

MERRY CHRISTMAS FOR COLL

Five Years Lopped Off Sentence of Daves County Man by Governor.

ANOTHER TO GO FREE WITH NEW YEAR

Rescued Pound Announces His Intention to Resign Position of Dean of the Law School of the State University.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Dec. 24.—(Special.)—Late last night young George Coll was carried away from the penitentiary to the trolley car station at Lancaster a free man, beneficiary of one of Governor Mickey's Christmas commutations. Coll was convicted five years ago of murdering a sheepman named Ryan, with whom he and his father, a cattleman, had had trouble over the range. The jury found guilty of murder in the second degree, but recommended that he be given a five-year sentence, instead of the statutory term of ten years. In pursuance of that recommendation, and that of District Judge Westover, the commutation was issued to take effect at this time. Coll left for Lyons, Neb., where he will spend Christmas with his grandmother. Later, he will return to Daves county.

The man has been a model prisoner, never violating any rules of prison discipline. For the last two years he has been employed outside of the walls in various tasks. In appearance he is a somewhat faded, dapper boy. During his incarceration he has frequently been visited by his father, a ranchman of considerable means. The killing grew out of the bitter feud which developed with the invasion of the cattle country by the sheep men.

Gives New Year Commutation. Governor Mickey did not see his way clear to grant any further Christmas commutations, although an instant plea was made for Sergeant, the Madison county wife murderer, who is serving a twenty-year sentence. He exercised New Year's clemency on the behalf of Herbert Cochran of Fillmore county, who has served half of a nine-year term for burglary. Several prominent people in that section of the state interested in his behalf. He will go out on the last day of the year.

With his departure, Warden Bremer will find himself facing a serious situation, for Cochran has been the prison tailor, to whose skillful work the elegant fit of the new gray uniforms has been due in a large measure. Tailors are few in the ranks of the convicts and the warden has not yet been able to find a solution of the difficulties which confront him. Cochran has had a good record while in the prison.

Christmas Fare for Prisoners. Tonight each prisoner in the penitentiary will be given a Christmas present. The gift is of modest proportions, consisting of a large box of candy, made in the prison kitchen, but each man will be remembered. Many of them have received little trinkets from friends and relatives at home. Little mementoes of home life and jars of jam and jelly, with other delicacies, are received by many of the men. Tonight the lights will not flicker out at 9 o'clock, as is their wont, for the warden has granted an indulgence.

Tomorrow the men will have Christmas fare for dinner, roast duck and goose with cranberries, and mince pie, with mashed potatoes. This afternoon they have been given half day off and the men belonging to the Catholic faith have been attending services. Services were held again in the evening. Tomorrow there will be early mass, with Father Shible officiating, and again in the evening there will be Catholic services. At 10 o'clock Rev. F. S. Stein will hold services for the remaining prisoners. Because of the fact that the holiday comes on the Sabbath, the Christmas mass ministrations will not be given this year. During the day the men will enjoy their usual Sunday freedom, with the privilege of reading books and papers and writing letters.

Will Resign as Dean. Rescued Pound resigns his position as dean of the law school at the State University to enter practice, having formed a law partnership with Frank M. Hall and Frank H. Woods. Judge Pound left the place of supreme court commissioner a year ago to succeed Judge Reese as head of the department, but before active practice to scholastic work. His resignation has not been formally placed before the Board of Regents, but the chancellor has been informed that he will leave his present place.

What Sulphur Does For the Human Body in Health and Disease. The mention of sulphur will recall to many minds the early days when our mothers and grandmothers gave us our daily dose of sulphur and molasses every spring and fall.

It was the universal spring and fall "blood purifier," and a cure-all, and mind you, this old-fashioned remedy was not without merit.

The idea was good, but the remedy was crude and unpalatable, and a large quantity had to be taken to get any effect.

Nowadays we get all the beneficial effects of sulphur in a palatable, concentrated form, so that a single grain is far more effective than a tablespoonful of the crude sulphur.

In recent years, research and experiment have proven that the best sulphur for medicinal use is that obtained from Calcium (Calcium Sulphide) and sold in drug stores under the name of Stuart's Calcium Waters. They are small chocolate coated pellets and contain the active medicinal principle of sulphur in a highly concentrated, effective form.

People are aware of the value of this form of sulphur in restoring and maintaining bodily vigor and health; sulphur acts directly on the liver, and excretory organs and purifies and enriches the blood by the prompt elimination of waste material.

Our grandmothers knew this when they doled us with sulphur and molasses every spring and fall, but the crudity and impurity of ordinary flowers of sulphur were often worse than the disease, and cannot compare with the modern concentrated preparation of sulphur of which Stuart's Calcium Waters is undoubtedly the best and most widely used.

They are the natural antidote for liver and kidney troubles and cure constipation and purify the blood, and they are often surprising patient and physician alike.

Dr. R. M. Wilkins while experimenting with sulphur remedies soon found that the sulphur from Calcium was superior to any other form. He says: "For liver, kidney and blood troubles, especially when resulting from constipation or malaria, I have been surprised at the results obtained from Stuart's Calcium Waters. In patients suffering from boils and pimples and even deep-seated carbuncles, I have repeatedly seen them dry up and disappear in four or five days, leaving the skin clear and smooth. Although Stuart's Calcium Waters is a proprietary article, and sold by druggists, and yet I reason taboos by physicians, and yet I know of nothing so safe and reliable for constipation, liver and kidney troubles and especially in all forms of skin diseases as this remedy."

At any rate people who are tired of pills, cathartics and so-called "blood purifiers," will find Stuart's Calcium Waters far safer, more palatable and effective preparation.

DELAY WORK ON BUILDINGS

New Norfolk Asylum May Not Be Completed Before Next June.

PROMISE OF TROUBLE IN SETTLEMENT

State Alleges Contractors Owe Forfeit While They Claim State's Change in Plans Nullifies the Contract.

NORFOLK, Neb., Dec. 24.—(Special.)—Instead of being allowed to come back "home" for their Christmas this year, as they had planned, the patients who were burned out of the Nebraska State Hospital for the Insane in the Norfolk city several years ago, and who have since been crowded into the institutions at Lincoln and Hastings, will have to wait for at least another six months' stretch. Although promised by the contractors that the building should have been ready for occupancy last October, the State Board of Public Lands and Buildings has no indication that it will give receipt for the reconstructed buildings before the first day of next June.

There is going to be something doing when the settlement for the work is finally made by the Capital City Brick company of Des Moines. According to leading members of the State Board of Public Buildings, the company owes a forfeit of $25 per day for every day after the first of October. According to the company officials, the state changed plans and annulled the contract so that the forfeit clause is thrown out. And the state has to pay the money.

New Plan is Introduced. When completed, the institution—the only state institution north of the Platte river—will consist of the first cottage system hospital inaugurated in the west. There are three hundred and twenty beds, a main building, the finish in them all is most superior, and Nebraska may well be proud of the job. The contractors freely admit that they're making no money at the work, though they've paid $90,000.

But the state is not to be satisfied to not end with the building. It is to be a part of the west of the cottages, is the massive shell of the former west wing, a four-story brick structure, damaged by the fire, but still perfectly substantial about the walls and absolutely practicable for reconstruction. This is being done in the cold and the rain and the snow, and is being done by the elements, and is losing value every day of its life. Put to use, it would save the state of Nebraska many thousands of dollars.

Desired More Money. It is probable that the coming legislature will see the necessity for appropriating a fund of about $60,000 with which to complete this work. For, as stated by State Treasurer Mortensen recently, the cost of maintaining an institution of small proportions is about as much as a larger, and the per capita cost is therefore very heavy where few patients are cared for.

It is anticipated that Governor Mickey will recommend in his opening message that the state do something with this abandoned yet valuable structure.

The most unique feature of the work that is now going on in the finishing, is the manufacture of the false marble on the grounds, which resembles the genuine article so perfectly that even experts refuse to believe the marble is not the real thing. Reed, the contractor, using a little palette and his clever fingers, forms like a mason, the beautiful stone with which the halls are lined. The method, of course, is a closely guarded secret with him. He makes the marble in the open air, a little chunk at a time, and assembles the most elaborately finished capitol buildings. Governor Mickey, on his trip of inspection, asked how the work was done, but Jack merely smiled and went on with his labor.

The executive committee of the Norfolk Commercial club, consisting of W. R. Robertson, C. D. Jenkins, W. N. Huse, C. E. Burnham, Butcher Mape, M. D. Tyler and George D. Butterfield, men of all political parties, are preparing a bill asking the coming legislature to appropriate $50,000 to improve the grounds at the Nebraska State Hospital for the Insane in this city to make repairs, rebuild the west wing and build an additional cottage which will be used for hospital purposes.

The local committee is asking as many legislators as possible to attend the building to Norfolk and look over the buildings in order that they may be advised as to present conditions and future needs. Senator Hughes and Representatives Bender and Hoare of Platte county arrived to look over the institution.

INQUEST OVER W. H. PENN

Coroner's Jury Investigates Case of Man's Death at York. YORK, Neb., Dec. 24.—(Special.)—Coroner Hirsch of Greenbush held an inquest today into the case of W. H. Penn, who shot himself yesterday in his room at the Blood-guest house. The young man's father, Captain Penn, commander of the Soldiers' Home at York, is the brother-in-law of the man who shot himself, and he and Mrs. Stephens, who registered at the hotel the night before the arrival of young Penn from Lincoln, gave testimony.

At the coroner's inquest testimony was given that he was to have been married to Mrs. Stephens of Lincoln the day he committed suicide. The two had disagreed, it is alleged, as to whether the ceremony should be at York or Lincoln. Penn is a brother of the commandant of the Soldiers' home at Milford.

SHERIFF COMES FOR M'GREVY

Will Wait Awhile in Hopes of Catching His Horse. PHOENIX, Ariz., Dec. 24.—Sheriff Hall of Holt county, Neb., arrived today with a requisition for Bernard W. McGreevy, absconding president of the Elkhorn Valley bank of O'Neill, Neb. The sheriff said he would not leave the morning after, and he has not then. He is impressed with the story that Cashier Patrick Hagerty is in hiding here and hopes to capture him. Sheriff Hall does not think the two bank officials have much money in their possession, and says the $20,000 lost in the failure probably gone for good. President McGreevy told the sheriff he was not a defaulter and that the books would clear him.

Find Marquardt Alive. NORFOLK, Neb., Dec. 24.—(Special.)—After having been mourned as a dead man for the past seventeen years, John Marquardt has turned up at Harrisburg, Ore., alive and a busy man. Almost a score of years ago he left Norfolk, and two years later his mother and brothers here gave him up as dead. Even the date of his death had been fixed, services held and each anniversary held apart because of the funeral took it bore. A letter received this week came as a joyful greeting. He said the reason he hadn't written before was that he had been such a busy man. It hadn't occurred to him that his relatives might worry. Hereafter, however, he has promised to do better in the correspondence line.

Assault Case is Postponed. HUMBOLDT, Neb., Dec. 24.—(Special.)—The case of the State against Otis Simms, charged with assaulting Chris Stucke, the young man who was almost killed in the billiard hall row at Nims City about a month ago, came up for hearing yesterday at Falls City, but was postponed thirty days upon motion of the prosecution, some necessary evidence having not been secured. It is also considered better to await the outcome of the Stucke, Stucke still being far from past the danger line and subject to sinking spells at intervals.

BURRIER STAYS IN PRISON

Iowa Convict Who Testified Against Chief Donahue Will Not Be Released.

CUMMINS REFUSES ANY CLEMENCY

Governor of Iowa Declares His Belief That Burrier, for Whom Thomas Pleaded, is Confirmed and Degenerate Criminal.

Governor Cummins on Christmas eve gave out the information that he was still chief executive of the state of Iowa and would not consent to the pardon or parole of George Burrier, the criminal serving a term in the Anamosa penitentiary for whose release the Civic Federation of Omaha, through its attorney, Elmer E. Thomas, appealed to the governor. Other parties, too, it is asserted, intervened in behalf of Burrier.

Governor Cummins announced last night in Des Moines and the news reached the city of Omaha very soon afterward—that he had determined to refuse "at this time" to extend clemency to this convict. Receiving the information as news from his staff correspondent at Des Moines, The Bee last night called up Mr. Elmer E. Thomas by telephone at his home in Dundee regarding the case in which he had been interviewed.

"I have not heard anything about the matter," replied Mr. Thomas in answer to a question.

"Will any further movement be made to secure Burrier's release?"

"I do not know."

"Will you present your appeals to the governor for the Civic Federation?"

"No; the Civic Federation is not working for the release of this man. True, I wrote a letter to the governor in behalf of Burrier's release, but beyond that the Civic Federation or I did nothing, nor is there anything planned for us to do."

"Do you know of any others who are endeavoring to secure his release?"

"I understand he turned state's evidence up at Clinton, Ia., and that for that reason some people are interesting themselves in his behalf."

Thomas and Cummins Disagree. Mr. Thomas and Governor Cummins, manifestly, are not agreed as to the status of Burrier's morality just at present. In his letter to the governor beseeching the latter to pardon and then parole Burrier, Mr. Thomas referred to him as deserving clemency, but Governor Cummins gives it as his belief that "Burrier offers no hope of reform and is a confirmed and degenerate criminal." The governor adds: "Even if he should receive some reward, which I think he should sometime, for having done such service for the state in bringing other criminals to justice, the time has not come for such reward. If released he would be sent to Indiana to serve a term there."

Burrier is the convict whose depositions obtained against Chief of Police Donahue were obtained and used by the Civic Federation in its attempt before the Board of Pardon and Police commissioners to discredit the chief and then secure his discharge from office.

Prior to making his decision in Burrier's case Governor Cummins sent his pardon clerk to Clinton to investigate conditions that had been represented to the governor. It had been alleged that Burrier was vague and did not at any time go to the extent of assuring the convict his release.

"No, sir, neither the Civic Federation nor I, as its attorney, gave Burrier any such promise, and I have no power to do such a thing," asserted Elmer E. Thomas, when asked about it last night. "I do not know who the parties were who made such promises."

The governor's pardon clerk found that the promise made to Burrier was vague and did not at any time go to the extent of assuring the convict his release.

TO BUILD CANAL NEXT YEAR

Government Will Lose No Time Over Big Irrigation Project.

WATERS WYOMING AND NEBRASKA LAND Contract for North Platte Company's Right-of-Way is Signed and Contracts Are Now Being Advertised.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 24.—(Special Telegram.)—F. H. Newell, chief engineer of reclamation service, today announced that the government, in return for the perpetual use of the North Platte company's right-of-way, will carry in its canal waters belonging to the canal company and will make only a moderate maintenance charge to water users.

Mr. Newell stated that Governor Chatterton and the State Board of Land Commissioners had taken great interest in the matter and the part they took in these negotiations was very helpful in reaching an adjustment.

Plans for building the tunnel at the Pathfinder dam in connection with this project are now being advertised, and it is believed that work will be begun on it early in the spring. In view of the execution of this contract with the North Platte company advertisement for bids on the canal water right-of-way will be issued as soon as the estimates for the bids which are nearly ready can be completed.

Daily Mail to Lamar and Assent. Representative Norris today saw Assistant Postmaster General Blaitenberg with a view to establishing daily mail service on the star route from Imperial to Chase and Lamar. On looking into the matter it was ascertained that the tri-weekly train service on the Beverly branch of the Burlington would not permit a daily mail service, but it was promised that just as soon as a daily train service was established by the Burlington the Postoffice department would be glad to consider the question of extending the daily mail to Chase and Lamar.

Congressman Hepburn of Iowa, chairman of the Interstate and Foreign Commerce committee of the house, believes that the future of the Panama canal will be more successful with fewer commissioners than under the present plan, and it is believed he will introduce a bill immediately after the holidays cutting down the number of commissioners. The charge is made that the chief engineer has little opportunity to carry out his views as matters now stand and that there are too many bosses over him to permit good work.

Clerical Force at Alliance. The Interior department advised Senator Millard today that the extra temporary clerical help in the Alliance land office, which was made necessary by the passage of the Kinkaid bill, will be continued for thirty days, and the matter of a further extension of three months will be taken up with the Civil Service commission. By that time it is thought there will be no further need for the retention of the present temporary help.

FALL RIVER STRIKE MAY END Unions to Vote Upon Question of Returning to Work—Gloomy Christmas in Textile City.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Dec. 24.—Meetings of the various textile unions are to be called within a short time, it is learned, to vote upon the question of further continuing the cotton mill strike. No vote has been taken by the unions since the strike began, twenty-two weeks ago, upon this date. The unions are so gloomy that an expression of sentiment should be obtained from the operatives in order that plans may be formulated for the future. It is a gloomy Christmas season in Fall River, although every effort is being made to make Christmas day as bright as possible under the circumstances. All the unions have given strike pay to their members. Several carloads of toys are coming from Boston, but labor leaders say it is food that the suffering operatives and children in Fall River need the most.
