JAPANESE DAY AT THE EXPOSITION

In Honor of Mikado World's Fair Commission from Japan Holds Special Services at Their Gardens.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 4.—(Special Telegram.) Negotiations regarding the North sea...

The Associated Press is informed that present position is as follows: The text of the treaty of the citation of the court are under consideration by the emperor...

The four officers of the Russian Baltic squadron, who it was originally arranged were to remain in Paris until the arrival of Admiral Kuznetsov, are coming on to St. Petersburg...

LONDON, Nov. 3.—Ambassador Benckendorff visited Foreign Secretary Lansdowne tonight. The Associated Press understands that no conclusion has yet been reached...

PARIS, Nov. 3.—The suggestion that an American admiral be requested to act as a member of the court of investigation...

TOKIO, Nov. 3.—(Special Telegram.) On the occasion of his birthday at luncheon today, the emperor briefly addressed his guests...

He then proposed the health of the sovereigns and rulers represented at his court and expressed the hope that the bonds of friendship existing between the respective countries might be drawn closer.

Baron d'Anethan, the Belgian minister, dean of the diplomatic corps, responded, congratulating the emperor on the day and expressing regret at the commencement of the war.

At the close of the luncheon, Baron d'Anethan said: "We again express our wishes for peace, and do so with more fervor when we contemplate with profound emotion the ravages already caused in suffering families and the thousands of noble victims on either side in the arm of the field, straggling and shedding their blood with a bravery that rises to the height of a sublime and indomitable heroism."

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 3.—(Special Telegram.) There is little attempt today to celebrate, except in a pecuniary way, the tenth anniversary of the accession of Emperor Nicholas. The imperial family attended a Te Deum at the Kazan cathedral and there were services in all the churches.
