

FIVE STUDENTS SUSPENDED

Young Men at Wesleyan Object to Order to Purchase Cadet Uniforms.

ALL BUT FIVE FINALLY YIELD POINT

State Printing Board is Economical and Decides to Print No Reports Except Those Law Makes Compulsory.

LINCOLN, Oct. 29.—(Special.)—Out at Wesleyan there are things doing because a number of students rebelled at the demand for them to buy uniforms.

As a result five boys have been suspended and the end is not yet. Some days ago when the order was issued for the students to dress up in soldier clothes a number of the boys refused and demanded that their tuition be paid back to them, as the school's catalogue did not state that the students would be required to buy the uniforms.

Printing Board is Economical.

The State Printing board has started in on a line of retrenchment and for the first time it has turned down a proposition to print biennial reports. At the meeting this morning the secretary was instructed to withdraw from the advertisement for bids all reports that were not mentioned in the statutes.
