the worshipers, who had made up their minds to start the new year with a religious record.

Cardinal Gibbons preached at 11 o'clock and his sermon abounded in sound advice for the coming year. The subject of his sermon, however, was the "Beneficent Institutions of the Catholic church." His eminence referred especially to the Little Staters of the Poor.

The Sisters of Mercy and the Order of St. Vincent De Paul were also referred to in glowing terms. At the close of the pontifical mass the cardinal held his usual New Year's day reception in the archiepiscopal residence and greeted several hundreds of persons
