Eastern Railroads Will Not Begin Using Uniform Bill of Lading January 1.

BANKERS WILL NOT ACCEPT NEW FORMS

This Evidence Surprises Attorneys for the Roads and They Ask for a Receas to Consult with Officials.

CHICAGO, Dec. 6.-Although still finghting the matter before the Interstate Comcommission, the eastern railroads practically have agreed not to insist on the objectionable provisions contained in the new uniform bill of lading.

This fact developed today during the hearing before the commission when Attorney Levy Mayer, representing the shippers, declared certain ocastern roads had announced to the shippers that they would not put the bill in effect January 1. today's session of the Inter- Two Had Some Differences Concern Commerce commission Frank J. chalrman o fthe uniform bill of lading committee, testified that increased losses justified an increase of freight rates by the railroad companies. Exception was Maher, counsel for the prosecution, who submitted statistics showing relative earnings of various railroads for 1902 and 1903. According to these figures the profits of the various railroads for 1908 were considerably in excess of those of 1902. After perusal of the figures Mr. Firth admitted their veracity. "It seems to me," said Commissioner Prouty, "that if you hold a pistol to a man's head, and at your suggestion he gives you his valuables, he does not do it voluntarily; he has no alternative. Chadwick Case,

NEW YORK, Dec. 6 .- The startling admission by President Beckwith of the Citizens' National bank of Oberlin, O., that he and Cashler Spear of that bank had endorsed Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick's notes to the amount of $1,250,000, and that they bore what purported to be the signature of Andrew Carnegie, has astounded the New York lawyers representing the various interests involved in a case which becomes more surprising with every new revelation. That President Beckwith's statement brings to light new and important phases of the case, and brings much nearer the inevitable uncovering of the entire affair, is the belief of a majority of the attorneys interested.
