BOYS UP IN JUVENILE COURT

Ten of Them Lined Up Before Judge Green on Charges of Larceny.

LEADER IS SENT TO THE REFORM SCHOOL

Others Are Pinced in Charge of Probation Officer De Long and Will Be Allowed Freedom During Good Behavlour.

An unusual scene was witnessed in the district court yesterday morning when ten small boys, whose ages ranged from 8 to H years, were lined up before Judge Green, some charged with stealing a quantity of tools from a Union Pacific work car and others with the theft of several boxes of chocolate from a Great Western freight

Arthur League, aged 14, said to be the leader of the youthful offenders; Louis Moore, Earl Willitt, Wright Higgins and Frank Deuel, were charged with breaking open a tool chest in a Union Pacific work ear and stealing a large quantity of valuable tools. Most of the tools have been recovered by the authorities, some being found under the sidewalk on Eighth avonue and Sixteenth street and more at the home of the Higgins boy.

Higgins and Deuel were also charge with breaking into the Great Western car and stealing the chocolate, which they up with them on this charge were Stanley Darnell, Harry McMullen, George Peacock and Victor Fox, but they showed that they had simply been given some of the stown stuff and were released after a salutary lecture by the court.

Arthur League was ordered committed to the reform school at Eldora, while sentence was suspended against Moore, Willitt, Higgins and Deuel, they being required to report every week to Rev. Henry De Long, court probation officer. In the event of either of these boys backsliding he will be forthwith committed to the reform

All of the boys before the court vester day live between Fifth and Eighth avenues and Sixteenth and Nineteenth streets. Investigation by the police led to the discovery that the gang of boys made their headquarters in a cave near Eleventh avenue and Fourteenth street, where they were wont to assemble during the afternoon and nights. The boys generally are of respectable families and it is believed that with the sending of the leader to the had been entered upon. reform school and the tragic death of young Messner the gang will now be broken up.
