BUDAPEST, Hungary, Dec. 12.-Violent as have been the scenes at past sessions of the Hungarian Parliament, they have been entirely outshadowed by the wreckage effected by members of the opposition party this morning to their successful efforts to seives, with the exception of the personal guard of forty men provided for the protection of the president of the house. The presence of these guards, who occupied the approaches to the presidential platform. seemed to inflame the opposition deputies, who, in opprobrious terms, shouted at the "Hungarians who could perform such shameful service." The deputies then approached the platform and a scuffle with the guards ensued. The deputies fought their way to the platform, tore it to pieces, scattered the debris over the house, tore to atoms the codes of law on the president's table, smashed the tables and chairs and destroyed the platform and distributed the broken pieces among the deputies, who thus armed, attacked the guards and after a brief fight drove them from the house. The desks were then torn down and the interior of the house was almost completely None of the liberal members ventured inside the house, and the opposition members, after completing the ruin, established themselves on the site erstwhile occupied by the president's rostrum. LAND OFFICE IS CLOSED UP

York and Washington Counties to Have Complete Rural Free Delivery with the Beginning of New Year.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.-(Special Telegram.)-By order of the secretary of the interior the local land office at McCook, Neb., will be closed on January 31, the rec ords on that date to be sent to the land office at the state capitol. The order abandoning the McCook land office was sent out by the general land office today and will have the effect of terminating the salaries of F. M. Rathbum, rigester, and C. W. Barnes, receiver. The action taken on the part of Commissioner Richards of the general land office is along the lines of the policy mapped out not only by the Interior evening to take action on the recommenda- department, but by statutory amendment as well. The general statutes provide that whenever a land office ceases to be a selfsupporting office, by the reason of a settle nent and taking up of public lands within the prescribed district, that such land office shall be abolished and the records shall be transferred and transmitted to the state capitol for permanent filing. "This law is just," said Commissione Richards today. "We have just abandoned a land office in Kansas and are contemplating the abandonment of certain of the South Dakota land offices. These abandonments are not so much along the lines of retrenchment, but because the remaining business to be done can much more easily be done from the state capitol when the permanent records are on file. In the case of McCook, it has been some time since that office paid expenses and it has therefore been deemed advisable to close the office and send the permanent records to Lincoln. The removal of the records from McCook to Lincoln is done by executive order and there is no significance whatever in the case. It will be the policy o the office to cut down land offices wherever they are unnecessary. Personally, I believe that betrenchment is a good thing and I we can accomplish the same results with less offices I believe it ought to be done.

Before leaving she made a statement in which she declared she will pay all her obligations and that her sole purpose in going is to face her creditors. Interest in Pittsburg Notes. At the present the attention of those most interested in the case is directed toward Pittsburg, where some interesting developments are anticipated. It is more than hinted that if the full facts are ever known it will be found that some of the paper negotiated by Mrs. Chadwick is lying in the strong boxes of Pittsburg financial men. It is possible that the miss ing $500,000 note, which President Beckwith said is signed with the name of Mr. Carnegle, may be brought to light in the Pennsylvania city.

Edmund Powers, associate counsel for Mrs. Chadwick, was told today that there was a rumor to the effect that the federal or state authorities of Ohio might require his presence there very shortly, and was asked what he knew about it. "I know nothing about it." replied Mr. Powers. "I am a lawyer and I trust I know what is legal. If they want me they know where to find me." Mr. Powers said he knew nothing about the trust agreement on the strength of which Mrs. Chadwick had made her enormous loans. "It was made before I became counsel for Mrs. Chadwick and I never saw it," he said. Excitement at Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, O., Dec. 18 .- The homecoming of Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick tomorrow will create more excitement in this city than any event of recent years. The probability of a tremendous jam at the depot has compelled Chief of Police Kehler to arrange details of officers to restrain the crowd, and United States Marshal Chandler, to whose offices she will be taken upon her arrival, has determined to station a force of deputies around his office to prevent the crowd from taking the room by storm. The prospects tonight are that Mrs. Chadwick will be compelled to go to jail unless she can give ball to the amount of $40,000. United States District Attorney Bullivan said tonight that he did not care to discuss what action he would take after Mrs. Chadwick's arrival, but intimated that Armour, widow of A. W. County Prosecutor Keeler said:

Of course the case of Cuyahoga county against Mrs. Chadwick cannot come up until after the federal case has been disposed of. I shall immediately cause her rearrest under the two indictments found against her yesterday and will ask that she give bend in $12,500 on each indictment, or a total surety of $25,500.

Sheldon Q. Carrusch, an attorney of this city, will probably appear in Mrs. Chadwick's behalf tomorrow, Judge Albaugh of
