THE OMAHA SUNDAY BEE

E. ROSEWATER, EDITOR. PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION. Daily Bee (without Sunday), one year. 4 Daily Bee and Sunday, one year. 5 Ilustrated Bee, one year. 5 Sunday Bee, one year. 5 DELIVERED BY CARRIER.

Bee (without Sunday), per copy... 2c Bee (without Sunday), per week... 12c Bee (including Sunday), per week... 17c Sunday Bee, per copy Livening Bee (without Sunday), per week of Evening Bee (including Sunday), per week Complaints of irregularities in delivery could be addressed to City Circulation De-OFFICES.

Omaha—The Bee Building.
South Omaha—City Hall building. Twentyfifth and M streets.
Council Bluffs—10 Pearl street. Correspondence Corres

Communications relating to news and edi-torial matter should be addressed: Omaha Bee, Editorial Department. REMITTANCES. Remit by draft, express or postal order, payable to The Bee Publishing Company, Only 2-cent stamps received in payment of mail accounts. Personal checks, except on Ownhard or content stamps not accepted.

Omaha or eastern exchanges, not accepte
THE BEE PUBLISHING COMPANY. STATEMENT OF CIRCULATION.

STATEMENT OF CIRCULATION.

State of Nebraska, Douglas County, ss.;

George B. Tzschuck, secretary of The Bee Publishing Company, being duly sworn, says that the actual number of full and complete copies of The Daily, Morning, Evening and Sunday Bee printed during the month of Noyember, 1204, was as foi-

.29,350 .29,400 29.340 .29,150 39,450 .40,550 30.270 37,400 .40,100 20.550 .29,450 48,190 34,100 .29,700 30,800 31,030 .30,600 30,050 .20,320 29,200 .29,280 Total. Less unsold copies..... Net total sales..... . 31,517 Subscribed in my presence and sworn to before me this 30th day of November, 1904.

popular in the Austrian Reichsrath as member of the senate, consequently it bottle-throwing.

(Scal)

M. B. HUNGATE, Notary Public.

That Iowa boy who sees everything upside down has great possibilities as the founder of a new political party.

That Cincinnati girl who horsewhipped the man who jilted her must only have confirmed his high opinion of his own good judgment.

of Santa Claus.

for the first slippery day.

desire to do as they please.

Tom Lawson may be unintentionally paving the way for a more sensational series of articles on the same subject from the pen of Mrs. Chadwick.

It seems that the different national associations of postoffice employes do not all know a good thing when they have it, all enough alone.

Market reporters must have overlooked one large movement of gold to Paris, but the courts may find out how much of the yellow metal Dr. Chadwick took with him.

Only nine fusionists will hold seats in the coming Nebraska legislature, but that will be enough to introduce all the bills promised by the fusion candidates during the campaign.

When those Frenchmen finish their duels over the Maid of Orleans they may be able to get up a fight over the question of responsibility for the fall of man. Eve has long needed defenders.

Our modern business cottege will be compelled to introduce a course of study teaching familiarity with the signatures of great capitalists if cases like the Chadwick matter become common.

have fewer statesmen to guide.

Land Commissioner Follmer, in his report to the legislature is asking for fireproof vault fixtures to protect the valnable records stored in the state house. When the new vault equipment is installed it will be in order to erect a new capitol building around it.

Philadelphia newspapers are still discussing the last national election and one declares that Judge Parker made the best race possible under the circumstances. By the time of the next campaign perhaps Philadelphians will have succeeded in arriving at a satisfactory fact that the government can make its absolutely legitimate. President Rooseconclusion as to the cause of the land-

The special attorney of the Interstate is brisk with prices at their highest. Commerce Commission asserts that shippers of live stock to Chicago will save attending the traffic. The shippers, howso much money.

office filled by a republican, the opposiislation will be greater than ever before. For the wellbeing of the republican party, as well as for the welfare of the state, it is, therefore, of the utmost importance that the legislature be organcorporations; in the interest of the propublic carriers. It is an open secret that the forces latures for selfish purposes, to the detriwill again endeavor to manipulate and cally block all legislation they deem unpacked committees.

mously of one party there is no rational tained. reason or excuse for a caucus. Take employment in the caucus as it would and he points out how this may be done. on the open floor. Almost the same con-the members of the house. The only difference between electing The season is fast approaching when every member in both houses is required tions, particularly the railroad corporathe report of fires open by describing to register his vote for every candidate in tions that are engaged in interstate comhow someone attempted to play the role the open. In the caucus, however, nom- merce. It seems to be an established While the orthodox Christian may wait votes and ylolate individual pledges to all kinds by the federal government than giving railroads, the railroad managers until Lent to use his sackcloth, it is to various candidates by claiming to have there has ever been in the past and the will be more convinced than ever that he fense and charged him $500, which was be hoped he will have his ashes ready voted for each of them. This is the expediency of this is being more and most objectionable feature of the legislative caucus. Dishonest men and trick-General Stoessel is evidently afflicted sters can cover up their votes and place with the same trouble which handlcaps the stigma that would attach to their the czar-a number of subordinates who own conduct upon honest men who hold people of the United States of greater infor their acts to their constituency.

and they have also yet to learn to let Roosevelt declares that "the period of more than eighty years ago and the rewaterways are investments which lies. should be made when we have the

of permanent public improvements. As leader of the democratic minority pression sweeps over the country, de- tries of this hemisphere should insist in the next house of representatives priving its working people of employ- that those countries shall do their duty John Sharp Williams will have an easier ment and forcing them by the menace as nations and perform their proper ob- knew that the republicans had triumphed time than any of his predecessors, as he of starvation to seek to labor at any ligations with respect to the other coun-After contemplating the 11,000 divorce duty, of the government to provide all United States, when assuming as it does the territory. The men who hate to lose cases pending in the Buckeye state a additional employment that it can. It a protectorate over the southern repubbunch of Ohio women have passed reso is an accepted axiom that it is better lies against European aggression, that lutions declaring against the female ste- for the government to give work rather they should conform to all the principles nographer. The men are yet to be heard than relief, and our own government has of international law and obey the prin-

The whole proposition, of course, is academic rather than practical, insofar at least $750,000 annually by reason of as permanent improvements are in pres- from the Philippines chronicling and dethe recent investigations of conditions ent contemplation by our government, scribing the home-coming of the natives to the existing order of affairs, and who The building of the Ranama canal is, who have been brushing up against in his screness longs for a state which ever, will prefer to wait till they balance doubtless, the largest single piece of pub- American civilization at the St. Louis their books at the end of the year before lie work ever undertaken and its urgency World's fair. It is not difficult to imagcrediting themselves with having saved calls for prompt execution. It is a bust- ine that their tales will be received by the people who are wrong; the malady is fully as to the private operations of the big ure of responsibility for wholesome legthe country in good stead.

GOVERNMENT AND RAILROADS. mental to the common people, through eral public. What they are now doing legislature without ceremony. today in this respect is largely a matter The machinery by which this is us- of conjecture and yet there is no doubt prime object of all political caucuses just what the general public wants, the courts. is to prevent the opposition from con- Those who criticize the view of the presitrolling the political action of a legisla- dent are the people who demand that the tive body by combining with a fragment very conditions which now prevail and In a legislature made up almost unani- to the public interest shall be main-

In opposition to this is a very general for example the state senate: A caucus popular sentiment and in this the presinominate a candidate for any office or proper exactions of corporate monopoly

We believe that the general popular ditions would obtain in a caucus held by sentiment is with the president, and we have no doubt that it will be found that officers in the open and electing them in to the proposition that the government British commissioners or strengthen the caucus would be in the manner of should assume a larger supervision than their defenses, and before making their their election. Under the constitution, it has already assumed over the corporainations may be made by ballot, whereby fact that in the future there is to be a members are enabled to cover up their greater surveillance over corporations of officers to proceed against the rebatemore recognized.

THE SOUTHERN REPUBLICS.

There is no matter concerning themselves ready at all times to answer terest than their relations to the soutiern republics of this bemisphere. We In the interest of the republican party are as a people identified with the indeand good government, it is, therefore, to pendent countries of this hemisphere be hoped that the coming legislature will more closely than with any other portion organize itself without resorting to the of the globe and our political interests than with any other part of the world. QUESTION OF POLITICAL ECONOMY. This was very definitely proclaimed In his message to congress President when the Monroe doctrine was declared prosperity through which the country is lation is still recognized. It is proclaimed passing justifies expenditures for perma- in the last message of the president of nent improvements far greater than the United States and in terms that United States. The new republic is small, would be wise in hard times; battleships ought to be absolutely reassuring to but it seems to be able to rise to the occaand forts, public buildings and improved every one of the South American repub-

The statement of the president that money." Paradoxically as it may seem, ought to be reassuring is that this counin this declaration the president puts try has no land-hunger, that there is no himself at variance with nearly all the desire on the part of the United States recognized political economists from to absorb any territory of the country Adam Smith down to the present day, south of it. That represents the uni-It is an almost undisputed part of the versal American sentiment. We want no doctrine of economics that the rule part of the countries south of us. We which applies to private individuals with seek no lands of the independent repubreference to curtailing expenditure with lies that belong to this hemisphere. On curtailed revenue, under the stress of the contrary the purpose of the United hard times, is reversed with govern- States is to see that the independence mental agencies which are expected in of those republics is preserved and that mainly instrumental in abolishing the same, times of depression to expand rather they shall be given every opportunity will fight the petition. And the contest than to contract activity in the direction and advantage to build themselves up and advance in the scale of civilization. The line of reasoning on which this Yet at the same time it is essential that conclusion has been based is that when the United States in its essential part as industrial stagnation and financial de- a protector of all the independent counprice rather than apply for charity, it tries of the world. It is a perfectly lebecomes the part of wisdom, if not the gitimate demand on the part of the proceeded on this theory at various ciples that are recognized as binding stages of its history by expediting the upon civilized nations. That is all that construction of canals, harbor improve- President Roosevelt suggests in his refments, etc., at periods immediately fol- erence to this matter and it is absolutely lowing industrial crises, even though the fair and proper. The idea that there is straitened condition of the national any "big stick" in his proposition is utfinances were produced by the same terly absurd and unwarranted. It does causes that depleted the individual's ac- not in the least imply any hostility to hope would be felt unanimously and there cumulations. On the other hand, when the southern republics. On the contrary | would be no manifestation whatever of dogtimes are good and employment on pri- it should be regarded by them as a re- gish affliction. vate account plenty, the necessity for newed assurance on the part of the furnishing employment on public works United States of friendship and support becomes less urgent because the work- so long as they give proper recognition uries than a prince had only a comparaing people are able to take care of them- to their international obligations. That selves without government assistance. is all that the United States can ask of is well off, and is so organized as to pro-All this, too, leaves out of account the them and its position in this respect is vide the individual with unrestricted liberty money go farther and have more to show welt has not gone in this respect a single for its expenditure in slack times, that step beyond what a majority of the in-

We are anxiously awaiting reports ness undertaking and not a charitable those they left behind very much as of his own nature.

lieves to be right.

ORGANIZATION OF THE LEGISLATURE | venture, so that good times or hard | were those of the first American Indians | WHAT WAS SAID AT THE CONFERENCE. The overpowering republican majority times will cut no figure with it. While who were taken to Europe by the Spanthat will dominate the coming legislature the president's political economy would ish discoverers and brought back to this To T. J. Mahoney, President Civic Fedwill constitute a very serious menace to require the government to abandon the country after having been exhibited in the future supremacy of the republican work, if our prosperity should wane, the various courts abroad. If anything party of Nebraska. With a senate there is no likelihood of interruption, the dazzling splendor of what the Fili- yourself, Mr. W. T. Graham and Govunanimously republican, a house 92 per; much less abandonment, under any concent republican and every executive ditions except for unforeseen physical appeared more miraculous and will carry invitation of the governor, was held obstacles. In fact, should we have a less credibility than the display of roy- within closed doors, and was, therefore, tion will, to all intents and purposes, be recurrent period of hard times, the out- alty sprung upon the sixteenth century regarded and treated by me as semi-convoiceless in the statehouse, and the meas- let for unemployed labor afforded by red men. To trace the effect of this ex- fidential. For that reason I refrained the Panama canal would surely serve cursion in after years will surely be from giving publicity to the acrimonious most interesting.

Governor La Follette has been criticiz-Inevitably there is opposition to the ing Iowa's educational system that gives Omaha newspapers your own garbled proposal that the government shall it so many small colleges and no great version in which I am made to appear as ized in the interest of the commonwealth adopt a policy, as suggested by the presi- one. "Iowa would be better off," he de- completely cowed and silenced by your rather than in the interest of the giant dent, for restraining the railroads in the clares, "if the State university and the denunciations and threats, thus compelmatter of rates. The recommendation State Agricultural college were consoli- ling me to make public what actually did ducers rather than in the interest of the made in the annual message in regard to dated into one." The same criticism, transpire. giving the Interstate Commerce com- while not applicable to Nebraska's State mission increased powers in the matter university, applies nevertheless to the laration that the Civic Federation had that have for years controlled our legis- of regulating rates that were found to normal school situation in this state. If within the last year succeeded in closbe unreasonable was certain to be met anything, the last legislature made a ing the largest gambling house in Omaha ment of the great masses of taxpayers, with opposition by the railroads and by mistake in providing a second normal through a mandate of the supreme court. all interests that are allied with the cor. school, and thus dividing strength that caused the suppression of wine rooms in control the coming legislature by taking porations and receive benefits from them. should be centered. It is probably too the lower part of the town and was makcharge of its organization at the outset These influences are today arrayed, as late to retrace the step, but every propso that its political agents may practi- they have been uniformly in the past, osifion for more normal schools-and strict enforcement of the Slocumb law. against every movement to correct the there will probably be plenty of them- After giving your views of the powers favorable to their own interest and detri- abuses of the railroads against the gen- should be turned down at the coming and duties of the police commission, with ually accomplished is the political cau- that throughout the country there is at constitutional the section of the new cus, that enables a minority of the whole the present time as well-defined a policy revenue law which provides for the asbody to dictate the officers and distribute of railroad discrimination which is in ab- sessment of insurance companies on the best by the selection of officers and em- would interfere with the well established forget to fill out this hole and to do it versy precipitated by the election of a belonging to Bartley. of the membership of the majority party. which are unquestionably antagonistic new president of Bellevue college, the people of Omaha will hope that it will not down. I said: "What I published may Logrolling does not seem to be as of that body would be made up of every dent of the United States concurs. He adjuncts developed into parts of a true. Joe Bartley through another person. believes that it is the duty of congress university with proper administration whose name I will not disclose. I never would take the same number of votes to to protect the public against the im- and reasonable support. That is the task before the president and trustees,

Lord Curzon's promise of a "friendly understanding from L'Hassa to Kaboul" may be a warning to certain Asiatic choice they should contemplate the joureling in foreign lands.

If President Roosevelt orders the law is not a safe man to occupy the White House.

Time for Improvement.

Chicago Tribune, way accidents b mercus and deadly as to form the subject of comment in a president's message it is time to apply a course of corrective treat-

> Room for Expansion Chicago Tribune.

There is a general feeling that the president, while on the subject of railways, especially are more bound up with them might have penned a few strenuous thoughts concerning the passenger who insists on occupying four seats.

Rising to Its Opportunities.

New York Tribune. Panama has reduced its postage and tariff, and in many other ways is preparing to do business on a friendly plan with the public debt of the United States is less than $1,000,000,000, which is $500,000,000 less than the total capitalization of the United Think it over!

Stock Market Bulletin

> Now Watch the Fur Fly. Baltimore American.

The Women's Army and Navy leagues the restoration of the canteen. Woman's Temperance union, which was between the two feminine organizations

Great Place for Fencers.

New York Sun. Hawaii is the place for the man who wants to be on the winning side. Six their names with our work." hours before the polls closed on election day the voters in these Pacific islands on the mainland. The Hawailans could't republican delegate to congress and returned a solid republican legislature for should move to Hawait.

THE GENIUS OF CONTENT. Pacilities for Happiness Greater Than Ever Before.

St. Louis Republic. are natures which resist gratifica tion, which crave agitation and sourness which cannot enter into sympathy with the ennobling conditions of life and which are incapable of responding to the higher sentiments of mankind. If there were not such natures, in these times content and greater than they are now and in this ties, imposture and shams. country. The average man has more luxtively short while ago. Society as a whole and with ample encouragement for effort. The highest positions are open to character. The opportunities for spiritual and mental advancement and for material prosbring prices down, than when business telligent judgment of the country be- perity are not only unlimited, but are accessible to the very humblest person.

The man who complains about his circumstances in this country, who cannot appreclate the freedom and blessings which he enjoys, who cannot reconcile his heart never could be, can only be looked upon as OMAHA, Neb., Dec. 11, 1904.

The supreme court has declared un- launched out into a personal tirade in

To this I retorted that it did not be the patronage at the disposal of the leg- solute violation of the law as there has gross premiums of the preceding year. come you to indulge in such crimination. islature. The question that every repub- ever been at any time in the past. The This leaves the insurance companies so at any rate not until you had turned lican member of the legislature, who de- objections to the president's position in that they pay no adequate taxes what- over the money collected by you for sires to make a reputation for himself, is, this matter are largely due to the fact ever. When the legislature comes to Bartley, which by rights should be whether that object would be subserved that his policy of correcting abuses patch up the revenue law it should not turned into the state treasury. You flew into a rage and pronounced it a damnaployes in the caucus or in the open? The habits of the corporations and this is in a way that will stick when tested in ble lie and malicious libel without an lota of fact to back it. You declared you had never had any financial deal with Whatever the merits of the contro- Bartley and never handled an I. O. U.

> impair the usefulness of that institution. be false, but it was not a malicious in-Bellevue college can in time be built up vention. My information came from into a strong secondary college and its Judge E. M. Bartlett directly and from knowingly published anything about any man that I did not believe to be true. I may be deceived sometimes, but I always have information that would warrant me in making the charge. If Judge Bartlett misstated the facts you must a majority in congress will be agreeable people to prepare friendly greetings for settle it with him. My information was that you were one of Bartley's attorneys when he was on trial in the criminal court and that you had afterward realney of the late Liama who is now trav- ized on one or more notes handed you by Bartley for collection and that you pocketed the whole amount, between $4,000 and $5,000, claiming it as your fee."

want to invite a libel suit."

implied threat and simply advised you to settle this matter with Judge Bartlett and Bartley, who were the sources of my information, directly and indirectly. Then you turned in and asked me why I am not hostile to the Civic Federation." The following figures are very interest- of its work. I cannot comprehend why ing, by way of comparison only: The net Walter Moise and his man Friday, I. J. one great success in life. Money is only States Steel corporation figured at par. Was the clearing house of grafters and crooks during the exposition, and in the prosecution of saloon men Dunn was only doing his bidding as was evidenced by the fact that he protested over 190 are to join in the petition to congress for saloons last year and then withdrew his protests as soon as the Board of Police licenses for his saloons."

"Moise and Dunn do not in any shape will be one of spirit in more ways than one. or manner represent the Civic Federation," exclaimed Mr. Graham. "We have comprehend why you should associate

"Because they have cut a big figure in your crusade," said I. "Didn't Mr. Mahoney at the very outset of this confervote for a president, but they elected a ence tell the governor that the Civic Federation had closed the biggest gambling the world is about to come to an end house in Omaha? If I remember rightly that gambling house, which was a pool room in which gambling is carried on very much the same as it is in bucket shops and stock exchanges, was closed for a divorce on the ground that her husat the instance of Dunn, acting for band is a democrat. Moise. If you repudiate these reformers now. I cannot quite reconcile your claim. but that is neither here nor there."

There was more cross-fire and controversy, but time and space forbid reproduction. Sufficeth to say, that I most vice and crime, but I want all move-

E. ROSEWATER.

Kansas City Times.

The matter of insurance is one that reaches almost every home in the country. It is fitting, therefore, that the president should urge upon congress the duty of considering whether or not the powers of the government, through the Interstate Commerce commission, may not be extended to cover the insurance business. Where such large capital, representing so great a proportion of the people and all eration Last Tuesday's conference between discussion touching your relation to Joseph Bartley, the state treasury embezzler, but you have seen fit to give out to You opened the conference by the dec-which I substantially concurred, and without the slightest provocation you which you sought to class me with ha-

You were admonished by me to cool

"This is absolutely false," you retorted, not too much." (Judge Bartlett declares erty that he owned in Omaha before he in with it at last accounts. was sent to the pen, and I handled a note for an eastern party against a concern in Holt county with which Bartley nual crusade against Santa Claus. a small fee and paid over the balance to the parties. I don't owe Bartley a cent,

I was not very much flustered by this was hostile to the Civic Federation. "I was my response, "but I do not like the I always saved something, no matter how methods by which it is trying to do some Dunn, are being projected as reformers. a trust in man's hands, and to use it im-It is a matter of notoriety that Moise properly is a great sin." Commissioners had granted Moise no joke.

nothing in common with them and can't Mrs. Chadwick's tangled affairs. Her emphatically disclaim any opposition to any rational effort to purge Omaha of Facilities for happiness never were ments in this direction divested of poli-

Supervision of Insurance Companies.

classes, is employed for investment, some times in speculation, it is of the greatest importance that there should be governmental supervision of some kind-at least sufficient in scope to inform the country

SUITABLE Christmas Gifts.... MUST A Complete Wine Set-Consisting of a Becanter filled with $1.00 and up. A Fancy Flask or Demijohn of Hillers Whiskey, 75c and up. An Imported Stein. . . . 50c and up A quart of Hillers Whiskey, 80c, $1, $1.25 A quart of Hillers Wine, 35c, 50c,75c An Assortment of Fancy Liquors. A BOX OF CIGARS is always X-MAS appreciated. SOUVENIR from 25c FREE to $5.00. IF IT COMES To Every Purchaser. Your Holiday Liquors. If Bought at Hillers, Will be sure to please. GREEN TRADING STAMPS. 1309 Farnam Street

SERMONS BOILED DOWN.

Character is the true culture. Borrowed trouble always comes to abide. When a man has fame he does not know

The cynic gets his opinions before the mirror.

A little cant can spoil a whole lot of consecration No soul was ever saved by a scheme of salvation.

The crudest truth is better than the most cultured lie. Trickery in the pulpit does not make truth in the pews.

He who will not pray for others cannot pray for himself. No man gains anything until he is willing lose everything. It will take more than gold-loving hearts to make the golden age. What the church needs is not fortifying so much as filling with life. It is not hard to believe in the total de pravity of the rest of the race. You cannot cover sin by offering 3 per cent of the spoils to the church. If you are looking for a chance ou are always finding love itself. A man's ascent amongst the living counts for more than his descent from the dead. The first step toward curing a crook world will be to straighten your own glasses. Religion has nothing at all to do with life when it has not something to do with all life.-Chicago Tribune.

SECULAR SHOTS AT THE PULPIT.

Washington Post: Rev. Dr. Minot Savage of New York, is not satisfied with the Book 'I was retained by Bartley for his de- of Job. The good doctor is talking like a man who had a stock of Job's comforters. Kansas City Journal: A Boston clergyman says that if John D. Rockefeller will since our interview that it was only give away all his money he will make him $400.) Continuing, you said: "I also col- senior deacon of his church. Tempting as lected some rent for Bartley from prop- this offer is, Mr. Rockefeller had not closed

Cleveland Plain Dealer: It seems quite pertinent to reproduce what the Rev. Dr. Morgan Dix has to say concerning the anwas connected, but I have retained only brought up under Santa Claus," he says, "and my children were, too. Why should I oppose him now? When the children grow up and learn there is no Santa Claus As I turn it low to rest me of the dazzie and I warn you never to connect my they can be told to remain children and name with Bartley again unless you keep on hanging up the stockings at Christmas-lots of grown people do that."

Boston Globe: Imagine the young men of young Mr. Rockefeller's Sunday school class standing around Mr. Rockefeller Sr. Sunday, with wide eyes and open mouths, while the Standard oil magnate said: was taught to get the full value of my money, and also to give the full value. and I have lived up to that principle. was taught to appreciate the value of money, and taught to save money, and little I carned. The trouble with the young men of today is that they are apt to regard the accumulation of wealth as the

PERSONAL AND OTHERWISE.

Mr. Lawson of Boston is giving his dear friends on Wall street practical illustrations of his literary ability.

ously ill, as reported. He is taking the water cure for past transgressions. That's The opinion prevails at O'Neill that it takes an uncommonly wise man to tell

George Ade, the playwright, is not seriby outside appearances what a bank vault contains. There is a note of potential farce in troubles began when she turned down a dressmaker's bill. When a Chadwicked banker admits that accept both as authoritative and let the characterization go at that, A bunch of New Jersey people think and are preparing for it. New Jersey is well provided with jumping off places. The party of Parker, Bryan and Cleveland has fallen into such bad repute in Pennsylvania that an afflicted wife asks civilized conditions, Prince Fushini supplies it. While in New York recently the prince was initiated into the mysteries of the American cocktail and found it so appetizing that he ordered the confection added to the regular menu. The Idea of planting fruit trees along city streets is both novel and meritorious. How appropriate, for instance, would be peach trees in the residence streets, plum tres around the court house, city hall and postoffice, and prune trees to lend their charms to hotels and boarding houses.

DOMESTIC PLEASANTRIES.

Mrs, Ferguson-What did Dr. Fourthly preach about this morning?

Mr. Ferguson-Well, he preached about haif the congregation to sleep.-Chicago

First Bachelor-Suppose you saw some beautiful scenery coming over the Rockies.
What was it like?
Second Ditto-It had gray eyes and brown hair and a blue gown; it sat just across the aisle from me.—Detroit Free Press.

"Isn't it ridiculous to say 'imitation is the sincerest flattery?"
"Oh. I don't know."
"Well, I know that it doesn't flatter a girl to receive an imitation diamond gagement ring."—Philadelphia Ledger.

"Who gave it away?"
"The stork."—Town Topics. Towne—My wife surprised me today by telling me she wanted a little money to buy Christmas presents. Browne—Why should that surprise you? Towne—Because usually she tells me she

"It has just leaked out that Miss Newell

Browne-Why should that surprise you Towne-Because usually she tells me al wants a great deal.-Philadelphia Presa. "How can I make sure that he loves me?" asked the sentimental girl.

"Pick out a necktie for him that corresponds to your idea of the beautiful," said Miss Cayenne, "and see if he wears it."—Washington Star.

Mrs. Hinks-Henry, were you ever disap-ointed in love?

Mr. Binks-Never but once, my dear, was never in love but once.-Cleveland

AN OLD SWEETHEART OF MINE. James Whitcomb Riley. As one who cons at evening o'er an album

all alone ms quite
Rev. Dr.
And muses on the faces of the friends that he has known.
So I turn the leaves of fancy till, in shadowy design.
I find the smiling features of an old sweetheart of mine The lamplight seems to glimmer with a

> in my eyes; And I light my pipe in silence, save a sigh Its fate with my tobacco and to vanish into smoke 'Tis a fragrant retrospection-for the lov > ing thoughts that start o being are like perfumes from the blossoms of the heart; And to dream the old dreams over is a When my truant fancies wander with that old sweetheart of mina Though I hear, beneath my study, like a fluttering of wings.

>
> The voices of my children and the mother

> I feel no twinge of conscience to deny me any theme When Care has cast her anchor in the harbor of a dream. In fact, to speak in earnest, I believe it adds a charm
> To spice the good a trifle with a little > dust of harm, For I find an extra flavor in memory's

> That makes me drink the deeper to the A face of lily beauty and a form of airy Floats out of my tobacco as the genii from And I thrill beneath the glances of a pair of azure eyes As glowing as the summer and as tender

And again I feel the pressure of the slen-der little hand
As we used to talk together of the future we had planned—
When I should be a poet, and with nothing When I sho else to do
But write the tender verses that she set

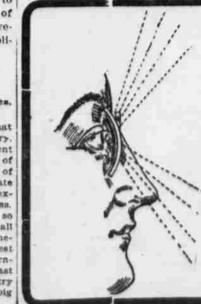

When we should live together in a cozy When a Chadwicked banker admits that little cot, he is "a dupe or a fool," onlookers can Hid in a nest of roses with a fairy garden where the vines were ever fruited and weather ever fine.

And the birds were ever singing for that old sweetheart of mine.

When I should be her lover forever and a day,
And she my faithful sweetheart till the golden hair was gray;
And we should be so happy that when either's lips were dumb
They would not smile in heaven till the other's kiss had come.

If further evidence is needed to show how readily the Japs adapt themselves to civilized conditions, Prince Fushini supis standing there!

But—ah! my dream is broken by a step upon the stair, And the door is softly opened and my wife is standing there!

CORRECT GLASSES

Don't take chances with your eyes. If you need glasses, secure the best optical services to be had. Select your optician as carefully as you would your physician. Our leadership is unquestioned. Our opticians are men of the highest technical skill in their profession. Our lens-grinding plant is the largest and most complete in the West. We test your eyes carefully and entryly your with plants.

Huteson Optical Co.,

EXCLUSIVE OPTICIANS 213 S. 16th St., Paxton Block,

Omaha. Wholesale and Retail Factory Premises. Established 1896.