

SOCIETY ON FAST SCHEDULE

Affairs to Occupy Attention Are Numerous Again.

CALENDAR FOR THE WEEK IS VERY FULL

Every Day Has Its Notable Events and Dates Ahead Are Being Set as Fast as Plans Can Be Laid.

The Platin of the Rich.

Nothing to do but spend. Nothing to do but spend. Nothing to do but spend.

We've run all the gamut of functions—Conventional, special and folk; We'll blow a million.

We've golfed and we've toiled and we've played.

We've searched high and low with our play. On airships, like horses.

The country is older than Noah. The city, again, is the same.

We've used up all scenes and sensations. Ever dreamed by Piner or Fitch.

There is nothing left to do. So pity the poor, poor rich!

—Edwin L. Rabin in Smart Set.

SUNDAY—The Harmon Club; Mrs. Thomas McShane at home.

The social season has seldom opened more promisingly than this fall and close upon the heels of more receptions and dances.

The many beautiful flowers that have been offered the debutantes of late have served a double purpose, thanks to the courtesy and the thoughtfulness of these young women, and nearly every room in every household of the city has been brightened by the beautiful blossoms, sent immediately after the receptions and while they were still fresh and sweet.

Scarcely above a whisper the busybodies are saying that two of the girls who will be debutantes this season are already engaged, and still more guardedly they are saying that the parents of both young women are decidedly opposed.

It does not necessarily mean anything serious for a debutante to have an "affair" in which she comes out for after that formality has been gone through with there are so many other claims that the young fellow who first claims her attention is likely to be crowded to the background.

And, too, he is usually away at college during her first season, and by the time the time is through and ready to make his debut, so to speak, some other fellow has usually supplanted him.

"It's the man already in society that the debutante's mamma has to beware of," remarked one of the mothers of the day, and another hastily added: "Well, if that's the case there is little danger of anything more serious than a case of heartache this year."

THE VALUE OF CHARCOAL.

Few People Know How Useful It Is. Preserving Health and Beauty.

Nearly everybody knows that charcoal is the safest and most efficient disinfectant and purifier in nature, but few realize its value when taken into the human system for the same cleansing purpose.

Charcoal is a remedy that the more you take of it the better; it is not a drug at all, but simply absorbs the gases and impurities always present in the stomach and intestines and carries them out of the system.

Charcoal sweetens the breath, soothes, cleanses, and after eating onions and other odorous vegetables.

Charcoal effectually cleans and improves the complexion, it whitens the teeth and cures catarrhs.

It absorbs the injurious gases which collect in the stomach and bowels, it disinfects the mouth and throat from the poison of tartar.

All druggists sell charcoal in one form or another, but probably the best charcoal and the most for the money is in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges; they are composed of the finest powdered willow charcoal and other harmless anisequips in tablet form, or, rather, in the form of large, pleasant tasting lozenges, the charcoal being mixed with honey.

The daily use of these lozenges will soon tell in a much improved condition of the general health, better complexion, sweeter breath and purer blood, and the beauty of it is that no possible harm can result from its continued use, but, on the contrary, great benefit.

A Buffalo physician, in speaking of the benefits of charcoal, says: "I advise Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges to all patients suffering from gas in the stomach and bowels and to clear the complexion and purify the breath, mouth and throat, it also believes the liver is greatly benefited by the daily use of them; they cost but twenty-five cents a box at drug stores, and although in some cases a patent preparation, yet I believe it is the best charcoal in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges than in any of the ordinary charcoal tablets."

Morand's Wednesday Assemblies. Creighton Hall. New Dances. Large Orchestra. Admission 25c.

at least, for there are not enough eligible men in society just now to go half way around, even among the debutantes, not to speak of the girls who have been out a season or two—or three.

And there is something of a seriousness in this, too. At one of the dancing parties of the week, where society was out in numbers, there was a noticeable scarcity of men, particularly young men.

Pleasures Past. Mrs. Ella Haight entertained Mrs. Henry J. Cole of Rochester, N. Y., at dinner on Saturday.

Chambers' high school class gave its regular Saturday night party last night. The hall was decorated with flowers for the occasion.

Mrs. Samuel Emerson Howell entertained Saturday at her home, Mrs. D. B. Wells, of Chicago.

On Wednesday Mrs. E. G. McGillon was hostess for a dinner party of ten at the Omaha club. Mrs. Reid, who is visiting in Omaha, was the guest of honor.

Mrs. T. H. Hansen entertained the members of the Indian High Five club Tuesday afternoon in honor of her guest, Miss Joe Clary of Grand Island, the prizes being won by Miss Cassidy, Miss Doward and Miss Murphy.

Miss Mary McShane entertained at cards at her home, 2528 Dewey avenue, Saturday afternoon. The decorations were palms, ferns and carnations. The game played was high five, there being seven tables.

The guests were the Misses Mabel Allison, Grace Allison, Alice Buchanan, Edith Conant, Grace Conant, Jean Campbell, Inez Crook, Lona Duffy, Beulah Evans, Ruth Fleming, Florence Jordan, Edna Hardy, Ethel Higby, Blanche Howard, Fannie Howland, Jessie Nason, Marjorie Prince, Ethel Robertson, Mattie Robertson, Daisy Rogers, Gladys Sutphen, Helen Thomas, Edith Valentine, May Waterman, Blanche Waterman, Edith Webb, Eloise Wood.

Mrs. P. J. McShane was the hostess at a charming and successful reception at her home on Park avenue Saturday afternoon, from 2 to 5 o'clock. The floral decorations were superb, the scheme being yellow and pink, the parlor and library being in yellow and the dining room in pink. Assisting Mrs. McShane were Mesdames Ben Gallagher, Kirkendall, Cumberly, Herbert Rogers, John A. McShane, W. Hamilton, Allison, E. C. McShane, W. L. Clark, Evans, W. A. Maurer of Council Bluffs, Westbrook, Pury and W. T. Byrne. The young women who assisted were Misses Kirkendall, Bacon, Schenck, Berry, Mary Lee, McShane, Condon, Condon, Byrne, Smith, Margaret McShane, Coak, Jane Grout, and McPherson.

Miss Ethel Conant will entertain the Monday evening club this week. Mrs. Arthur Bridenbaker will entertain at six-hand euchre Thursday evening.

Mrs. Charles Clapp has issued cards for a large reception to be held Monday afternoon, November 21, from 2 to 5 o'clock.

The members of the South Side Whist club will be guests of Mrs. Currey Tuesday afternoon, at her home on Sherman avenue.

All Saints' church will give a social and dancing party Monday evening for its members and young people at Chambers' academy.

Mrs. Christian Hartman and Mrs. William Hill Clarke will entertain at cards on the afternoons of November 13, 19 and 22.

The Young Ladies' Harmony club will give a Thanksgiving ball at Chambers' new academy Thanksgiving night, November 24.

Mrs. C. B. Byrne is sending out cards for a social and some of the birds exhibition at the St. Louis fair, at her home on North Twenty-second street, when she will present her daughter, Miss Anselm Byrne.

Mrs. W. C. Barnett of Los Angeles, Cal., is the guest of her niece, Mrs. H. H. Brandels, enroute from the east to her home. She will remain until the first of the year. Mrs. Brandels will be at home Wednesday afternoon in her honor.

Among the larger affairs arranged for the week will be the series of three card parties to be given by Mrs. Charles K. Urquhart and Mrs. H. L. Whitney at the home of the latter on South Thirty-second street. The first will be given Thursday afternoon and evening and the other Friday afternoon.

The members of the current topics department of the Woman's club have arranged a social feature for its members for the winter. Once a month an informal afternoon will be held at the residence of some member. This week Mrs. Allen Koch will entertain the department at her home, 2633 Harney street.

Conspicuous among the social functions of the week will be the dinner to be given Wednesday evening at the Omaha club, by Mrs. M. J. Barton. The great list will include about 50 members and other old families of the city. Dinner will be served upstairs and the reception rooms and that part of the club will be at the disposal of Mr. and Mrs. Barton and their guests for the evening.

Two more debutantes will be presented this week by the Mrs. M. J. Barton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Merriam, and Mrs. Margaret McShane, daughter of Mr. Thomas McShane. Wednesday afternoon, between 3 and 5 o'clock, Mrs. Merriam will receive for her daughter, at her home on Binney street, and Mrs. McShane and Miss Alice McShane will receive for Miss Margaret Barton and Mrs. H. J. Fenfold and Mrs. A. P. Tukey are arranging a unique affair for Thursday evening for the members of a party of Omaha people who made a trip to the lakes and visited Sault Ste. Marie together last summer. The crowd has since been called the "Soo Tribe" and the invitation for Tuesday evening are decidedly Indian in style, being written on scraps of birch bark, and bidding the members of the tribe to gather at the "Penfold tepee."

Come and Go Gossip. Miss May Mount has returned from a brief visit to Chicago.

Mrs. E. H. Sprague has returned from an extended visit to Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Cotton have returned from their wedding trip through the east.

Mrs. N. P. Fell and daughter of Cleveland are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Rosewater.

Mrs. E. M. Morsman, Jr., is expected home Monday from Chicago, where she has spent the week.

Dr. W. N. Dorward and wife leave for St. Louis Sunday. They will be gone a little over one week.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Robinson of Denver are spending the week as guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Cady.

Mrs. Ernest Jackson, nee Carrie Mungler, is expecting soon to visit her parents, Judge and Mrs. Mungler.

Mrs. E. P. Davis of Milwaukee will arrive Monday to be the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Charles K. Urquhart.

Miss Warren of Chicago came Wednesday to attend the Kirkendall-McShane dance and is the guest of Miss Lomax.

Mrs. B. S. Anglin, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Roberts of Utica, N. Y., left last week for a visit to the St. Louis Exposition.

Miss Marie Coffman and Miss Jeanie Brown will leave Wednesday for a visit of several weeks with Mr. and Mrs. John Peck on their ranch in Wyoming.

Miss Rose Horstmann Allen, daughter of Captain C. W. Allen, court crier of the United States courts for this district, is in the city on a short visit. This is Miss Allen's first visit to Omaha for nearly two years, she at present making her home with her mother in Chicago, where Miss Allen is taking an extensive course in both vocal and instrumental music.

Mrs. J. W. Haines and daughter of this city have returned from a three months' visit through the east. They also visited the World's fair at St. Louis, where they were met by Mr. Haines.

Social Chat-Chat. Major D. H. Wheeler is still at the Presbyterian hospital, recovering from the effects of a fall.

The wedding of Miss Mabel Clare Wilcox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilcox, and Mr. Francis Bowen Hadley will take place at 3:30 o'clock, Wednesday evening, November 16, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Wilcox, 202 South Twenty-ninth street. The ceremony will be followed by a reception from 8:30 to 10:30 o'clock.

Mr. Fred Schmale, editor of the German Tribune, has, at the instance of the president, been invited by the secretary of war to be present at the ceremonies attendant on the unveiling in Washington of the statue of Frederick the Great, presented by Emperor William of Germany. The ceremony occurs on Saturday, November 13. It is announced that beginning on Friday, November 13, thereafter on the third Friday of each month during the season the wives of the officers at Fort Crook will receive their friends at the commanding officer's quarters. The train leaving Omaha on the Burlington at 2:30 p. m. arrives at the fort shortly after 3 o'clock. Returning to Omaha the train leaves Fort Crook at 5 p. m., giving callers ample time to meet the women and officers of the garrison and to enjoy a concert by the Thirtieth Infantry band.

Wedding gifts, Opus Pictum, 2017 Harney. Miss Blanche Sorenson, singing. Range bik.

Mrs. A. C. Mark, who has been very ill with rheumatism, has quite recovered and is able to resume business.

CHILD SAVING INSTITUTE

Omaha Home for Children Closes Year of Successful Work.

MORE WAIFS CARED FOR THAN USUAL

Managers Had to Work Against Financial Obstacles, but Accomplished Good Work Notwithstanding that Fact.

The seventh annual report of the Child Saving Institute shows that for the year ending October 31, 1904, more homeless little ones were cared for than ever before in a corresponding period, bringing the grand total for the seven years up to 1,386. This despite the fact that the income of the institution was somewhat cramped, but it is thought to be the fact that it was a presidential year, causing the diversion of much attention and money to politics. For the year, however, 289 children were cared for, but about sixty had to be turned away toward the close, the policy being to receive no more inmates than the resources warranted.

In his report Treasurer C. W. Lyman gives the receipts for the whole year as $2,251.57, including a balance of $49.89 from the preceding twelve months. The disbursements amounted to $2,260.37, leaving on hand only $10.20 October 31.

In a brief tabulation of the work accomplished for homeless children it is shown there were thirty-four children on hand at the beginning of the year, 188 were received and 67 readmitted. They were disposed of as follows: Provided with homes, 118; restored to parents, 102; died, 17; left without permission, 2; on hand at close of year, 46; total, 289.

Homes visited numbered 315; 1,566 letters were written and 23,212 miles traveled by representatives in the interest of the institute.

How Institute Grows. The following statement of children cared for the different years will show how the institute has grown: 1898, 40; 1899, 131; 1900, 190; 1901, 204; 1902, 244; 1903, 288; 1904, 289.

The report in opening says: "Just closed and the report is presented to our friends a brief statement of results. The important fact is that the institute has not only been able to care for the scores of homeless, destitute and neglected children, but it has also been able to remove a child from evil surroundings or to provide a home for a destitute child, or to place a child in a family where he or she will be properly cared for and where the sum of human misery and increase the sum of human happiness in the world."

All we know that character is moulded for all time in childhood. Neglect the child and let him be educated in crime and afterward he will cost society many thousands of dollars, because of his evil and debasing influence over other lives. It is good economy to save the neglected child, and to place him in a family where he will be properly cared for and where the sum of human misery and increase the sum of human happiness in the world."

Particular stress is laid upon the fact that the institute does all in its power to prevent homes from being broken up and children relinquished. "Separation of children from parents is a serious business" says the board of trustees. "Poverty alone is never a sufficient reason. The Child Saving Institute stands ready to take the place of ailing in maintaining it and for preventing families being broken up. The results along this line in the last year have been exceedingly satisfactory."

Members of Medical Staff. It is set forth that modern and scientific methods as agreed upon by authorities are used in caring for the children, and deep appreciation is expressed to the members of the medical staff as follows:

Dr. H. M. McClanahan, consulting physician; Dr. C. W. Lyman, Dr. E. E. W. Worthington, Dr. J. A. C. Moore, Dr. J. A. C. Moore, Dr. W. H. Christie, Dr. B. W. Christie, Dr. H. G. Gilford, Dr. Thomas Truett, Dr. W. R. Leonard, Dr. H. E. Moore, Dr. W. J. Brownrigg, Dr. B. B. Davis, Dr. D. A. Foote.

The nursery committee is composed of: Mesdames Edger Allen, H. E. Bridgely, Guy Barton, G. F. Bidwell, E. N. Bourville, J. P. Carpenter, A. W. Clark, E. A. Cuddeback, Dickerson, A. M. Edwards, J. E. Foster, L. Householder, George A. Joslyn, J. E. Lyman, James Martin, J. A. McLaughlin, J. C. Moore, J. C. Penfold, C. Peters, J. B. Rahm, C. N. Robinson, W. R. Seward, W. H. Seward, H. H. Wadsworth, W. D. Williams, E. Wilson, Miss Fannie Perry.

The officers and directors are as follows: Guy Barton, president; George F. Bidwell, vice president; C. W. Lyman, treasurer; A. W. Clark, secretary; H. E. Bridgely, assistant superintendent; R. M. Edwards, assistant superintendent; Miss Melle Reed, public relations; J. P. Carpenter, George F. Bidwell, J. Frank Carpenter, E. M. Morsman, J. W. Lyman, H. J. Fenfold; J. E. Morsman.

A lace fakery. Beware! There's a kid about it working the dear people" with the fairy tale of being "just over" from Scotland. He's a fraud and can tell as many lies as you'd shake a stick at. The race he claims to have sprung from is too good to stand for his misrepresentations. He tries to sell some cheap machine-made lace at fancy prices, claiming that it is made by hand in Scotland; but, worse yet, he's using my good name! Cut him out!

WILLIAM KENNEDY, Adv. Manager The Bennett Co. And he's using my name, too, which makes it worse. J. W. METCALP, Adv. Manager The World-Herald.

Pays Of Parker Bet. Not the least amount of the $100,000 bet paid off was one encountered by Martin London, bound to sweep his name into the gutter, of perjury he gave a big dinner to a number of friends on Saturday night. Among them he feasted were Gus Anderson, Axel Peterson, Andrew Jackson, Charles Smith, one Custer, and Charles Hilding. Col. Miller with extraordinary ease and ability.

Special Notice. Omaha Printing Pressmen's union, No. 22. All members are requested to meet at Labor Temple at 1 p. m. sharp today to attend the funeral of our late brother, John E. Johnson. By order of the union, EDWIN M. BIRCH, WILLIAM COLE, AL. BELL, Committe.

MEXICO LIKES THE RESULT

Southern Republic Surprised at President Roosevelt's Tremendous Landslide Plurality.

"Mexico was pleased at the result of the election. The people of the southern republic do not expect such a tremendous victory, but Roosevelt is very popular."

So spoke H. R. Nickerson, vice president of the Mexican Central railway, who laid over at the Union station yesterday afternoon from 3:30 until 5:59 o'clock. Central Mexicana is the object of considerable speculation by the station crowds.

Mr. Nickerson has just returned from a visit to Mexico, where he looked over the properties. He comes to this city direct from Denver on the Union Pacific and is on his way east over the Northwest to Chicago and New York, at which latter city he makes his headquarters. With him are his son, R. A. Nickerson and other members of his family and James D. Cook of Chicago.

"Mexico is in a very prosperous condition," the vice president continued, in speaking of his southern visit. "And so is the Mexican Central. Our prospects are excellent. We have not been doing a great deal of construction lately, but next year we will continue some rather extensive improvements in the present system and also additional lines."

Another Grand Prize. A few days ago Browning, King & Co. were awarded the highest possible honors at the St. Louis exposition for the excellence of clothing of their manufacture. Now another grand prize has been awarded them by the American Hatter, for a superior and novel show window display of fine Brown hats. This speaks well for this energetic and thoroughly up-to-date firm.

Gilbert and Sullivan's comic opera, "Pinafore" will be presented in concert form at Chambers' academy by the Kountze Memorial choir under the direction of Mr. E. D. Keck, Tuesday evening, November 15, 1904.
