PATTERSON CASE ARGUED

Judge Will Charge the Jury on Opening of the Court This Morning.

WACK FORMERLY A REPORTER

Plaintiff in Suit Against Lawson a Former St. Paul Newspaper Man.

Speaking of the complaint entered at New York against Thomas W. Lawson of "Frenzied Finance" fame, an Omaha man who is acquainted with the particulars of the case, to some extent, said:

"Judging from his public utterances, which have been sent broadcast over the country by the press, Mr. Lawson has been on edge to have such a suit started against him. However, he expected that a suit of this nature would be made it would be by one or more of the men whose names he has been using in his campaign against what he calls 'the system,' and has said he would welcome such a suit for the opportunity it would give him to get even, as he expressed it, with his enemies."

Both addresses were impassioned and eloquent. Mr. Levy swayed his listeners to tears at times by his references to his client and the home-coming in Washington which she anticipated.

Mr. Rand's argument was a severe arraignment of Miss Patterson, and when the prosecutor pitilessly condemned the woman as the murderer of the bookmaker, Charles Young, she quailed under his invective.

Wack Has Rogers' Attorney.

"One peculiar feature of the affair is that Charles M. Beattie, Wack's attorney, has long been known as the attorney of H. H. Rogers, the chosen foe of Lawson and the man against whom the Boston fighter has long been directing his main attack."

M'GREEVY TURNS OVER CASH

Part of Missing Funds of O'Neill Bank Now in Hands of the Sheriff.

O'NEILL MAN HAS FIFTEEN THOUSAND

Hagerty Thought to Be Where He Can Be Arrested at Any Time—Big Surprise is Promised Regarding Bank Affairs.

PHOENIX, Ariz., Dec. 21.—(Special Telegram.)—Startling revelations were made here today by Bernard R. McGreevy, the runaway O'Neill banker, Captain Harry McDonald, the arresting officer, learned from a reliable source that McGreevy had an engagement to meet Patrick Hagerty, the missing Elkhorn cashier, in this city the day of his arrest.

That the bank was $50,000 short he emphatically denied. "I was bookkeeper and I could not know," he said. He maintained that McDonald has seen Hagerty twice, Sheriff Hall will arrive tomorrow and McDonald will have him identify Hagerty before the arrest is made.

McGreevy is willing to turn everything over to the bank's deposit to escape criminal prosecution. Letters from a private citizen of O'Neill, who was a long-time depositor in the bank, to McDonald have been the inspiration of McGreevy's action.

ONE TAXING OFFICE FOR BOTH Combined Treasury for City and County Advocated by the Real Estate Exchange.

The Omaha Real Estate exchange wants the tax collecting offices of the city and county consolidated. After a preliminary and friendly discussion at the regular meeting a resolution was passed as the sense of the exchange that as soon as feasible the office of county treasurer and of city treasurer be consolidated and the double assessment of property done away with.

This resolution was passed for the guidance of the committee which has in hand suggestions for charter revision. The idea is the office of tax commissioner was made a few years ago because at that time the county assessments were unsatisfactory and the city office was created as a relief.

The discussion grew out of some remarks made by Charles L. Stowers, city assessor.

"I believe the charter revision committee should look into the matter of doing away with the city assessment of real property," he said. The assessing is now done both by the city and the county, each covering the same ground. This money is wasted. I believe some way could be arranged so the city and the county treasuries could be consolidated, at least insofar as regular taxes are concerned."

C. F. Patterson objected to the plan, for the reason, if the county made the city assessment, the county treasurer would have to be governed in the assessment of railways by the unit system and the city might lose its right, which it now claims, to tax the terminal property for its own revenues.

C. F. Harrison moved the consolidation go on record as favoring such exchange.

"WILFUL WASTE"

That old copybook maxim finds its most forcible application in the waste of vitality, which is called "burning the candle at both ends." A woman is often tempted beyond her strength by domestic or social demands. Some day she awakens from this waste of strength to the woeful want of it. She has become weak, nervous and miserable.

For weak, nervous, run-down women, there is no better tonic and nerve than Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It restores the appetite, quiets the nerves and gives refreshing sleep. It cures local diseases peculiarly womanly which undermine the general health. It makes weak women strong, sick women well.

Who would you have forgotten me, but after you read my letter you will remember me," writes Mrs. Annie M. Moring, of 2714 Avenue V, Keosauqua, Va. "In the year 1897, I wrote to you for advice, which you gave me free of charge. When I wrote to you I was a wreck. I could not walk straight, my joints in my abdomen could not sit down, I was down, or get any sleep at all. I had what was called the best doctor here, but did not get any better until I went through a course of your medicine. I took eight bottles each of 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and ten bottles of the 'Pleasant Pellets.' I tell you the medicine made a cure of me."

Weak and sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is held as strictly private. Address Dr. R. C. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.
