It was a famous victory. And the colored troops fought nobly. What-aski could have been the matter with Whatski?

Four years more of Teddy and four years more of the full dinner pail. Fred Brumling's run for county commissioner distanced all the automobiles. Political house cleaning in the court house will begin the first week in January.

When it comes to a matter of percentage of gain Eugene V. Debs will think himself entitled to congratulations. General Stoessel can hardly be congratulated that Port Arthur is untenable so long as the Japanese are unable to show him.

Pennsylvania gave 400,000 plurality for Roosevelt just to show how it appreciated the settlement of the coal strike. Colonel Bryan's post-election statement will attract much more attention than his ante-election campaign speeches.

A REPUBLICAN CONGRESS.

The precedent of the election of a majority of the popular branch of congress by the party electing the president remains unbroken. The republican majority in the house of representatives of the Fifty-ninth congress will be more than double the majority in the present congress.

AS TO SHIPPING LEGISLATION. It is not probable that there will be any shipping legislation at the coming session of congress, yet the New York Chamber of Commerce has just instructed its committee on commerce and revenue laws to watch at the coming session legislation affecting the commerce of the country.

CHAIRMAN CORTELYOU. When George B. Cortelyou was chosen as chairman of the republican national committee a good deal of doubt was expressed as to the wisdom of the selection. Experienced politicians, the veterans of many campaigns, felt that President Roosevelt had made a serious mistake in choosing so young a man, with practically no experience in politics, to manage the national campaign.

NO CONFERENCE DURING WAR. It is stated in a St. Petersburg dispatch that while the Russian government will not show offense at the American proposal of another peace conference at The Hague, to consider matters determined at the first conference, it will decline to participate so long as the war lasts.

THE MORNING OF THE DAY AFTER. "And the next day it rained." "Blessed are the dead whom the rain rains on." There was a democratic party. Where is that party now?

trouble of a serious nature is likely to arise from them. The course of Russia in the war has given an impression of their urgency, but that power has been fought some lessons that may confidently be counted upon to improve her conduct.

Lessons of Experience. Chicago News. Sitting up all night with a pile of badly scratched ballots will convince any election official of the necessity of voting machines.

Modern Progress in Spain. Baltimore American. Spain is more modern than its enemies are willing to admit. There is a free fight with sticks and inkstands.

PHOTOGRAPH AS A SPELLBINDER. Boston Transcript. An English candidate for Parliament is campaigning by phonograph. At the beginning of his canvass he spoke an address into the machine, and since then his speech has been delivered viva voce by the phonograph all over his borough.

PERSONAL NOTES. Andrew Carnegie's early ambition was to be a newspaper man, and he confessed that even today the youthful yearning takes hold of him.

THE MORNING OF THE DAY AFTER. "And the next day it rained." "Blessed are the dead whom the rain rains on." There was a democratic party. Where is that party now?

ROUND ABOUT NEW YORK.

Ripples on the "Current of Life in the Metropolis. Like a nursery bunch chattering over a new toy, New Yorkers are applauding and kicking in and over the subway. There is more kicking than applause.

Another effect of riding in the tunnel is the subway headache, which is said to be due to the constant glare before the eyes as the train goes through. The subway headache comes on with a rush, and like all headaches that come to persons whose eyes are a bit off normal, is the result of some optical effect upon them.

Two months ago the New Haven railroad cut down its service to sixty trains out of New York on week days and twenty-three on Sundays. Such a wild roar of rage tore from the commuters that President Mellon has now issued a new time table giving twenty-two trains on Sunday and fifty-seven on week days.

J. D. Smith, ex-commodore of the New York Yacht club and a millionaire resident of the eastern metropolis, has effected a remarkable cure of what was believed to be fatal illness. Early last spring Mr. Smith, who is 75 years old, was taken ill with a complication of gout and Bright's disease.

For $300 the United States Battleship Maine Salvage company has bought from the Cuban government the wreck of the Maine in Havana harbor. A cofferdam will be built around the hull and it will be raised. Such of the seventy-four bodies of American sailors as were not recovered after the battleship was destroyed will be removed and buried.

of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., has purchased the property in Coney Island known as Steeplechase Park and a parcel with a frontage of 150 feet on Surf avenue, situated eastward of Steeplechase Park.

Within a few days there will be completed and thrown open for public inspection at the Bronx Park Zoological garden a typical dwelling house of the Alaskan Indians—one of the most totem poles standing in front—stored with the treasures of the Harriman collection.

A golden wedding anniversary and six other wedding anniversaries, all in one family, were celebrated in the home of Dr. A. W. Lawrence in Brooklyn last week. The golden event was that of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Wilson Lawrence.

RECOGNIZING GRADE TEACHERS. Most Important Factor in the Public School System. Chicago Record-Herald. A gratifying feature of present educational tendency and activity is the increasing recognition of the grade teacher as the most important factor in the public school system.

James Barton Adams in Denver Post. Now the battle of the ballots has been fought. Bless the Lord! We are through with hearing argumental raps.

After the distractions of the political campaign we look for a new impulse in business. You will come to BROWNING, KING & CO. if you want to be sure of getting your full money's worth.

A MATTER OF HEALTH. ROYAL BAKING POWDER. Absolutely Pure HAS NO SUBSTITUTE. leaves school at the grammar grade or goes on through the high school, his success must largely depend upon the character, fidelity and educational fitness of the grade teachers who have had direction of his elementary instruction.

"Why does he lead the yells?" "Because he hopes to become a professor of languages." "How will leading the yells help him?" "Why, it's just another form of extracting the roots." "Say," sneered the neighbor who was always butting in, "what's the use of you planting anything? You can't raise any thing."

Backus—I suppose your wife is still very dear to you, old chap? Cyrus—Deer. She has running accounts in three of the biggest department stores. Boston Transcript.

Bless the Lord! You will never catch her lying in a trance. Bless the Lord! She is always up and doing. Always keeping great things going. And that ain't no idle dreamer's song and dance. Bless the Lord!

Now To Business. After the distractions of the political campaign we look for a new impulse in business. You will come to BROWNING, KING & CO. if you want to be sure of getting your full money's worth. That GRAND PRIZE award in our window will show you what the judges at the St. Louis exposition thought of BROWNING, KING & CO. clothing, and they only echo the sentiments of everyone who has ever had any experience with garments of our manufacture.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is over sixty years old. This must mean merit, solid, genuine merit. It certainly must be true that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral cures coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis, asthma. Ask your own doctor to explain why it strengthens weak throats and lungs.
