

One Fare to Northwest and Return.
If you are thinking of paying a visit to Portland and the great territory of the northwest, now is your chance to make the delightful trip for just one-half the expense entailed at any other time. Don't postpone, for the chances are that you will not soon again be offered so low a rate.

On November 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, round trip tickets to Portland, Tacoma, Seattle, Vancouver and Victoria from all points on the Union Pacific and connecting roads will be sold at one way rate. This remarkably low rate has been granted by the Union Pacific to accommodate the delegates to the meeting of the National Grange Patrons of Husbandry in Portland. Provisional stop-overs will be allowed. The final return limit has been fixed at December 31, 1904, thus giving travelers over a month and a half to thoroughly investigate the boundless resources of Oregon and adjacent territory of the Northwest.
