No attention was paid to the notices sent to the agents of the company and the cost was assessed against the property. Yesterday a check was received from the Rock Island officials located at Topeka, Kan., in payment of the light claim. This sum pays for the lights for the years 1902 and 1903. Ignores Challenge of Gotch.

DES MOINES, Ia., Jan. 2—(Special.)—
James Jeffries, who is in the city today as the star of a fleatrical company, said he had not yet received the challenge of Frank Gotch of Humboldt, Ia., for a puglistic match. He stated further that he would not likely consider it seriously when he did. "Gotch is a wrestier and not a puglist," he said. "He knows enough to snow that he should begin at the bottom and attain some prominence as a puglist before he can expect to have his challenge treated seriously. I don't believe Gotch should enter the puglistic field. He is built for a wrestler and is a good one. Ho will probably be able to maintain his place for years as a wrestler. There isn't much in the puglistic business." Ignores Challenge of Gotch.

Carrison of Port Arthur Finds Further Resistance Useless and Enrrenders.

BERLIN, Jan. 2.-Russian securities. which are largely dealt in on the Berlin bourse, stood the shock of the Port Arthur surrender with scarcely a quiver, government securities losing one-tenth of 1 per cent and private companies' shares losing from % to % point. As soon as the report reached the bourse powerful financial in fluences immediately met it with statements that the Russian government would not deviate in the slightest from its determination to fight out the war and by repeating the figures recently put forward that Russian finances, as shown by the expenditure of less than $400,000,000 over the usual budget since the war began, would permit Russia continuing the war for ten years without reaching a breaking point. It might be supposed that the news from Port Arthur would ruin the chances of the new Russian loan, but the bankers consulted by the Associated Press consider the loan is likely to be taken without difficulty.

The military critics treat the surrender of Port Arthur as the beginning of a new phase of the war, liberating General Nogi's army for co-operating with the armies before Mukden and removing causes for anxlety for the Japanese, who are now able to risk more in attacking General Kouropatkin.

Colonel Gaedke, war correspondent of the Tageblatt of Berlin, who has now returned from Mukden, says Port Arthur's defense army and that the Japanese have lost in the attack more men than the whole Rus-

SORROW AT ST. PETERSBURG

Two · Newspapers Make Brief Announcement of Fall of Fortress. ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 3.-6:30 a. m. The Novoe Vremya and the Russ briefly and sorrowfully announce the fall of Port Arthur. Those journals say that it will be sad news to Russians, though it had been country passionately not to let the bloodshed during the last seven and a half months in defense of the fortress go for naught, but to continue the war with the same steadfastness of purpose as before. It has been learned that the last tele gram sent by Emperor Nicholas to General Stoessel vested the commander of the Port Arthur forces with discretionary powers and urged him to exercise them rather than allow the defense to go to the last ditch. This may account for the apparently brief time required to conclude the negotiations between the Japanese and Russian commanders, no time having been occupied in communicating with Emperor Nicholas. It is equally certain that General Stoessel did not surrender without previous authori-

In diplomatic circles tonight where there is every reason to believe there is the best Trapper Wins the Special Handicap information regarding the plans of the Japanese, it is regarded that the fall of Port Arthur will be promptly followed by an offer of peace from Japan. It is understood that a strong effort will be made to have the offer come through President Roosevelt. It is even suggested that the terms might include an arrangement which would give Russia an outlet through the Persian guif. There is, however, no indication as to whether an effort to induce President Roosevelt to move in the matter regarded as unlikely that such a suggestion should come through the United States unless the president has had the strongest intimation that it will be favorably received by Russia.

It is known that Emperor Nicholas has regarded the war with the greatest abcorrence, but there is nothing to indicate that his government intends to recede from the plan of fighting to a finish as has been announced.

It is rumored that Admiral Rojestvensky's squadron will return to the Baltic to await reinforcements and proceed east next summer, when it will be decidedly superior in strength to Admiral Togo's fleet, but there is nothing authoritative to upport such a report.

The situation, so far as Vice Admiral Rojestvensky is concerned, is not different from that at the time the squadron sailed. It is known the vice admiral had alternative instructions when he sailed covering such a contingency as has now arisen. So far as known he has no intention of altering his plans owing to General Stoessel's surrender.

The situation in the immediate future may not be such as to necessitate the curtailing of the emperor's trip and require his return to St. Petersburg, but the report that his pilot train had been blown up is untrue. There has been a number of mishaps to freight and passenger trains, owing to a blizzard prevailing in central and south Russia in the last few days. One train was derailed near Minsk, and this doubtless occasioned the rumor cabled to the United States that revolutionists had wrecked the train preceding the royal train.

out eight hours previously in the Assoclated Press dispatches from Tokio as to Lieutenant General Stoessel's overtures for capitulation. This official communication disposes of the definite announcement of surrender prematurely published in Lon-don by one English and one American agency. No doubt, however, is entertained in competent quarters that terms will be arranged and that the Japanese will soon be in effective occupation of Port Arthur, subject of eulogy on all sides.

der might entail considerable communica- the legislative session. tion with Tokio and possibly prolonging the nesday, but there was little disposition to doubt that an agreement would be reached. Minister Hayashi expressed relief at the of the garrison and the besiegers was about to be ended. The fall of the fortress, the minister added, would make the close of an important phase of the war and release a large number of troops which would be available for the reinforcement of Field Marshal Oyama, would be likely to succeed. It certainly is Hayashi was not in a position to say that the surrender would have any definite, immediate influence in the direction of terminating the war. As to mediation, the minister reiterates that he knew of no attempts in that direction.

"The legation," continued Baron Hayashi. has nothing confirmatory of the reports of a definite surrender, but our information goes to show that the surrender of the great fortress was imminent. The terms first session. Tuesday will see a joint sesof surrender, of course, come within the sion of the wool and cattle growers and province of the generals, but it is very the live stock men. unlikely that Rusisan troops still at Port Arthur, who are believed to number nearly 20,000, will be allowed to reinforce the troops n the field."

Minister Hayashi naturally was elated at he expected surrender and reiterates: "It will at any rate end the terrible laughter there and I sincerely hope it may a some way facilitate final peace. This depends upon Russia and not upon us. It may strengthen the determination of Russia to continue the war at all costs. Its effect upon Japan, however, cannot be doubted. Our fleet is free and the release of the besieging army gives us increased orces available for service elsewhere. Our base becomes more secure than ever." Baron Hayashi paid a tribute to General Stoessel, saying:

"The surrender will in no way affect the glory belonging to him or his men, nor admiration for their splendid defense." Baron Suyematzu, son-in-law of Marquis Ito, and former Japanese minister of the interior, who is now in this city, was asked what effect the fall of Port Arthur was likely to have on the future course of the war and remarked that so long as Russia failed to give way there could be no ermination of the hostilities.

The text of General Nogi's message as received at the legation confirms the Associated Press earlier Tokio advices as General Stoessel's proposal was accepted.

The terms and process of surrender are to be negotiated between the respective dele-gates at noon, January 2. Considerable depression was noticeable at the Russian embassy. In the absence of Ambassador Benkendorff, who has gone on a holiday trip to St. Petersburg, a representative of the Associated Press saw First Secretary M. Poklewsky-Koziell, who said he had no news from St. Petersburg on the subject of Port Arthur, but he felt satisfied that the surrender of the fortress would only serve to unite all Russia with the determination to put forth its whole strength in the spring, with the view of retrieving

DENVER, Jan. 2.-The cause of Gov. ernor Peabody made a distinct gain this afternoon when the republican caucus selected W. H. Although Mr. Dickson has been a resident of this state for three years he has not been active in the interest of any republican faction, but his candidacy was pushed by the friends of Gov-ernor Penbody and his selection by the caucus is regarded with much complacency by the Penbedy people.

of Dr. Irvine. Irvine is Without Money. HARTFORD, Conn., Jan. 2 .- A prominent Hartford clergyman, says the Post, has received a letter from Rev. Ingram N. W. Irvine, who figures in the charges brought against Bishop Talbot of Philadelpnia. The letter indicates that the writer is in straightened financial circumstances, saying in part: I have won from the church a court of appeals, but I suppose, like all martyrs, must go down under a cloud. Pray for I have been hindered on all sides. Wealth and power have been against me. I have lost everything but my life. Today I hold in my pocket a copy of a levy on my few household goods and library for the amount of three months rent and I have not one dollar in my possession to go roward the meeting of the same. Within also of six days all will have been sold above my head, if God does not cheak.

This is the way of cross. From my 8th year I have been kept in view of the anglican priesthoed; at 50 I was unlawfully deposed. Today, after spending every dollar in law, etc. I am in poverity and have no work. Relieve me, with the deepest feeling of respect and gratitude.
