BRYAN MAKES A STATEMENT

Says Judge Parker is the Victim of a Mistaken Party Policy.

in the two preceding campaigns. He con-

The experiment has been a costly one and it is not likely to be repeated during the present generation. The castern democrats were also deceived. They were ledocrats who a few months ago favored the prepublican party or lond at the party. These men now see that the party to help the democratic party if our party would only be less radical. The corporation press aided in this deception and even the republican papers professed an unselfish desire to help build up the democratic party. The election has opened the eyes of the hundreds of thousands of honest and well-meaning democrats who a few months ago favored the reorganization of the party. These men now see that they must either go into the republican party or join with the democratic party a positive, aggressive and progressive reform organization. There is no middle ground.

Bryan's Future Course.

Bryan's Future Course.

Mr. Bryan's Future Course.

Mr. Bryan did what he could to prevent the reorganization of the democratic party; when he failed in this he did what he could to aid Parker and Davis in order to secure such reforms—and there were some vital ones—promised by their election. Now that the campaign is over he will assist those who desire to put the democratic army once more upon a fighting basis; he will assist in organizing for the campaign of 1908. It does not matter so much who the assist in organizing for the campaign of 1908. It does not matter so much who the nominee may be. During the next three years circumstances may bring into the arena some man especially fitted to carry the standard. It will be time enough to nominate a candidate when we are near enough to the campaign to measure the relative availability of those worth to be considered but we ought to begin now to lay our plans for the next national compaign and to form the line of battle.

Provisions of New Platform.

The party must continue to protest against a large army, against a large navy and to stand for the independence of the Flipinos, for imperialism adds the menace of militarism to the corrupting influence of commercialism, and yet experience has shown that however righteous the party's position on this subject, the issue does not arouse the people as they can be warned by a question which touches them immediately and individually. The injustice done to the Fliipinos is not reached as it should be or as we resent a wrong to correlves, and the costliness of imperialism is hidden by the statistics and by our indirect system of taxation. While the party must maintain its position on this subject, it cannot present this as the only issue.

The party must also maintain its position on the tariff question. No answer has been made to the indictment against the high tariff, and yet, here, too, the burden of the tariff system is concealed by the method in which the taxes are collected. If cannot Provisions of New Platform.

tariff, and yet, here, too, the burden of the tariff system is concessed by the method in which the taxes are collected. If cannot be made the sole issue in a campaign.

The party must renew its demand for an income tax, to be secured through a constitutional amendment, in order that wealth may be made to pay its share of the expense of the government. Today we are collecting practically all of our federal revenue from taxes upon consumption, and these bear heaviest upon the poor and light upon the rich.

Must Stand by Bimetallism.

The party must maintain its position in favor of bimetallism. It cannot surrender its demand for the use of both gold and silver as the standard money of the country, but the question must remain in abeyance until conditions so change as to bring the public again face to face with falling prices and rising dollars. This, therefore, cannot be made the controlling issue of Must Stand by Bimetallism.

THE VALUE OF CHARCOAL

Pew People Know How Useful it is in Preserving Health and Beauty. Nearly everybody knows that charcoal is and purifier in nature, but few realize its value when taken into the human system for the same cleansing purpose. Charcoal is a remedy that the more you but simply absorbs the gases and impurities always present in the stomach and intestines and carries them out of the system. Charcoal sweetens the breath after smoking, drinking or after eating onlons and other odorous vegetables.

Charcoal effectually clears and improved the complexion, it whitens the teeth and or to aid in controlling elections?" further acts as a natural and eminently safe cathartic.

It absorbs the injurious gases which collect in the stomach and bowels; it distnfects the mouth and throat from the poison ments of charcoal, says: "I advise mart's Charcoal Lozenges to all patients suffering from gas in the stomach and bowels and to clear the complexion and purify the breath, mouth and throat; I also believe the liver is greatly benefited by the daily use of them; they cost but twenty-five cents a box at drug stores, and although in some sense a patent preparation, yet I believe I get more and better charcoal in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges than in any of the ordinary charccal tab-the contest upon which we are entering.

The trust question presents the most acute phase of the contest between democracy and plutocracy, so far as economic issues are concerned. The president virtually admits that the trusts contributed to his campaign fund, but he denies that they received any promise of aid or immunity. No well informed person doubts that the large corporations have furnished the republican campaign fund during the campaigns of 189, 199 and 1994, and no one can answer the logic of Judge Parker's arraignment of trust contributions. The trusts are run on business principles. They do not subscribe millions of dollars to campaigns unless they are paying for favors aiready granted or purchasing favors for future delivery. The weakness of Judge Parker's position was that the charge was made at the close of the campaign, when it was neutralized by a counter charge. The trusts cannot be fought successfully by any party that depends upon trust funds to win the election. The democratic party must make its attack upon the trusts so vehement that no one will suspect of secret aid from them. It will be to its advantage if it will begin the next campaign with an announcement that no trust contributions will be accepted and then prove its sincerity by giving the public access to its contribution list. In public enterprises the names of contributors are generally made public in order to denote the character and purpose of the work.

President Hoosevelt's Opportunity.

President Roosevelt has four years in which to make good his declaration that no obligations were incurred by the acceptance of trust funds. He will disappoint either the contributors or the voters. If he disappoints the contributors, the trust question may be put in the process of settlement. If he disappoints the people they will have a chance to settle with his party four years hence. "Death to every private monopoly" must be the slogan of the party in this question; any other position is a surrender. The platforms of 1900 and 1904 declare that a private monopoly is indefensible and intolerable, and this declaration presents the issue upon the trust question.

The party must continue its defense of the results of the four member. In case of the failure of the four member. In case of the failure of the four member. In case of the failure of the four admirals to agree as stated in these dispatches, the two powers will ask a sover-eign to name him. Although neither Russia nor Great Britain pledges itself in advance to punish the offenders, both agree to accept the finding of the commission, thus imposing upon each other a moral obligation to deal with any culpability established, according to the laws of the respective countries.

The Russian inquiry into the reported fitting on the German fishing vessel Sonntag Roosevelt's Opportunity.

The party must continue its defense of the interests of the wage-carners; it must protect them from the encroachments of capital. The fact that the laboring men have not always shown their appreciation of the party's position ought not to deter the party from doing its duty in regard to them. The labor question is not one that concerns employers and employes alone; it concerns the entire community and the people at large have an interest in the just settlement of labor controversies; for that reason they must insist upon remedial.

people at large have an interest in the just settlement of labor controversies; for that reason they must insist upon remedial legislation in regard to hours and arbitration; and they must so limit the authority of the courts in contempt cases as to overthrow what is known as government by injunction.

The party must continue its opposition to national banks of issue and must insist upon divorcing the treasury department from Wall street.

The party must continue its fight for the popular election of senators and for direct legislation wherever the principle can be applied. It must not only maintain its position on old issues, but it must advance to the consideration of new questions as they arise.

they arise. State Ownership of Public Utilities. It takes time to direct attention to an evil and still more time to consolidate sentiment in favor of a remedy, and Mr. Bryan is not sanguine enough to believe that all the reforms that he favors will at once be endorsed by any party platform, but he will proceed to point out the reforms which he believes to be needed. Among them may be mentioned the postal telegraph system, state ownership of railroads, the election of federal judges for fixed terms and the election of postmasters by the people for their respective communities. Instead of having the government controlled by corporations through officers chosen by the corporations, we must have a government porations through officers chosen by the corporations, we must have a government of the people, by the people and for the people—a government administered according to the Jeffersonian maxim of "equal rights to all and special privileges to none." Hope and duty point the way. To doubt the success of our cause is to doubt the triumph of the right, for cure is and must be the cause of the masses. "With malice toward none and charity for all" let us begin the campaign of 1908; let us appeal to the moral sentiment of the country and arraign the policies of the republican party before the bar of the public conscience,

PARKE THANKS HIS SUPPORTERS

Says Mission of Democratic Party is

Not Yet Accomplished. ESOPUS, N. Y., Nov. 9.-Judge Parker tonight gave to the press an open letter addressed to "The Democracy of the Nation," in which he thanked those in charge of his campaign work and declared that people will soon realize that "the tarifffed trusts are absorbing the wealth of the safest and most efficient disinfectant | the nation." He said that when that time comes, the people will turn to the democratic party for relief. In his letter Judge Parker says he shall never seek a nomination for public office. He discusses the diftake of it the better; it is not a drug at all. ficulties encountered by the comocrats in making their campaign this year and makes suggestions on harmony in the party. Concluding the judge says he does not hesitate to say that the great moral question that confronts the democrats is shall the trusts and corporations be prevented from contributing money to control

The letter follows: ESOPUS, N. Y., Nov. 2.—To the democracy of the nation: Our thanks are due to the members of the national committee and to the executive committee in charge of the campaign for the most unselfish and brilliant party service. All that it was possible for men to do they did, but our difficulty was beyond the reach of party managers.

All druggists sell charcoal in one form or another, but probably the best charcoal and the most for the money is in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges; they are composed of the finest powdered willow charcoal and other harmless antiseptics in tablet form, or, rather, in the form of large, pleasant tasting lozenges, the charcoal being mixed with honey.

The daily use of these lozenges will soon tell in a much improved condition of the general health, better complexion, sweeter breath and purer blood, and the beauty of it is that no possible harm can result from their continued use, but, on the contrary, great benefit.

A Buffalo physician, in speaking of the bessets of charcoal, says: "I advise they will wish to throw off these complexions are absorbing the wealth of the nation. Then they will wish to throw off these they will wish to throw off these cannot be the set of managers.

I am most grateful to them and wish in this general way to extend my thanks to the workers, as well as to the rank to the workers, as well as to the volution to the workers, as well as to the rank to the workers, as well as to the rank to the workers, as well as to the rank to the workers, as well as to the rank to the workers, as well as nation.

Then they will wish to throw off these leeches, but the republican party will not aid them to do R. for its leaders appreciate too well the uses to which the moneys of the trusts can be put in political campaigns.

When thattime comes, and come it will, the people will turn to the demogratic

When thattime comes, and come it will, the people will turn to the democratic party for relief, and the party should be ready-ready with an organization of partifolic citizens covering every election district, who are willing to work for the love of the cause: an organization supported by as many town, city, county and state officers as we are able to elect in the meantime.

as many town, city, county and state officers as we are able to elect in the meantime:

We entered this canvass with every northern, western and eastern state, save one, in republican control. This gave to that party a large army of officeholders, reaching into every hamlet, many of whom gladly followed the examples set for them by the members of the president's cabinet in devoting their time and services to the party. To accomplish much in this direction, however, we must forget the difficulties of the past. If any one suspects his neighbor of treathery, let him not hint of his suspicion. If he knows he has deserted us, let him not tiell it. Our forces have been weakened by divisions. We have quarreled at times over non-essentials. If we would help the people, if we would furnish an organization through which they may be relieved of a party that has grown so corrupt that it will gladly enter into partnership with trusts to secure moneys for election purposes, we must forest the differences of the past and begin this day to build up, wherever it may be needed, a broad and effective organization, and we must by constant teaching through the preess and from the platform apprise the people of the way the vicious tariff circle works.

We must bring home to them at other than election times the fact that moneys contributed to the resublican party by the people of the way the vicious tariff circle works.

We must bring home to them at other than election times the fact that moneys contributed to the resublican party by the trusts is not only dishonest money, but it is given that the trusts may, without hindrances take a much larger sum from the people. In the presence of a defest that would take away all nersearch smbtion, were it true that otherwise it nessessed me, I do not hestiste to say that in my outsion the greatest moral question which now contrants us is:

"That the trusts and corporations be prevented from contributing money to control or to aid in controlling elections?"

Rich service as I can render in that or any other direction will siddly be rendered, and I beg the co-one-ration, as a fellow worker, of every democration the country.

LONDON, Nov. 9.-Lord Lansdowne, in the absence of Premier Balfour at the historic lord mayor's banquet held tonight, made a strong plea for peace and arbitra tion on behalf of the British government. Lord Lansdowne pointed out to a large and rather unsympathetic audience that arbitration was the only way that the North sea dispute with Russia could have been equitably settled and almost in the same breath drew a vivid picture of the horrors of the struggle now proceeding in the east Between the lines of every reference the foreign minister made to the Russo-Japanese war was an urgent plea, amounting almost to a demand, that it might be set- Omaha. tled by arbitration. It was a carefully prepared statement made before what is considered the most representative gathering it was generally interpreted as a bolder officiated. bid for intervention than has yet emanated from any neutral power.

Secretary Hay has received assurances not official, but sufficient, from Great Britain and Mexico that they stand prepared to negotiate arbitration treaties with America on the liness of that recently concluded between France and the United States, consequently the State department will proceed at once to complete the whole fabric of treaties so as to have them ready for submission to the senate when it meets again December &
