ROOSEVELT TO ST. LOUIS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10. - President the exact majority. Roosevelt has promised to attend the Louislana Purchase exposition on Saturday, November 26. He made this promise tonight to a committee from St. Louis headed by Mayor Wells, who came to Washington especially for the purpose of inviting him to visit the fair. The probability is the president may remain in St. Louis until the night of Sunday, November

President Roosevelt has been anxious to go to St. Louis to see the fair ever since the opening. However, the presidential campaign impelled him to remain in the east and in August he so informed Mr. William H. Thompson, treasurer of the ex-

It is said that the president and those who accompany him will leave here on Thanksgiving night and will reach St. Louis early Saturday morning. The invitation to Mr. Roosevelt, it is understood, is comprehensive enough to include any other persons whom he may wish to have with him, and some of the members of the cabinet are likely to accompany him.

The members of the committee are highly lette and his measures. As to United States elated with the promptness with which Mr. senator, Mr. Conner says there is no chance Roosevelt decided to visit the fair. They for Senator Quaries to be re-elected not feel that his attendance will have an excellent effect and that the day of his visit will be one of the banner days, if not the banner day of the history of the exposition. They say that the arrangements will be made for a fitting program for that day, the chief feature, of course, being a thorough inspection of the grounds and buildings of the great fair, with such other exercises as befits the presence of the chief executive of the nation. For Sunday fol the iron rule of the State department, that lowing, should there be no disappointment under no circumstances or conditions shall of the committee's expectation that the this government make a formal offer to president will remain in St. Louis during bring the belligerents to peace terms, unthat day, arrangements for his entertainment also will be made.

AN OBJECT LESSON

A physician puts the query: Have you never noticed in any large restaurant at lunch or dinner time the large number of hearty, vigorous old men at the tables; men whose ages run from sixty to eighty years; many of them hald and all perhaps gray, but none of them feeble or senile? Perhaps the spectacle is so common as to have escaped your observation or comment, but nevertheless it is an object lesson which means something

If you will notice what these hearty old they are not munching bran crackers or gingerly picking their way through a menu card of new fangled health foods; on the contrary they seem to prefer a julcy roast of beef, a properly turned loin of mutton, and even the deadly broiled lobster is not altogther ignored.

The point of all of this is that a vigorous old age depends upon good digestion and wholesome food and not upon plenty of dieting and an endeavor to live upon bran crackers.

There is a certain class of food cranks. who seem to believe that meat, coffee and many other good things are rank poisons. but these cadaverous sickly looking individuals are a walking condemnation of their own theories.

The matter in a nutshell is that if the stomach secretes the natural digestive juices in sufficient quantity, any whole some food will be promptly digested; if the stomach does not do so, and certain food cause distress, one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after each meal will remove all difficulty, because they supply just what every weak stomach lacks, pepsin, hydro-chloric acid, diastase and nux. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets do not ac upon the bowels and in fact are not strictly a medicine, as they act almost entirely upon the food eaten, digesting it thoroughly and thus giving the stomach a much needed rest and an appetite for the next

Of people who travel, nine out of ten use Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, knowing them to be perfectly safe to use at any time and also having found out by experience that they are a safeguard against indigestion in any form, and eating as they have to, at all hours and all kinds of food, the traveling public for years have pinned their faith to Stuart's Tablets.

All druggists sell them at 50 cents for full-sized packages and any druggist from Maine to California, if his opinion were asked, will say that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the most popular and successful remedy for any stomach trouble.

CONSTABLE IS KILLED BY A POLICEMAN

Brother of Dead Man Seeks Revenge and Kills Sheriff Who Tried to Arrest Him and Another Man.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Nov. 10 .- Faystie county is excited tonight as never before over a double killing which occurred today following the killing of Constable W. A. Jackson by Policeman Will Elliott of Montgomery late last night.

Last night in a quarrel between the two officers, Jackson was shot and killed. Harvey Jackson, a brother of W. A. Jackson, and two other brothers are said to have armed themselves and started to 'clean up" the entire police force of the town, which is a small hamlet near Fayette. A telephone message was sent to Sheriff Daniels of Fayette county to come to Montgomery at once. Daniels reached Montgomery at 10 o'clock this morning. Just as he stepped from the train he saw Harvey Jackson lounging around the station not more than fifty feet away. Without drawing his revolver, the Sheriff walked over to Jackson and placing his hand on Jackson's shoulder told him to leave the town under penalty of being arrested. Jackson, without a word, fired twice point blank at the Sheriff, each bullet taking effect. The sheriff dropped to regions and desert stretches, and the result the ground, dying instantly. John Rolf, a prominent citizen of the town, was standing near by and had witnessed the talk between Daniels and Jackson, throwing up his hands he advanced toward Jackson to remonstrance with him and to help Daniels. Jackson turned and shot Rolf dead. Then reloading his revolved and pulling another from his pocket, brandished them in the air and defied any one in the town to take him. The other Jackson boys came into th town and met their brother immediately after the shooting. For half an hour the three men paraded the streets, firing revolvers and defying the town. The people were in a panic and crawled into the cellars. The streets were deserted and not an official dared to make his appearance In the meantime Detective Ash, who lives near Montgomery and is reputed to be the gamest man in West Virginia, was tele-DELAWARE, O., Nov. 10.—Rev. BOSTON, Nov. 10.-The general mission ary committee of the Methodist Episcopal church, after considerable discussion, today voted unanimously to appropriate $1,220,000 for missionary work during the coming year, and that this sum be so divided as to give $701,500 for work in the foreign field and $518,500 for domestic work. The question of the apportionment of the money for foreign missions among the various countries was deferred until tomorrow.

The total appropriations for home miswork today aggregated $125,000. STEEL POOL AT NEW

Meeting Next Tuesday at Which All Prices Will Probably Re Advanced.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Nov. 10,-All the associations controlling the prices of steel are to meet in New York next Tuesday and ontinue in session until the whole list of prices has been revised to suit the conditions which have arisen in the iron and steel market. The associations, which are included in those to meet next week are the billet, bar, rall, structural plate, re and others. It is not expected that the meetings will end before the latter part of the week. The prospects are that the scale of prices determined upon next week will be those that will rule until well into the first quarter of the coming year, and it is fairly ertain that prices will be advanced in mos of the lines. The price of billets, it is thought by the well informed, will be in creased to $21. The present price is $19.50, Pittsburg.

Men Growing Weaker

Strenuous Life is Using Up Their Vital Forces and Energy Faster Than Nature Replaces Them.

As a result many are being stricken with paralysis, locomotor staxia, and nervous prostration. To overdo anything is harmful, and a continuation of it will wear out the strongest man. Overwork, worry, brain-tire, high living, dissipation and other excesses and abuses waste away the most vital elements of the blood, brain and nerve forces, and disease sets in. At first there will be a general indisposition, poor appetite, indigestion, severe headache, wakefulness and weakness in the back and spine, the temper irritable, the spirits depressed, the memory poor and the mind weakened, ending in premature decline or decay. Dr. Chase's Blood and Nerve Food is composed of the same elements that have been wasted and worn out in the blood, brain and nerves. By making new blood it turns weakness into strength and forces new life and the vigor of youth into every portion of body, restoring the patient to perfect manhood. Weigh yourself before telving it. Price 50 cents. Sold and guaranteed by Myere-Dille ten Drug Co., Omaha, Neb.
