(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, Nov. 3.—(Special.)—The table below contains some history of state finances that many may not know and that will be of particular interest just now while the rustlers are trying to get control of the next legislature in an effort to repeal the new revenue law. The table shows the state levies for 1903 and 1904, as well as the state taxes paid by railroads in 1903 and 1904 in all of the eastern counties of Nebraska, extending west to the western boundary of Webster county, running thence north to the southern boundary of Holt county, thence west to the southwest corner of Holt county and thence north to the state line:

Former Pastor Contradicts Stories.

The following correspondence regarding Governor Mickey is self-explanatory: BOONE, Neb., Oct. 29.—Dear Sir: Seabrooke University Place, Neb.—Dear Sir: Being greatly interested in seeing Mr. Mickey elected to the governorship of Nebraska, I am writing you to let you know that you are well posted, I write to you for information in regard to Mr. Mickey's character in general and as his standing in his home community. I desire your letter to be published in the Omaha Weekly, as I believe such a prominent letter would be a vote-getter in this county. Some very strong charges have been made against Mr. Mickey in some of the papers, and if they are untrue they ought to be denied.

Waverly, Neb., Oct. 29.—(Special.)

Waverly, Neb., Oct. 29.—(Special.)—W. E. Andrews spoke in the opera house last night to a good-sized audience. Democrats as well as republicans were impressed with his forcible arguments, and all went away feeling that they had received the facts.

News of Nebraska.

CHADRON, Nov. 3.—Politics is so quiet here that hardly anybody believes a campaign is going on. Mr. J. H. Walker, junior of the First National bank building, while engaged in cleaning windows, fell a distance of twelve feet from a step ladder and received several injuries. He will be confined to his home for some time as a result of the accident.

BEATRICE, Nov. 3.—A public sale was held by Cook & Scott yesterday on the farm of the late Mrs. M. J. Lester, north of town. Horses sold for $100 to $125 each, and nine head of cows brought an average price of $25 per head. Frank E. a paing horse, was bid in by Mr. Scott, its owner, for $25.

Beatrice, Nov. 3.—(Special.)

BEATRICE, Nov. 3.—Yesterday was a lively one for Chadron, as the county treasurer has been selling the town lots of Chadron and Crawford under the new scavenger law. The Chadron lots were many in number, and the bidding competition was so great, but Crawford bidders being few in number, arranged among themselves what to bid on, so there was little competitive bidding.

Nebraska City, Nov. 3.—(Special.)

NEBRASKA CITY, Nov. 3.—The prohibition managers are sending out hundreds of circulars to the voters of the county requesting them to write the names of their party's candidates on the ballot and thus vote for the prohibition party nominees. The circulars are said to have been sent out at the instigation of the managers of the democratic party with the intention of securing the republican county candidates.

Nebraska City, Nov. 3.—(Special.)

NEBRASKA CITY, Nov. 3.—M. L. and Richard G. Cranda and Orin M. Sopher have filed an objection and protest in county court to the probating of the will of their father, the late Thomas R. Cranda. The deceased was a wealthy farmer living in Berlin, Neb., and in the will he bequeathed to his children $25,000 each, provided they did not contest the will. The balance of the estate was to be equally divided among his three sons.

Beatrice, Nov. 3.—(Special.)

BEATRICE, Nov. 3.—The Beatrice Woman's Temperance union held its regular meeting with Mrs. C. Bradley yesterday afternoon. The attendance was much larger than usual. Messdames Madora Nickels, M. V. This is to be a six-weeks' issue, the defeated side to entertain at a supper.

With the Help of the Invigorating and Life-Giving Powers of This Wonderful Medicine Mrs. Tigie Says She Expects to Live Twenty-Five Years Longer.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

IS THE COMFORT AND SUPPORT OF OLD AGE. The sincere and grateful tribute of Mrs. Tigie to the invigorating and life-prolonging powers of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is one of the most remarkable and convincing on record. She sees, reads and is dependent upon no one for the little services and attentions of old age. Mrs. Tigie's memory is perfect, and her eyes sparkle with interest as she quietly recalls events that have gone down into history of the past hundred years. Instead of pinning, as many women half her age, she is firm in the belief that with the comforting and strengthening assistance of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey she will live another quarter of a century. If you wish to keep young, active and vigorous, and have on your cheeks the roses of health, and retain full possession of your mental powers, you must take Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey regularly as directed and avoid drugs of all kinds. It nourishes the vitality no matter how weak or feeble it may have become; feeds and enriches the blood, and stimulates the circulation, giving health and power to body, brain, nerve and muscle. The absolute purity of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is attested by the fact that thousands of doctors and hospitals use it exclusively, and that it is the only whiskey recognized by the Government as a medicine. It contains no fuel oil. CAUTION—When you ask for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey be sure you get the genuine. Sold by reliable druggists and grocers everywhere in sealed bottles only, never in flask or bulk. Look for the trade-mark, the "Old Chemist," on the label, and be sure the seal over the cork is not broken. $1.00 a bottle. Medical booklet with testimonials and a doctor's advice free. FINDS NO ONE TO GREET HIM

No Preparations Had Been Made for Bryan's Speech at Bloomington.

BLOOMINGTON, Neb., Nov. 3.—(Special Telegram.)—W. J. Bryan's special train was scheduled for this place at 10 o'clock this morning. On his arrival he found that no preparations had been made for his reception. There was no one to meet him and no stand erected. He walked around the depot in search of a suitable place to speak. Finding none he had his car backed up where a crowd of about 100 people, men, women and children, were assembled. He mounted the rear platform and talked for thirty minutes, confining himself chiefly to the revenue law, which he lambasted as a republican measure calculated to oppress the farmer with unjust taxation. He never mentioned Parker's name in his talk. Mr. Bryan has lost his power to draw the farmers out. There was scarcely a score of them to hear him. There was no cheering as of old, only when the train pulled out, and then only did the crowd attempt a cheer.

RED CLOUD, Neb., Nov. 3.—(Special Telegram.)

The Bryan audience today numbered only 60. The democratic nominee for president was not mentioned.

Burkett at Hooper.

HOOPER, Neb., Nov. 3.—(Special.)—The republicans of Hooper held their first, last and only meeting of the campaign at the opera house last evening and the hall was entirely too small to accommodate the large crowd who came to hear Mr. Burkett. The Hooper cornet band rendered several selections early in the evening and then marched to the opera house, where they were to play during the evening. Dr. M. T. Zellars presided at the meeting and announced an opening that he would present the several candidates present, who would be allowed two minutes each. H. M. Eaton, candidate for commissioner of public lands and buildings, and a Dodge county man, was the first introduced. Following him were W. D. Hatter of Blair, candidate for the state senate; Joseph Roberts and Hugh Selby, candidates for the legislature, and John W. Graham, candidate for county attorney. Each in a few well chosen remarks told who they were and what they were working for.

Hon. E. J. Burkett, the speaker of the evening, was then introduced and for an hour and a half held the closest attention of the audience by his easy manner of presenting the facts, interspersed with witty remarks, which kept his listeners in the best of humor during the entire evening. He spoke at some length on national issues and the legislation achieved by the republicans in the past. Mr. Burkett then presented the revenue law in a most satisfactory manner, showing the large amount of property never before assessed which had been discovered this year and closed with an earnest appeal for the entire ticket from top to bottom.

Beatrice Says Title is Good.

PLAINVIEW, Neb., Nov. 3.—To the Editor of The Bee: I wish to say regarding the article in your paper a few days ago which stated I had been arrested for fraudulently disposing of 150 acres of land in Antelope county to Julius Schleuter of Seward county, that there is no truth in the report that I have no title to this land. I have a good warranty deed, properly recorded, and we tendered him a deed and abstract of title called perfect by the attorney, but he refused to accept same and give a mortgage for balance as per our contract. This affair has been nicely advertised through the newspapers, a fact which no doubt is very gratifying to a few. Be that as it may, I have done nothing wrong in this matter, am ready to fulfill my part of the agreement to a penny and will most anxiously ask the other party to carry out his. If ever I buy or sell a farm and afterward get sick of my bargain I won't call any one a rascal or criminal because I want to play the school-boy act and back out.

Hammer Still Filing Briefs.

Judge Hamer has filed his third brief in the Little murder case and has served notice that he has more coming. In conclusion

SOMEBODY said—
"Keep your knees warm and you're ALL warm." That's the whole secret of ulster popularity—for the bend of the knee carries more nerves than any other part of the body.

This ulster—a compromise between an automobile coat and a long sacque—is as good to look at as it is comfortable to wear.

Made of broadcloth—it is lined with fur, and has broad fur collar and cuffs. For driving—calling, and for evening wear it stands alone.

The price is governed by the lining and trimming, and ranges from $65.00 to $150.00.

Ask the dealer to show you this Gordon Coat—even if you don't want it. It is a splendid specimen of tailoring outside and of fur fitting within.
