

[Entered at the Omaha postoffice as second-class matter. Published weekly by the Bee Publishing Co. Price, $2.50 per year.]

London Christmas day

Dear Mary Jane

It is Xmas and I have given every thing away. It is odd how it makes us happy to give to those who need. If we could only give them a tip to hustle around and get their own things they would be happier and better off. But advice is a poor Xmas present. Some people get fits of generosity and give nice presents on Xmas - then bleed all year because they didn't get as much in return. Some give tit for tat before they get the tat. Some give all they've got for nothing. Some give nothing for all they've got. This world is full of mighty good people and Xmas is when we find it out. Merry Xmas to you Mary Jane and a Happy New Year. I think I'll be coming home soon now Good-bye Buster.

(COPYRIGHT, 1904, BY THE NEW YORK HERALD CO.)

