(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, Oct. 29 .- (Special.) - Secre tary Leslie M. Shaw has written to United States Marshal George M. Christian of this city that he will proceed to Grinnell immediately after election and personally investigate the complaints made against the receiver for the First National bank of Grinnell and will dispose of the troubles which have arisen in connection therewith. When the bank falled Congressman Lacey at the instance of his political friends in Poweshiek county and because of the pe titions of the creditors of the failed bank recommended the appointment of George Lanphere of Grinnell to be receiver of the G. W. Swords of Iowa City was appointed. There has been much mystery as to why a selection was made of one unknown to the creditors, living in a city distant in the state, in another county and congressional district and against the advice of the member of congress. A few days ago a committee was named at a mass meeting to present the matter to Major Lacey and secure, if possible, the removal of Swords and the naming of some man acceptable to the creditors. The charge is made that Swords was appointed because of a political pull and that he is incompetent. Secretary Shaw has consented to go to Grinnell immediately after

Body Found in River. The fact of the murdering of Miss Anna Anderson was shown today when her dead body was found in the Des Moines river. She disappeared Thursday night, after leaving her sister as they both returned home from church. The body was found in the river about five blocks from where she was last seen. The money she had on her person the evening of her disappearance was gone. The river was dragged and the body found, but whether she was murdered and the body thrown there or it was a case of suicide is not known. Her brother and that she did not contribute to her own

HAVELOCK REPUBLICANS ENTHUSE Governor Mickey, Norris Brown and Others Speak.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Oct. 29 .- (Special Telegram.)-At Havelock tonight a crowd estimated at 5,000 thronged the streets, overflowed the large auditorium and cheered with enthusiasm republican orators. A torchlight procession a half mile in length, headed by the Havelock band and the Veteran drum corps, marched through the streets. Lincoln sent out a delegation of old soldiers in special ears and upon their arrival the fireworks began.

The meeting was held in the auditorium and it was packed to the doors and hundreds were unable to secure standing room. Governor Mickey, Norris Brown, H. M. Eaton, A. Galusha and the legislative candidates were, the speakers and each was given a rousing reception. Especially was this true of Governor Mickey and Norris Brown, the demonstrations in several instances lasting several minutes. Both talked of state issues and pleaded for republicans to arouse themselves to make sure of the next legislature that a republican United States senator be elected. Both defended the revenue law and Governor Mickey took occasion to speak of the condition of the state institutions. He said the present superintendents had been allowed o select their own employes and to a great extent that accounted for the good conditions prevailing. If re-elected he promised to continue that same policy. He took occasion to say that he was opposed to capital punishment, but that until the legislaure repealed the present law, when occasion demanded, it had been en forced

In his discussion of the revenue law Norris Brown recited the need of such a law and said that the fusionists, while pledging themselves to repeal it, had not given a single specific reason. He told of the increase of $19,000,000 on the assessment of railroad property; of the 2 per cent tax on gross receipts of insurance companies that last year took $1,250,000 out of the state without leaving a cent. He told of he increase in the amount of moneys, credits and mortgages assessed under the new law and then said to elect Berge and a fusion legislature meant to repeal these sections. The corporations, he said, were fighting the law. He complimented Governor Mickey for the way he had enforced the law and made a plea for his re-election. C. W. Holmes presided
