

Mrs. Fairbanks tells how neglect of warning symptoms will soon prostrate a woman. She thinks woman's safeguard is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Ignorance and neglect are the cause of untold female suffering, not only with the laws of health but with the chance of a cure. I did not heed the warnings of headaches, organic pains, and general weariness, until I was well nigh prostrated. I knew I had to do something. Happily I did the right thing. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound faithfully, according to directions, and was rewarded in a few weeks to find that my aches and pains disappeared, and I again felt the glow of health throughout my body. Since I have been well I have been more careful. I have also advised a number of my sick friends to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and they have never had reason to be sorry. Yours very truly, Mrs. MARY FAIRBANKS, 216 South 7th St., Minneapolis, Minn." (Mrs. Fairbanks is one of the most successful and highest salaried traveling saleswomen in the West.)

When women are troubled with irregular, suppressed or painful menstruation, weakness, leucorrhoea, displacement or ulceration of the womb, that bearing-down feeling, inflammation of the ovaries, backache, bloating (or flatulence), general debility, indigestion, and nervous prostration, or are beset with such symptoms as dizziness, faintness, lassitude, excitability, irritability, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, all-gone and "want-to-be-left-alone" feelings, blues, and hopelessness, they should remember that there is one tried and true remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and at once remove such troubles. Refuse to buy any other medicine, for you need the best.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—For over two years I suffered more than tongue can express with kidney and bladder trouble. My physician pronounced my trouble catarrh of the bladder, caused by displacement of the womb. I had a frequent desire to urinate, and it was very painful, and lumps of blood would pass with the urine. Also had backache very often. After writing to you, and receiving your reply to my letter, I followed your advice, and feel that you and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound have cured me. The medicine drew my womb into its proper place, and then I was well. I never feel any pain now, and can do my household work with ease."—Mrs. ALICE LAMON, Kincaid, Miss.

No other medicine for female ills in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

ITALIANS HOLD BIG RALLY

Republican Club Meets at Washington Hall with Much Enthusiasm. His Address is Well Received by the Great Crowd, and E. Rosewater's Remarks are Echoed to the Echo.

A very large and enthusiastic meeting of the Italian Republican club was held in Washington hall last evening. Judging from the applause that greeted the speakers and the manner in which the audience rose to the favorable mention of the candidate of the party, there remains no doubt that the ballots of the Italian citizens will be cast straight and for the republican candidates. President Marfesi presided and in his opening remarks assured his hearers that the republican party was the friend of labor and of the workingman. He said: "Eight years ago you struck for work; now you strike for wages."

Dr. H. L. Ramaccolli introduced the speakers of the evening, Governor Mickey being first. The speaker who accorded the heartiest reception possible and it was some minutes before he could begin his address.

Governor Mickey's Remarks. The governor referred to the rapid growth of the state of Nebraska, saying: "I am glad to meet the boys and girls, the men who do things in the upbuilding of the commonwealth. The republican party is that army of progress and its policies are the ones upon which to build a great nation. The most important thing in a great nation is labor. The great army of our civil war came to the extent of 35 per cent from the ranks of the workingmen, and the work of that army of victors and its sufferings, proves beyond question the superiority of our country over all others in the matter of the laboring classes. No country can succeed that does not protect labor. We had a great debt after the war, and I think that that was probably the cause that suggested the first protective tariff. Bismarck, the great statesman, said of it: 'It is the wisest and greatest of policies.'"

"We must protect labor against the action of capital that will destroy competition. Capital cannot prosper without labor and labor should be given fair compensation for services. Unless we build on lines of justice and right between these interests we cannot be a great nation. This nation is not a nation of conquest, but it is an all-helping nation, and when we consider what it has done for Cuba and Porto Rico and the Philippines we realize that this nation must grow."

GOSSIP OF THE POLITICIANS

Sidelight Thrown on Alleged Opposition to Governor Mickey.

PERSONAL SORENESS ALL THERE IS TO IT

Few Disappointed Office Seekers Join Hands to Air Their Sillish Grievances Because Unable to Run Mickey.

"If people knew the inside of all this alleged opposition to Governor Mickey they would not give much countenance to the chief instigators," unburdened a well-informed man at republican state headquarters.

"Look at some of the chief backscappers right here in Omaha. There's Euclid Martin, for example, who wanted to be appointed by the governor to a place on the water board. The governor was a mighty fine fellow until he turned him down, whereupon he became immediately unfit to remain in the executive chair."

"There's George Rogers for another. He had been appointed as a democrat on the State Board of Education at the instance of Tom Major when he lived down in Paris, and he wanted Governor Mickey to reappoint him. When the governor decided some one else was entitled to the place Rogers was sure a new governor was necessary. He went down to Lincoln labeled for Governor Boyd and shouting that no one but a democrat could get his vote, and then turned a somersault to the populists before the convention was called to order."

"Then there's Frank Johnson, who is hollering his head off because he didn't connect with the place on the Omaha police commission, for which he was backed by John N. Baldwin. Johnson won't get over his disappointment as long as he can say mean things about Governor Mickey."

"Does any one imagine any of these people would be able to persuade him to appoint them to the places they coveted? They consider that the governor too high before he turned them down and but for that they would be out legging it for him now, irrespective of the fact that they all profess to be democrats. These are just a few samples. When you find a fellow making himself more than usually active blackguarding Governor Mickey, you can bet there's some similar explanation behind it."

A lot of democrats were in the audience at the Thurston meeting in Boyd's theater and they made their presence manifest by cheering loudly at Mr. Thurston's references to Colonel Bryan. They cheered just as loudly for Roosevelt, too. "That does not look as if Parker were going to get all the democratic votes around here," remarked one of the observing spectators.

It is being told about that John M. Thurston, after he finishes his speaking tour, will come back to Omaha next Tuesday, and swear in his vote here, regarding Nebraska as still his home and voting place.

This from a democratic lawyer over at the court house: "An English man has been eminently successful in his prosecutions of criminals, but there have been a whole pile he has not prosecuted. Some of these he evidently did not dare tackle; others he preferred to ignore. The fact is English has attended to the routine of his office and nothing more. He has farmed out his deputyships to inexperienced young democratic lawyers with no recommendation except partisan zeal. He hasn't done a thing except what came in his way and he couldn't dodge. Imagine Joe Folk in place of English when it comes to the bones there would have been! But English will get my vote—I am a democrat and I don't want republicans to get the salaries that go with the county attorney's office."

The sample ballots are out. The republican electoral ticket is headed with the name of Henry H. Wilson, the democrat with an X. Piasecki, the populist with Eric Johnson, the prohibition with Charles W. Day, the socialist with L. Westgate. There is a bewildering array of given names on the ticket, commencing with the initial "A" to wit, going down the list: Arthur, Andrew, Albert, Adelbert, Algron, Albinus.

Governor Mickey, John L. Kennedy and A. W. Jeffers will discuss political issues at a mass meeting of republicans to be held this evening at Creighton hall, Fifth and Harnett streets. It is expected there will be a general gathering of the candidates for the legislature and that they will be called upon for short addresses later in the evening. A feature of the meeting will be the music, the Grand Army of the Republic file and drum corps and the Swedish quartet having been engaged to play and sing. A large attendance is expected. Every republican who wants to hear political issues honestly and ably discussed has been urged to attend this meeting.

A joint rally of the Fifth Ward Republican and the Fifth Ward Roosevelt clubs has been planned for this evening at Erving's hall, 282 North Sixteenth street. In this rally the women of the ward are taking a deep interest, and the chances therefore are for a big meeting. The committee having the matter in charge promise that Governor Mickey, John L. Kennedy, A. W. Jeffers, Judge Slaughter and other candidates of the party will be on hand to furnish the evening's speaking.

As election day approaches the interest in the coming contest deepens and the attention is on the absorbing topic of the hour. Sentiment in this city seems to be increasing in favor of the republican state ticket. The situation is illustrated in the remarks of a prominent and respected citizen who several weeks ago announced his intention to vote for Bergs.

"Until a few days ago," said he, "I had expected to split my ticket. I have attended several of the ward meetings. I heard Bergs the other night. I have changed my mind about the way I shall vote, and my business brings me in contact with a great many influential people who feel the same as I do. I don't see any reason why we should put in a long-haired populist to run the affairs of this state. We have had populists in power and it gave the state a black eye. Bergs and I were afraid of Nebraska, and were afraid to invest their money here. I am afraid it would be the same if a change were made now. If Bergs is elected it will be the entering wedge to a populist legislature, and I don't believe people want that. Bergs is a smart enough, perhaps, but Mickey has given us a good, clean and able government and I don't find anyone who is able to say anything against it."

fusion mill, whose supply of vituperation has been almost exhausted by the enormous draughts of the last year.

Governor Mickey's still hunt for votes in Douglas county was interrupted Wednesday night when he had to go to Lincoln on official business, and he was thereby prevented from attending the Thurston-Kennedy meeting. The governor is suffering from a bad cold, but returned this morning and proposes to stay in Douglas county until Saturday. The concentration of the fusion attacks on Douglas have induced him to spend the most of this week here.

"I am confident that republican success in Nebraska has been reduced to the size of the majorities," said the governor. "Around my own home in Polk county things never looked better for the republican ticket, and it would appear that populism is to be thoroughly wiped out there. I have been informed that J. E. Hays, former state oil inspector, who has been a prospector against me because he was removed from office, is in Omaha and doing all he can against me. His efforts, I think, are doing me good and I am not worrying any on this score."

The scheme to pull the socialist candidate for county attorney off the ticket and substitute the name of the democratic nominee under the socialist designation fell through. The negotiations had progressed to the point of agreement upon the terms and consideration when The Bee told the story, and then the stuff was off.

R. B. Howell, evidently realizing the inefficiency of the combined support of the senior and junior yellow, has started something new in the shape of a toy daily print that is all his own. People found it on their doorsteps this morning and the announcement was made that the dodger would be gotten out every day until election. It is styled "The Municipal Record," and the name of V. D. Reynolds appears as publisher. One-half of the space is taken up by Howell's excellent opinions of himself and the remainder given to lurid denunciation of the "machine," the water company and "Rosewater." Fred Nash's interests are not betrayed and the municipal electric light plant bond issue is thoroughly broiled.

Here is the marooned mariner's estimate of himself: R. B. Howell is a competent civil engineer, a graduate of the United States Naval academy, a distinguished officer for sixteen years, a scholarly gentleman who has demonstrated his fitness for public positions by a record which is above reproach. Much of the handbill is a reprint of matter appearing in the subsidized press.

City Clerk Elbourn has declared that he will issue certificates to the two candidates receiving the greatest number of ballots for member of the water board, regardless of whether one be a democrat and the other a republican. Elbourn holds Judge Day's decision leaves him no alternative to take this stand. The judge questioned the constitutionality of the provision of the charter authorizing the election of political affiliations other than democratic and republican, and Elbourn concludes that nothing can prevent the two candidates getting the highest vote from claiming the office and serving.

The Second Ward Republican club will meet at Sixteenth and Hickory streets this evening. Speakers will be present and address the assembly.

A meeting of the First Ward Republican club will be held at Fourth and Woolworth avenue this evening.

WOMEN OF WORLD CONTEST Competitive Drill for Tel-City Silver Service is Again Won by W. 3-10.

At Germania hall last night a contest for the Tel-City silver service set was given between Omaha-Seymour camp No. 16 and Alpha camp No. 1. Woodmen of the World. This set, which is held by No. 16, can be challenged for by any of the camps of Council Bluffs, South Omaha or Omaha Woodmen of the World. The judges of the contest were: Captain Gwynn of Council Bluffs; on military, Captain Gwynn of Council Bluffs; on accuracy, Walter Adams and George Mack. The judges declared the winner to be Omaha-Seymour camp No. 16, by a score of 88. Alpha camp team was scored 88.

Harding is Dead. D. Harding, who registered at the Dodge hotel Wednesday night under the name of H. Huber and after corking the windows and doors with rags, turned on the gas, died at 8 o'clock last night at the Clarkson hospital. While nothing definite is known of deceased here, it is inferred from photographs found on his person that he came from Marshalltown, Ia. Coroner Bralley has taken charge of the body and will hold it a short time in the hope of locating Harding's relatives. The pictures found are of two children, a boy and a girl about 6 and 8 years respectively.
