Entire Absence of News from the Frent is Regarded as Significant.

KOUROPATKIN MAY TAKE OFFENSIVE

Report from St. Petersburg Says that Russians Probably Began the Movement in the Latest Battle.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 25 -2:10 a. m -Unofficial advices only bring affairs at the front up to November 33 and the absence of official news of later date, either from the Japanese or the Russian side, arouses the belief that more important operations than heretofore may be progressing. Reports from correspondents at the front indicate renewed skirmishing, culminating the night of November 22 in a fresh attack on Poutfloff (Lone Tree) hill in which the Japanese were repulsed with heavy loss, and also a severe fight with Chinese bandits near Kaluan, in which 200 Chinese were Japs Attack Lone Tree Hill.

MUKDEN, Nov. 25 .- The Japanese made a fresh attack on Poutiloff hill the night of November 22. Their advancing ranks were decimated by the Russian shell fire. Some of the Japanese secured lodgment on the slopes of the hill, but were driven out at the point of the bayonet, while the whole Japanese contingent fied. A similar attempt was made the same night south of Erdagzou, which also was repulsed with a bayonet, charge.

The Japanese lost heavily, while the Russian loss was thirty killed.

A band of 1.500 Chinese bandits, with six guns, under Japanese officers, coming from the direction of the Liao river was in conflict with three companies of border scouts near the station of Kaiuan early on the morning of November 23. The scouts charged without giving the bandits' battery time to come into action. The bandits made feeble resistance and fled in all directions, leaving 200 of their number dead. The Russian loss was triffing.

A Japanese column of two companies attempted to penetrate the Russian eastern flank on November 23, but was met by two squadrons of Russian cavalry and driven off with severe loss.

HARRISON REINSTATED

St. Paul Priest Suspended by Archbishop Ireland Appeals to the Pope and Wins His Case.

ST. PAUL, Nov. 35.-The Pioneer Press tomorrow will say: Word was received yesterday in St. Paul that Rev. John T. Harrison, former pastor of St. Joseph's parish, has won his appeal to the holy see at Rome, and that an order has been issued to Archbishop Ireland to reinstate Rev. Harrison to the priesthood.

The decision was announced by Archbishop Falconio, apostolic delegate at Washington, to whom the appeal was referred by the congregation of the propaganda at Rome.

Rev. Harrison's appeal to Rome grew out of an order from Archbishop Ireland June 16, 1904, suspending him from the priesthood because of disobedience in refusing to assume the pastorate of St. Stephen's parish, Minneapolis.

Father Harrison had undertaken to erect a church for his parish, had secured about land announced his new cathedral project. This contemplated the erection of a $3,000,-000 cathedral and the merging of St. Joseph's parish with the present cathedral fore leaving the vicinity. parish, which would necessitate the abandonment of Father Harrison's building the archbishop led to his transference to the Minneapolis parish and his suspension on his refusing to obey the order.

WRECK NEAR LEXINGTON KY

One Man Killed and Three Others Injured by Smashup at High Bridge.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Nov. 25.-One man was killed and three others injured in a freight wreck on the Cincinnati, New Orleans & Texas Pacific railroad at High Bridge, eighteen miles from here, today

ENGINEER BENJAMIN CUNNING-HAM of Somerset, Ky. The injured:

W. K. Bledsoe, Midway, Ky. E. C. Cox, Campbellsville, Ky. Ernest Shears, Danville, Ky. Cox will probably die.

The train was a freight running as double-header. Four cars separated the two engines and about 300 yards from the bridge, which is over 200 feet high, an axle broke on the car following the first engine, derailing ten cars and the second engine. Cunningham, Bledsoe and Cox were pinied under the engine and all were badly burned. Bledsoe's left foot was crushed and he was scalded about the body and sustained internal injuries. Cox escaped suffocation by digging a hole in the ground into which he thrust his head. His whole body was literally cooked. head. His whole body was literally cooked. The injured men were brought here on a special train and are in St. Joseph's hos-

OF PRINCE RECOVERED GEMS

Missing Jewels Found on Table in

Just previous to his departure today, after Prince Fushimi and the members of his suite had been absent from their rooms for several hours, the prince was informed that the missing jewels had been so beautifully printed pages of helpful hints about "The Care and Foeding of Infants," bound in cloth, will be sent you free if you ask for it.

Pale babies become rosy and pretty babies when fed on Mellin's Food. Mellin's Food strengthens.

MELLIN'S FOOD CO., BOSTON, MASS.

Rogers, Peet & Co. Overcoats and Suits Finest ready to wear clothing

In America-17.50 to $40

PERFECT FIT - SPLENDID WEAR CORRECT STYLE - MODERATE PRICE All are characteristic of the exceptionally high class

It is the best clothing in the country-It is worn by the best dressed men in Omaha. There is only one difference between our Overcoats and Suits and the clothing from the most exclusive tailors—the price.

Tomorrow we offer a special in clothing that is exclusively high grade-every Overcoat and Suit made separately by hand by the best tailors to the trade in New York cityevery garment is in the very latest and most approved fashion-such fine clothing as this you have always considered good value at $20.00 to $25.00—the latest winter fabrics workmanship all that could be desired, and above all a reliability that you can always depend upon when the clothing comes from Brandeis-tomorrow you may take your choice of this entire stock-8t.......

Up-to-Date Suits and Overcoats at $9.90 - This clothing is of the regulation $16 and $18 grade -every piece is new and made right up to the last requirement of style-tomorrow, at

MEN'S OVERCOAT AND SUIT SALE IN BASEMENT Here are good, serviceable Overcoats and Suits that will last you throughout the winter and look neat and up to date every minute of the time-they are easily worth $10.00-you can make a good sensible clothes investment here, at

Specials in Boys' and Children's Clothing 3rd Floor

Children's Stylish Russian Overcoats-Broken sizes of fine meltons, cheviots and friezes, ages 3 to 8, em- 1.98 broidered sleeve and front, 19c an actual $4 value, at

Boys' $6.00 Overcoats - Ages 5 to 16splendid materials—with or 2.98 without belts, at Boys' $4 Knee Pants Suits-

Double breasted and Norfolk styles -ages 3 to 16, at....

Special Sales in Men's Wear

NECKWEAR At 15c

10,000 necktics made of imported silk in the newest fall designs-not a tie in the lot was made to sell at less than 35c.

are worth 50c eachhere is a chance to buy far below value, choice

$1.50 and $2.00

Boys' Sweaters at 49c Thousands of boys' fancy wool sweaters, plain and fancy weaves not a sweater in the entire lot worth less than $1.00-many are worth as high as Saturday-

Men's new fall negligee shirtspatterns—suitable for every day wear, worth up to $1.50, at— 49c.7. c Men's custom made Shirts Stiff bosom shirts in the latest fads for stylish fall wear a tached or detached cuffs — worth up to $3, at—

Two Basement Specials winter underwear, at..... 25c Broken lot of high class Government wool flannel shirts-all sizes, at Special Underwear Prices Warm, winter weight undershirts and drawers derby fleece, plush back 25-45-50c to 11.00. Men's $1.50 underwear - Natural gray and salmon color, all wool, derby ribbed wool in brown, cream 75c and tan, worth up to $1.50, at. Cooper's, Winstead and 98cto$2 75c wear, at. Men's fleece lined and derby ribbed underwear, worth

MEN'S Munsing UNION Underwear The best fitting best made union underwear money can buy - abso the wearer. 1.50 to found on a table, in an adjoining room, HOME FOR AGED PRINTERS JUST in which it was stated the prince had not been during his stay in the city. An effort was made to maintain in secrecy the recovery of the gems, and no report of the matter was made to the local police or detective departments.

4.50

THREE CHILDREN'S SPECIALS

Boys' 35c flannelette waists and blouses.

MARYLAND BANK ROBBED Safe of Savings Institution at La Plata

Blown Open and Three Thousand Dollars Taken.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 25 .- A special to the Baltimore American from La Plata, Charles county, Md., says that a number of men blew up and partially destroyed the bullding of the Southern Maryland Savings $70,000 toward the project and had begun bank today. They secured $3,000 in cash. the work of building when Archbishop Ire- Nitro-glycerine is supposed to have been the explosive used. The robbers, after securing the money, made their escape, but

The government line from the govern ment proving grounds from Indian Head trimmings, 144 feet long and 44 feet wide, plans. His opposition to the proposal of to Washington was found to be in working order and the police of Washington and Baltimore were promptly notified, but no descriptions nor number of the participants was given in the telegram. Up to midnight the local police department had not been able to locate the La Plata bank robbers

Railway Notes and Personals. Alfred Darlow, advertising agent for the Union Pacific, is in St. Louis.

Union Pacine, is in St. Louis.

James Hodge, secretary to General Manager Holdrege of the Burlington, is confined to his home by illness.

The Colorado Midland has just issued a new illustrated book advertising points of interest in Utah and Colorado reached over the company's lines. The book is a work of art.

work of art.

A. L. Mohler, general manager of the Union Pacific, who accompanied the Jacob H. Schiff party on their trip west, has returned. He went with the party as tar as Green river, where his private car was detached from the special.

H. M. Butterfield of Chicago, traveling passenger agent for the Lackawanna road, and L. E. Sessions of Minneapolis, beneral agent in the passenger department of the Chicago, indianapolis & Louisville (the Monon system) are in the city.

The Northwestern is the first of the local railroad offices to get out its 1965 ca. moar, it advertises the double-track system of the road between Omnha and Chicago and has several improvements, which makes it expect by complete to the senect by complete tracks.

For the first time in years local loads made a Thankseiving rate to and from Omaha, and the result is highly gratilying to the local roads. The Harrington sold nearly 1,000 tickets for Lincoln as a result of the special rate to that city. On the Union Pacific the travel was very heavy.

A hadden by steam and lighted by electricity, and has telephone connection with the main building and annex.

Additional buildings have been authorously the special rate to that city. On the Union Pacific the travel was very heavy. Missing Jewels Found on Table in Room Adjoining One Occupied
by His Royal Highness,

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 25.—It was learned last hight that Prince Sananary Fushing counts.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 25.—It was learned last hight that Prince Sananaru Fushimi, cousin of the emperor of Japan, recovered the jewels, the report of whose loss created widespread consternation yesterday, before he departed for Philadelphia today. The jewels which, besides their intrinsic value of $5.000, were highly valued by the prince, owing to their associations, were recovered in even a more mysterious manner than they disappeared.

The last seen of the jewels, according to the members of the prince's suite, was when the prince retired last Monday night, he laid them on a dressing table in his apartment

Just previous to his departure today, after Prince Fushimi and the second services and the company of the colors of the prince in the special equipment of the r. ad E. L. Lomax, general passenger and ticket agent for the Union racine, has in ticket agent for the Union racine, has in the good taste are evident. The fine average and ticket agent for the Union racine, has in the company of passenger agent of the passenger of the passenger agent of the prince, of interest to the public was the election of E. F. Burnett as j. int agent of the Union fractice, has in a deport of the Special equipment of the passenger agent of the Western Line Immigration burn and the election of E. F. Burnett as j. int agent of the luxuriance and brilliancy of coloring por the Volk was formerly general agent for the union fractice, has in the celection of E. F. Burnett as j. int agent of the luxuriance and brilliancy of coloring por the Volk was formerly general agent of the luxuriance and brilliancy of the institution has become not only one of the most beautiful as well.

Handsome pictures of the buildings and grounds and interesting scenes about the home careful management and ticket agent for the Union racine, has been and beautiful grounds are bordered and embellished with flowers, growing with the luxuriance and brilliancy of coloring por the luxuriance and brilliancy of the luxuriance and brilliancy of the luxuriance and brillia man of Philadelphia.

LOCAL BREVITIES

The John Deere Plow company, a corporation under the laws of lillnots, is suing the Tom Sweeney Hardware company of Rapid City, S. D. The said a less from the saie of goods from the Omaha fou e of the plow company to the usaie s. The plaintiff rays $1.00.70 is due.

Thomas Linnehan, Twenty-third and Mason; C. R. Ritchey, 22 South Twenty-eighth, and Raiph Moxen, 40 South Twenty-eighth, and Raiph Moxen, 40 South Twenty-fifth avenue arrested October 2 by Detectives Ferris and Duan on charges of burglary, have been bound over from the police to the district court. It is charged the young men entered the chicken house of J. I. Kemp, Twenty-fifth and Leavenworth streets, on the night of October 2 and stole a number of chickens. The hearing was twice postponed in police court on reduces of the defense.

Present Condition of the Institution at Colorado Springs and the Proposed Enlargement.

29c

121c

The current number of the Inland Printer has an interesting account of the upbuild ing of the home for union printers at Colo rado Springs, how it is conducted and the way in which wornout invalided typos arcared for

The home occupies a fine tract of eight; acros, one mile east of the city of Colorad Springs, in the shadow of Pike's Peak. Ti group of handsome buildings and w kept surroundings are one of the attractions of that region. All this has come as a result of an unconditional gift of $10,000 from the late George W. Childs and A. J. Drexel of Philadelphia to the unfon in 1886, The printers increased the sum to $70,000. cut the telegraph and telephone wires be- and the Colorado site was selected in 1889.

> of white lava stone with red sandstone with a wing at the rear of the north end 20x40 feet. The building contains seventyfive rooms, but this number changes as the alterations are made in the home to meet new requirements. Many of the rooms have been handsomely furnished as memorial rooms by some of the larger unions, by the chapels of some of the large newspapers, by Messrs. Childs and Drexel, Mrs. J. A. Hayes in memory of Jefferson Davis, her father, and by Mrs. Goddard in memory of her father, Henry Ledyard. Everything is in good taste and the dormitories and other bedrooms are well and comfortably appointed. The large number of consumptives re quired a separate building for their proper care and treatment, and in 1898 a hospital annex was completed and furnished at a total cost of $13,596.22. A fine laundry and heating plant was also completed in 1900, at a cost of $12,500. The laundry is equipped with the best modern devices, one of the most interesting being the large vacuum boiler in which all clothing, etc., is placed under superheated steam pressure and then in vacuum, so that a thorough sterilization is accomplished. The clothing is all carefully examined and repaired and laundered. Garments which are overworn are replaced with new union-made garments of good quality.

An attractive and homelike cottage has been built for the use of the superintendent and his family. It was completed in 1990 and cost, with its furnishings, $3,400. It is etc. These are well designed and compare favorably with the best modern farm build-The products of the farm and dairy are used for the home exclusively, and for the annex patients a special dietary is prepared memorial addition a fine library hall is provided, as Mrs. Cummings has spoken of Berhnard M. Mohr has begun a suit in the district court for alvorce from Louisa C. M. Mohr. Cruelty is the charge.

Wesley M. Craig has fied his pell on for divorce from Mary Craig. He asserts cruelty and wants the custody of the three minor children. The Craigs were married in this city during July, 1891.

The remains of George Creichman, who was stationed at Fort Crook as a solder and died from the effects of an operation, were sent to Philadelphia this afternoon for interment. Creichman was My years of age. His father is Theodore W. Cretchman of Philadelphia.

The John Deere Plow company, a corpophysician; Dr. J. R. Robisson, eye, ear, her intention to donate the library of the physician; Dr. J. R. Robinson, eye, ear, nose and throat specialist; Miss Laura W. Edinger, bookkeeper, and an adequate force

> When a printer is disabled through age accident or sickness, and has been for five years a member of the union and has sustained his dues and aggestments, he is eligible to make application for admission to the home.

There are many interesting personalitic among the residents, and the home is rich jests of the printing office are mingled with 122 S. 15th St. in the unique reminiscences in which the incidents of the nation's history.

ORDINARY Out in Search of a Physician When Taken for a Bandit by "That reminds me of a curious experience had with a robber one morning while I was on my way home," said a night toller ment nothing in particular, "and the experience proves that there is more than one way to outwit a robber. There is a popular belief that there are only three things to do when you meet a robber-fight, run or give up. I didn't do cither. I was feeling in perience that would take me out of the regular run.

a Neighbor.

way I felt when I started home. There and was on his way to look for him. We VERSAILLES, Ind., Nov. 25.-Clifford home, where I had to cross a bridge which spanned a creek which wound its sluggish way through the city. It had become quite common for men to be held up on the bridge. But I never thought of this fact until my foot fell on the edge of the wooden structure. The bridge was probably 100 or across the bridge, I saw the outlines of a

could tell that It was a man and that he was coming after me. "My pockets were empty. I had no weapon and no money. I had nothing to lose. Here was a chance. I would go desperate and mischievous mood on the after the robber, rob him, give him his norning I have in mind. Things had been | booty back and deliver a lecture on morals. the night and when everything had closed get cold. But suddenly I could see the her father, Scott Knox, near this city. down I felt satisfied with the way the old fellow faltering in his steps. He seemed vague sort of yearning for some kind of that he was about to back down. I pulled shoulder and plerced the heart. change, some novel adventure, some ex- my nerve up to the limit and I soon found you, doctor? said a tremulous voice in the across the country to Milan, where he was pedestal represents a woman of heroic size, dark, and I recognized the voice as that arrested by officers who had been instructed with a large sword in one hand and an upreversing the usual order of things, I of a neighbor. He had telephoned for a to take him in custody. Physicians believe wanted it to happen to me. That was the physician for a sick member of his family Darling will live.

was a dark place between the office and my had a good laugh after I had explained my Darling was brought to this city by Sheriff purpose to him. But if that had been a tobber I would have robbed or bluffed him, and don't you make any mistake about it." -New Orleans Times.

MURDER IN INDIANA 150 feet in length. Glancing diagonally Tragedy at a Thanksgiving Party at Pierceville-Slaver Removed to Avoid Lynching. PIERCEVILLE, Ind., Nov. 25 .- With the words "Cliff Darling has killed me," Mrs. Essie Darling, 20 years old, today rushed from a room where she had been in conversation with her husband, Clifford Darling, and fell dead in the hands of a moving along smoothly in the office during So we started for each other. I began to Thanksgiving dinner guest at the home of Three shots were fired, only one of which world had wagged along. Only I had a to be undecided and I half way imagined took effect. The bullet entered the right

Darling, after attempting suicide by swalhe should remove Darling to Versailles at once. The prisoner talks incoherently and appears to remember nothing of the shoot-MONUMENT M'KINLEY FOR Deff tonight and lodged in fail. The sheriff said he was warned by telephone that an attempt would be made to kill the prisoner and if the officer wished to preserve order

Memorial to the Late President is Unveiled at San Francisco.

BAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 25 .- A monument to the memory of President William Mc-Kinley was unveiled today at the main entrance of Golden Gate park. It is a symbolical statue of the republic, modelled by Robert Aitkin, a sculptor of this city, and lifted palm in the other. The presentation peech was made by former Major James

The Christmas McClure's contains the story of the New York sweat-shops by Ray Stannard Baker

"THE RISE OF THE TAILORS"

" I work, work, work without end, Why and for whom I know not, I care not, I ask not. I am a machine."

-Yiddish Sweat-shop Song.

The pathetic, tragic story of the great East Side strike in New York involving over fifty thousand people, mostly Russian Jews. The waste of human life in the struggle for existence in crowded tenements. A wonderful history of the in Mr. Baker's article. You go along step by stepinterested marvelously in the unfolding of a dramatic story, and seeing and perfectly understanding as you proceed, just why things were as they were, just why they came to be as they are.

Mr. Baker has nothing to tell but what happened. He interests and informs by the whole story of a single case. He has nothing to prove, nobody to protect, nothing to labor union among these people. You start at the beginning The Increase of Lawlessness BY S. S. MCCLURE

"At present there are four and a half times as many murders and homicides in the United States as there were in 1881," says the Editor of McClure's Magazine in a startling article in the December number, based on facts and corroborated by eminent judges and journalists.

Here are some of the sub-headings: Present day anarchy. Nine Short Stories

Stewart Edward White's "Rawhide." Part II., is a compelling romance of the Southwest. A page in colors by Maxieid Parrish.

James Hopper, the American Kipling, contributes an exquisitely tender and sympathetic sketch of a little French lad to the Christmas McClure's. "A Jumble in Divinities" is a Christmas story that will bring smiles and tears. Rex E. Beach's most powerful story is "The Test"—two men fighting famine and birrard and endless distance in the Arctic Circle. Brawn or brains. Which wins? Pictures in colors by F. E. Schoonover. George Madden Martin's story is a beautiful picture of a real home with real people in it on the night before Christmas; and a good love story,

JOHN LA FARGE contributes a splendid article on art. With the masterpieces beautifully reproduced in tints. McCLURE'S IS $1.00 A YEAR

Reign of law incomplete. Cunning evasions of law. Increase in homicide. The law's delays. Conditions in New York, Pittsburg, the West, Chicago, San Francisco, and the South. A story of negro killing. Comparisons with Russia, England, and other foreign countries. Causes of increase in crime. What are we going to do about it?

Pictures in Colors

Samuel Hopkins Adams, a new member of the McClure staff, edits "Notes from a Trainer's Book." A dozen animal stories in one. Ten pictures in tints by Oliver Herford. O. Henry, the author of "Cabbages and Kings," is a rare humorist. His "Ransom of Mack" in the Christmas McClure's is full of junny touches.

Marion Hill's story is "His Journey to the Gates" the gates of heaven. When scarlet lever enters the home, the theories of the Mother's Club go out salire and a touching little story. Ten drawings is color by F. Y. Cory. Other stories by Herman Knickerbocker Vielé and Janet Remington. George W. Alger reviews STANDARD OIL Ida M. Tarbell's History of the Standard Oil. Full-page portrait of Rockefeller.

The above and all other leading magazines will be found on the news counters

At MATTHEWS

'Phone 3144