A. C. Ong, A. M., LL. B., Pres.; A. Lowry, Prin. Cor. 17th and Harney St GREGG SHORTHAND

That Gregg shorthand has possibilities of speed and accuracy beyond any other system ever devised is evidenced by what some of our graduates are doing who were in school only a year ago. Miss Peterson is now doing court reporting work in Walla Walla, Washington; Mr. Currie is stengrapher and private secretary to Congressman Kinkald, Washington, D. C., and three other graduates are now private secretaries to the presidents of classical colleges, where they are paying their way through a four and six years classical course by doing the stenographic work of the college office. What Gregg shorthand and our thorough training has done for them can be done for you. Don't forget there is a vast DIFFERENCE in systems of shorthand and a vast DIFFERENCE in schools, FOR VERY GOOD REASONS the N. B. C. is the only school in Omaha that is making a specialty of That Gregg shorthand has possibilities of omaha that is making a specialty of this system.

POSITIONS FOR OUR GRADUATES

The all absorbing question with the student who is about to enter school is, "Will I be assisted to a position after completing my course?" The school that has the reputation of doing thorough, first-class work has little difficulty in placing its graduates. Business men soon find out the school they can call on for skillfully trained help. Among those who recently took positions are the following:

Mr. Cajacob, with Karbach & Sons.
