

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE. PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING. TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION. Daily Bee (without Sunday), one year, $4.00.

LET US REBIRTH OURSELVES. When a church subsides into a quietude state it is a common practice to hold a revival in order to arouse anew the religious fervor of the members and to attract recruits to membership.

GROWING ORIENTAL TRADE. According to a San Francisco paper the commerce of that port with the Orient is growing by leaps and bounds.

THE REAL NATIONAL BIRD. Secretary Wilson credits the American hen with an annual output of 30,000,000,000 eggs.

PERSONAL NOTES. E. W. Hoeh, governor-elect of Kansas, has religious scruples against dancing.

ROUND ABOUT NEW YORK. Ripples on the Current of Life in the Metropolis. Managers of Harum & Bailey and Ringling Bros. circuses have entered upon an agreement by which the country is to be partitioned and worked by the ringside to a finish.

LOST OF TIME, SO WHY BE IN SUCH A Tearing Hurry? There is not only no time for leisure, but it is getting to be that when a man is expected of reaching a time of life when periods of rest are necessary to him he is relegated to the rear ranks with the undisciplined purpose of losing him in the forward rush on the first opportunity.

STATEMENT OF CIRCULATION. State of Nebraska, Douglas County, ss. George H. Tschuck, secretary of the Bee, says that the actual number of full and complete copies of the Daily Bee printed during the month of November, 1904, was as follows:

THE FUTURE OF OMAHA DEPENDS UPON continued population growth and the population growth must run concurrent with the amount of employment that can be given to working men and working women.

THE MEETING OF CONGRESS. The third session of the Fifty-eighth congress will begin at noon today, but there will be no practical work done until tomorrow.

ONE MARKED DIFFERENCE. General Kourapatkin's reported remark, while going about in his automobile, "I have the advantage of General Shafter," refers doubtless to the American general's superior knowledge of the situation before Santiago.

SOME WOMEN FINANCIERS. Numerous examples prove that a woman who sets about an adroit financial operation has little to learn from the slower sex.

SHINING EXAMPLES OF CLEVER EXPLOITS IN MONEY MATTERS. Philadelphia Ledger. Numerous examples prove that a woman who sets about an adroit financial operation has little to learn from the slower sex.

MIRTHFUL REMARKS. "If you could understand 'mule talk,' said Uncle Eben, 'I speak your kind a good deal better than you do.'—Washington Star.

IF FORMER GOVERNOR BLACK succeeds Senator Dewey the joke makers will receive a body blow.

AS HERETOFORE REMARKED, the short session is not expected to be of extraordinary interest.

THE BOARD OF REVIEW is approaching its last quarter, but has not yet tackled any of the big jobs on the assessment list.

PROF. WILSON OF MILWAUKEE in a paper on "Artificial Heating," says that about 25 per cent of the cost of heating is expended in raising the temperature from sixty degrees to seventy.

THE CREDULITY OF SAVANNAH MANKIND when "authorized" by the importunities of able women is not a matter of understanding.

THE TRIBUNE estimates editorially that the cabmen of New York are the hungriest lot of wolves that ever tackled a pedestrian.

LAST NIGHT, my darling, as you slept, I thought I heard you sigh, and watched a spasm of grief.

THE MAN WHO CAN devise a plan for rejecting the proposals of the senators without increasing popular discontent would probably receive a warm welcome in St. Petersburg.
