County Attorney Killpack received notice yesterday that Judge Thornell had over-ruled the demurrer to the Indictment of Adolph Bolte, who, with Karl Karrer, the former Treynor saloon keeper now in the penitentiary for the robbery of the Treynor bank, was indicted for selling ifquor at the Grand Army reunion at Carson last summer. Bolte was Karrer's bartendar and he demurred to the indictment on the grounds that the wagon from which the ilquor was sold did not constitute "a place where liquor was sold" within the mean-ing of the statutes. Bolte's trial will be held at the next term of court in Avoca. Rooms and cafe. Ogden hotel.

Much Political Activity.

As a result of some conferences held here and elsewhere in lowa by politicians there MISTAKE PROVES FATAL TO TWO is much mid-winter politics being talked in the state. Since the adoption of the biennial elections amendment all nominations are put off a full year and it will be at least eighteen months before any of the conventions are called. All talk of candidates for state office has therefore ceased for the present. It is known that a number of prominent republicans are regarded as possibe in the race for governor to succeed Cummins, but none of them is now promoting his candidacy in any public way. A general campaign for strengthening the factional lines is in progress in the state. The friends of the governor and the opponents of the adminis-
