave city hall at 7 o'clock. The park surrounding the hall was jammed with a goodly crowd.

The first train was scheduled to leave city hall at 7 o'clock. The park surrounding the hall was jammed with a goodly crowd.

The first train was scheduled to leave city hall at 7 o'clock. The park surrounding the hall was jammed with a goodly crowd.

The first train was scheduled to leave city hall at 7 o'clock. The park surrounding the hall was jammed with a goodly crowd.

The first train was scheduled to leave city hall at 7 o'clock. The park surrounding the hall was jammed with a goodly crowd.

The first train was scheduled to leave city hall at 7 o'clock. The park surrounding the hall was jammed with a goodly crowd.

..HOW MONEY GROWS..

Table showing interest rates for various terms: 10 Years $14.85, 20 Years $22.08, 30 Years $44.16. Includes a note: NOW—Notice the rapidity with which it increases when you make regular weekly additions—a real savings account!

...CITY SAVINGS BANK...

16th and Douglas Streets, Omaha.

REPUBLICANS ARE WARMING UP

Enthusiastic Meetings Held at Various Points. NEBRASKA, Oct. 27.—(Special Telegram.)—Congressman Burkett, Governor Mickey and R. B. Windham, candidate for lieutenant governor for Otoe and Cass counties, addressed an immense audience at the Overland theater tonight on the issue of the campaign, national, state and local.

Each speaker was loudly applauded and the meeting was a convincing and eloquent manner. Hon. E. J. Burkett was next introduced and for over an hour held the large audience in rapt attention while he discussed the pending issues and the mistake and omissions of the fused, refused and confused democratic party.

Governor Mickey was the last speaker and after a brief, eloquent reference to the president, he devoted his speech to refuting the assertions of Mr. Berge and the hyphenated purveyor of scandal in Omaha. The governor clearly convinced every fair minded man present of the justice and uniform merit of the present state administration and the economy in business management of the state institutions.

Each speaker was loudly applauded and the meeting was a convincing and eloquent manner. Hon. E. J. Burkett was next introduced and for over an hour held the large audience in rapt attention while he discussed the pending issues and the mistake and omissions of the fused, refused and confused democratic party.

Governor Mickey was the last speaker and after a brief, eloquent reference to the president, he devoted his speech to refuting the assertions of Mr. Berge and the hyphenated purveyor of scandal in Omaha. The governor clearly convinced every fair minded man present of the justice and uniform merit of the present state administration and the economy in business management of the state institutions.

Each speaker was loudly applauded and the meeting was a convincing and eloquent manner. Hon. E. J. Burkett was next introduced and for over an hour held the large audience in rapt attention while he discussed the pending issues and the mistake and omissions of the fused, refused and confused democratic party.

Governor Mickey was the last speaker and after a brief, eloquent reference to the president, he devoted his speech to refuting the assertions of Mr. Berge and the hyphenated purveyor of scandal in Omaha. The governor clearly convinced every fair minded man present of the justice and uniform merit of the present state administration and the economy in business management of the state institutions.

Each speaker was loudly applauded and the meeting was a convincing and eloquent manner. Hon. E. J. Burkett was next introduced and for over an hour held the large audience in rapt attention while he discussed the pending issues and the mistake and omissions of the fused, refused and confused democratic party.

Governor Mickey was the last speaker and after a brief, eloquent reference to the president, he devoted his speech to refuting the assertions of Mr. Berge and the hyphenated purveyor of scandal in Omaha. The governor clearly convinced every fair minded man present of the justice and uniform merit of the present state administration and the economy in business management of the state institutions.

Each speaker was loudly applauded and the meeting was a convincing and eloquent manner. Hon. E. J. Burkett was next introduced and for over an hour held the large audience in rapt attention while he discussed the pending issues and the mistake and omissions of the fused, refused and confused democratic party.

Governor Mickey was the last speaker and after a brief, eloquent reference to the president, he devoted his speech to refuting the assertions of Mr. Berge and the hyphenated purveyor of scandal in Omaha. The governor clearly convinced every fair minded man present of the justice and uniform merit of the present state administration and the economy in business management of the state institutions.

Each speaker was loudly applauded and the meeting was a convincing and eloquent manner. Hon. E. J. Burkett was next introduced and for over an hour held the large audience in rapt attention while he discussed the pending issues and the mistake and omissions of the fused, refused and confused democratic party.

Governor Mickey was the last speaker and after a brief, eloquent reference to the president, he devoted his speech to refuting the assertions of Mr. Berge and the hyphenated purveyor of scandal in Omaha. The governor clearly convinced every fair minded man present of the justice and uniform merit of the present state administration and the economy in business management of the state institutions.

Each speaker was loudly applauded and the meeting was a convincing and eloquent manner. Hon. E. J. Burkett was next introduced and for over an hour held the large audience in rapt attention while he discussed the pending issues and the mistake and omissions of the fused, refused and confused democratic party.

Governor Mickey was the last speaker and after a brief, eloquent reference to the president, he devoted his speech to refuting the assertions of Mr. Berge and the hyphenated purveyor of scandal in Omaha. The governor clearly convinced every fair minded man present of the justice and uniform merit of the present state administration and the economy in business management of the state institutions.

Each speaker was loudly applauded and the meeting was a convincing and eloquent manner. Hon. E. J. Burkett was next introduced and for over an hour held the large audience in rapt attention while he discussed the pending issues and the mistake and omissions of the fused, refused and confused democratic party.

GLASSWARE. DORFLINGER. New Designs. A catalog of glassware products with a logo featuring a glass and the name 'DORFLINGER'.

BENSON & THORNE. Lulliputian Bubbles. Bubbles are pretty for a moment. Lulliputian clothes have that lasting beauty that goes with dependability. Hundreds of tempting values in our Girls' Cloak Section and on the Boys' Suit and Overcoat Tables.

There are Many table waters, but only one. Lulliputian. Always the same. Pure, sparkling, and delicious. THE RICHARDSON DRUG CO., 402 JACKSON STREET, DISTRIBUTING AGENTS. SHERMAN & MCCONNELL DRUG CO, 10TH AND DODGE, RETAIL AGENTS.

Always Remember the Full Name. Laxative Bromo Quinine. Cures a Cold in One Day, Grip in 2 Days. E. H. Brown on every box, 25c.

TONIGHT AND SATURDAY. W.M. OWEN IN THE LADY OF LYONS. 3 Nights—Commencing Sunday Matinee. A CHINESE HONEYMOON. Prices—25c to $1.50; Matinee, 50c to $1.00.

Orpheum. NEW PHONE, 404. Every Night—Matinee Thur., Sat., Sun. MODERN VAUDEVILLE. Howard Thurston, Mr. and Mrs. Keley, Howe & Scott, Tyce & Jermon, Lauron & Nannon, the Three Mitchells and the Klondike.

CRIGHTON. FOOT BALL. CRIGHTON UNIVERSITY VS. NEBRASKA STATE NORMAL. VINTON STREET PARK. SATURDAY, 3 P.M. Admission 50c. Seats on sale Myers-Dillon Drug Co., 15th and Fairmount.

TONIGHT 8:15. JOHN A. PRESTON as THE INCOMAR. THE BARBARIAN. Sunday—"YON YONSON".

CRIGHTON. FOOT BALL. CRIGHTON UNIVERSITY VS. NEBRASKA STATE NORMAL. VINTON STREET PARK. SATURDAY, 3 P.M. Admission 50c. Seats on sale Myers-Dillon Drug Co., 15th and Fairmount.