Track Owners Make a Protest Against Western Jockey Club's Schedule. CHICAGO, Dec. 17.—Turfmen who are dis-satisfied with the dates offered by the Western Jockey club heid a meeting here today. In the preliminary discussion there was much talk of a petition to the Western Western Jockey club heid a meeting here today. In the preliminary discussion there was much taik of a petition to the Western Jockey club for a redistribution of dates. Steps toward the organization of a rival body to control racing in the west may be taken in event of the proposed petition being ignored by the governing organization. No invitation, it transpired, was sent to representatives of the Union track at St. Louis, owing to that track being regarded as an "outlaw" course.

H. Devereaux of the Hot Springs club, who issued the call for the gathering and who was made spokesman for the interests concerned, after the meeting said:

"We simply talked matters over and agreed on some points and differed on others. There was unanimity of opinion regarding the unfairness of the progent racing schedule and of the methods used in arranging it. On that point we all agreed. The argument came over the best method to be pursued in securing a revision of the racing schedule.

"A general turf war is only a remote possibility. We believe that we are in the

KANSAS WILL PLAY COLORADO

Sentiment Favors Conciliatory Appronches to Nebraska Also. LAWRENCE, Kan., Dec. 17.—(Special Telegram.)—The University of Kansas has made a contract with the University of Colorado for a foot ball game at Denver on October 28 next year and a game at Lawrence in 1998.

There is a strong feeling here that the athlette board should do all in its power to resume athletic relations with Nebraska. It is not expected that Kansas shall humble herself in any way, but there is a demand that Nebraska be approached in a conciliatory spirit.

WAR PINES TO HEAR THE GONG Sanders Writes that His Soul Yearns

Manager Rourke of the Omaha base ball team has just received a letter from "War" Sandere, who is now down in sunny Tennessee. Pitcher Sanders writes he is growing fat on 'possum and sweet 'faters, and is growing restless for the bell to ring again at Vinton street. "When are you going to send the contracts out? How is the bunch getting along? How is the little boy on the fence?" writes Sanders among other things. Sander's home is at Morristown, Tenn. for the Diamond Days.

The tug "Bully" came to the rescue and ran in as close as possible, but nothing could be seen of the nine missing persons and all hope for saving them was given up. The Glen Island, which was commanded by Captain McAllister, who was the last person to leave the wreck, was constructed from the ruins of the City of Richmond. The latter, curiously enough, also burned. After having been rebuilt the steamer was christened William C. Egerton and later renamed Glen Island.

Captain McAllister ordered the boat lowered. They were dropped into the water quickly and, the sea being smooth, were oon filled with passengers. The four firemen, two deck hands and Engineer Hendrickson, who perished, were

I told him it was impossible, but Miller said it was 'worth a try, anyway, and he plunged right through the fire and reached the woman. He picked her up and as he turned to either jump overboard with her or to try to come back where we were we could see that his clothes and her dress were afire. It was awful.
