NEW YORK, Nov. 9 .- 2 a. m.-If Maryland has gone republican, as unofficial re-turns at this hour indicate, the republican vote in the electoral college will be the unprecedented one of 325 for Roosevelt and Fairbanks to 151 for Parker and Davis. Not only is this far in excess of Mr. McKinley's votes, 292 in 1900, but Judge Parker's vote is 4 less than that given Mr. Bryan four years ago. It is practically certain that the republican national ticket has carried every state in the union outside of the socalled solid south. It may take the official count to decide Maryland. The republican majority in the next hous of representatives will be not less than fifty.

NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Nov. 8 .- 8:45 p. m .- The latest figures from New York state and city indicate that Roosevelt's plurality above the Bronx is about 265,000 and that Parker's state to Roosevelt by 223,000. It is conceded at democratic national headquarters Roosevelt has carried every doubtful state

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.-Surrounded by his devoted family and a company of intimate personal friends, President Roosevelt. tonight received the news of his overwhelming victory at the polls of the Amer-

The first information of a definite character was received by the president white he was at dinner. The returns hald before him then were in the nature of assurances that he had carried New York, his home state, by a plurality so large as to be

Bulletins from the newspapers of New York City were received conveying the welcome news. While the president was gratified, it may be said that the result was not entirely unexpected, although he himself had not expected so tremendous a victory.

These and rapidly succeeding bulletins, each conveying to him more cheering news, were read and discussed by the president with surprising calmness. He was in the best of spirits, but at no time did he manifest the slightest nervousness or anxiety Assured, as he said, that the campaign had been conducted on a plane of principle and patriotism as lofty as he himself would have it, and that everything had been done which legitimately could be done to insure the success of the principles which had been promulgated by the republican party and by him, he had awaited with perfect confidence the verdict of the people.

Soon after dinner a company of the intimate friends of the president and Mrs. Roosevelt assembled in the parlors of the White House and extended their felicitations and congratulations to both of them on the result. Among those present were Secretary Hay, Assistant Secretary Loomis and Miss Hitchcock, Mrs. Morton, Mrs. Taft, Mrs. Wynne, Mrs. James R. Garfield, Colonel and Mrs. Charles S. Bromwell, Gifford Pinchot, Major Charles McCawley, Francis E. Leupp, Mr. and Mrs. Thorne, Mrs. Hobson, Mrs. Eustis, General and Mrs. Oliver and Miss Oliver, Miss Loeb, Captain and Mrs. Winslow Captain W. S.

Cowles and E. Reeve Merritt. Telegram from Parker. Shortly after 9 o'clock President Roosevelt received a personal telegram from his temocratic opponent, congratulating him on his election. The telegram follows:

ROSEMOUNT, ESOPUS, N. Y.-8:30 p. m.

To President Boosevelt, Washington, D.
C.: The people by their vote have emphatically approved of your administration.

Hearty congratulations, Yours,

ALTON B. PARKER.

President Roosevelt replied as follows:

I thank you for congratulations.
THEODORE ROOSEVELT. Judge Parker the White House telegraph force was deluged with congratulatory messages for the president from friends in every section of the country. Although Major B. F. Montgomery and the entire force of operators were on duty, it was practically impossible for them to handle promptly the flood of telegrams. Until far into the night the messages continued to come, even long after the president had retired to the private apartments of the White House,

At 10:15 o'clock the president left his guests at the White House and went to his private office in the executive building There he greeted a large number of the corps of Washington correspondents, who had been awaiting him. He chatted freely with them about the result of the election making no attempt to cenceal his great gratification at the victory which had been won. After talking informally with his central committee claims that Roosevelt friends for a time the president dictated a formal statement expressing his views. The scene at the moment of the making of the statement was notable. Ranged in a semi-circle about the big desk in the president's office, the correspondents faced Mr. Roosevelt as he tilted back in an arm chair and dictated the announcement slowly to Secretary Loeb, who sat at the president's admits that Roosevelt has carried Illinois left. So quiet was everybody in the room that one could hear the clock tick on the mantle shelf.

Will Not Make Another Race The president's statement, in which he announced that in no circumstance would e accept another nomination, follows; I am deeply sensible of the honor done me I am deeply sensible of the honor done me by the American people in thus expressing their confidence in what I have done and have tried to do. I appreciate to the full-est the responsibility placed on me, and I shall not forfeit it. On March 4 next I shall have served three and a half years, and this three and a half years my first term. The wise tradition which limits the president to two terms, regards the substance and not the form. Under no circumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination.

After receiving the congratulations of the newspaper men, the president received committee representing the republican political organizations of Washington and the members of the junior league. To the latter he briefly spoke as follows:

Ladies and Gentlemen: I wish to thank you with all my heart and so say that I very deeply appreciate the confidence the American people have shown in He and that I shall do all that in me lies not to forfelt that confidence. (Cheere and applause)

Message from Fairbanks.

Among the messages received by President Roosevelt was one from his running mate on the republican ticket, Senator Charles W. Fairbanks. It read:

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 8, 1994.—The Hon. Theodore Roosevelt: Accept my heartiest congratulations on your well deserved and magnificent victory. Your election is the logical result of your splendid administration. May the four years to come he marked by widespread happiness and prosperity. Mrs. Fairbanks joins me in best without Mrs. Processell and the control of the c wishes to Mrs. Roosevelt and yourself

The president's reply was conveyed in a personal telephone talk with Mr. Fairbanks, in which he congratulated the latter.

REJOICING IN NEW YORK CITY Throng on Streets Holds Impromptu Celebration-Incidents at Repub-Hean Headquarters.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8 .- Broadway tonight from Twenty-third to Forty-second streets was packed with a shouting, noisy multitude, celebrating the election. Horns, bells, rattles, whistles and other contrivances which would create a din were used with vigor and effect. Around the various points where bulletins were displayed the crowd ammed the streets until they were completely blocked. It was a good natured crowd and all seemed to be republicans for the time, as the names of Roosevelt and Higgins were often and heartily cheered.

The result was known so quickly that nuch interest was taken out of the bulletins and the crowds expended their enthusiasm in marching up and down the 1,800. streets creating a deafening din that de veloped in a roar for more than a doze

Republican national headquarters was scene of rejoicing tonight. The row of rooms which have been occupied by the committee were opened to a number of specially invited guests. The communicating rooms were thrown open, making a long corridor from Chairman Cortelyou's room to the press room.

Cornelius N. Bliss, the treasurer of the committee, was one of the first officials to appear, and soon after his arrival the result of the election was known. Chairman Cortelyou was delayed on Long Island. He went to Hempstead at noon to vote and did not return to his hotel until o'clock. Just before 9 o'clock he went to the national headquarters and soon after issued a statement saying:

At this hour the indications are that the ountry has given an overwhelming vote of confidence in the president and his adninistration.

Many personal friends of the president and prominent republicans called to join in the general joilification. Hon. James Bryce was among the visitors. He camto observe how a successful party in this country received the returns. Charles F. Brooker of the executive committee, Senator Proctor of Vermont, President Butler of Columbia university, Dr. Albert Shaw and many republican politicians of the city were present during the evening

As the reports from New York were received they were greeted with applause and the republicans seemed surprised as well as gratified at the great majority indicated. They felt assured that the Em pire state had pointed the way which the remainder of the northern states would follow, and the later returns from outside increased the joy they felt. During the evening luncheon was served n the rooms. Congratulate Odell.

NEWBURG, N. Y., Nov. 8 .- Governo Odeli received the election returns at his ome here by two special wires. Early in the evening, as the drift of the voting be came apparent, the governor expressed his assurance of a great republican victory. Many persons called and congratulated the governor. He later gave out the following statement:

The victory of course greatly pleases me. It is a magnificent endorsement of the republican administration, both state and national. I have thought all along that our people in weighing up the qualifications of the opposing candidates would reach the conclusion that they have reached. Personally, I am gratified beyond measure, because this victory demonstrates to me that the American people will always resent unwarranted assaults upon the integrity of their public officials.

Along this line, if for no other reason, the victory is important, because it will be an incentive to young men to participate in affairs of state undeterred by the fear of unjust criticism.

The victory gives assurance of the continuance of the wise and conservative policies of the republican party both in the state and nation.

MINNESOTA

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 8.-Roosevelt re ceived a record-breaking plurality in Minnesota, going far beyond McKinley's mar gin of 77,000 four years ago. On the face of the returns so far received the republican electoral district will have a pluralit; of over 100,000. Parker's vote was much smaller than that received by Bryan four years ago, and Roosevelt was especially strong in counties which of old were populist strongholds. In Kittson county, for example. Roosevelt polled 1,500 as against 100 for Parker, whereas McKinley carried the county by 300. In St. Paul and Ramsey county Roosevelt will have close to 7,500 plurality, nearly 700 greater than McKinley's vote. Despite the tremendous plurality for Roosevelt, the democrats apparently have elected their candidate for governor, John A. Johnson. He is running well shead of the vote cast for Lind, democrat, who was defeastd four years ago by 2.300. At democratic headquarters, Johnson's election was claimed by a plurality of from 20,000 to 22,000. Chairman, James A. The probarbial slow returns for Nobraska seem to be retarded more than ever by the unusual length of the ballot. Only me sixty precincts out of the 1,700 in the state were reported at the hour of going to press with this early edition.

On president, Nebraska has gone overwhelmingly for Roosevelt, estimates of his plurality going as high as 60,000. In this the general tidal wave for the president throughout the country is caught up and reflected. Roosevelt is running stronger than McKinley did four years ago. Parker seems to be getting the better of Watson in the figures so far in.

Ten out of twenty-two voting precincts in the city of Lincoln give Roosevelt a plurality of 328. The same precincts gave McKinley a plurality of 840. The city of Lincoln will give Roosevelt close to 1900 plurality against against 1,777 for McKin-and must await more complete returns. The first ten precincts reporting on governor indicated that Mickey, republican, was failing behind his vote of two years ago. These precincts gave Mickey (rep.) 1,241 and Berge (fus.) 1,284, whereas the same precincts in 1902 gave Mickey (rep.) 1,352 and Thompson (fus.) 1,187, the net loss of Mickey being 190.

Eleven precincts out of twenty-two in the city of Lincolnshow a net loss for Mickey of 161. Governor Mickey, however, is making substantial gains in Omaha and Douglas county over two years ago. The Bee's lates' talls on governor give Mickey 6,111 and Berge 5,074 in sixty precincts outside of Douglas, as against 5,519 for Mickey and 4,525 for Thompson two years ago. The rest of the state ticket below the governor is safely republican. All kinds of estimates and claims are being made by the different political managers and representatives of opposing candidates. From Lincoln somes a report that Bryan claims the election of Berge by 8,000. Democratic State Chairman Allen puts the figure at 10,000 majority for Berge. The republican chairman says Mickey will yet be shown to be in the lead. Claims are made of the election of all six of the republican candidates for congress by substantial majorities. Hitchcock, democrat, in the Second, refuses to concede the election to Kennedy, republican, but the latter is well ahead in the returns. No idea of the result on legislature can
