PIERRE, S. D., Jan. 5.—(Special Telegram.)—Committees of neither houses have yet been announced and will not be until tomorrow, and the house attempted nothing except to receive communications and appoint the committee on elections and privilence.

The fraudulent conduct of elections under our present system demands your immediate and concerted action. In a general way it seems sufficient to say that a modern primary and registration law should be enacted, and the advisability of introducing voting machines should be considered.

In sorrow we must admit the elections under our present system demands your immediate and concerted action. In a general way it seems sufficient to say that a modern primary and registration law should be enacted, and the advisability of introducing voting machines should be considered.

In sorrow we must admit that the elective franchise, especially in Denver, has been sadly misused and prostituted. A patient people protests and these outrages should be enacted.

Labor Troubles Discussed.

The governor recommends consideration of a constitutional amendment providing President Pro Tem. Of the labor troubles the gov ernor, after urging the adoption of "a reasonable, just and equitable eight-hour law,"

Early in my administration a certain or-ganization, known as the Western Federa-tion of Miners, claiming public considera-tion under the name of labor, whose offi-cers and those in direct charge of its man-agement are bold, careless, reckless men, attempted to foment trouble in several secattempted to foment trouble in several sections of Colorado, to the end that that particular organization should have recognition in the operation and management of the mines, mills and smelters, wherever located in the state, which efforts culminated in the arbitrary calling of the most senseless, causeless, unjustifiable and inexcusable strike ever known in this or any other country.

Believing that my duty to the people of the state lay in protecting life and property in advance of annihiliation I proceeded to stop the unlawful methods of this reckless band of men. Suffice it to say, law and order was maintained, peace restored and prosperity immediately followed.

I recommend the passage of an act by your honorable body prohibiting boycotting, picketing, unfair lists or other interference with the lawful business or occupation of others, and providing suitable penalties therefor.

Rights of Person and Property.

The principles on which I stand, and which have caused me to take the action I have in maintaining law and order in this state, are that the trights of every citizen to enjoy liberty and the right to acquire possess and enjoy and protect his property are inherent and indefeasible. The right of the workingman to sell his labor to any one wishing to purchase it for lawful purposes is equally his inherent right. Laborers have undisputed right to organize and to cease to work, either as individuals or as an organization for such reasons as may seem to themselves sufficient; but when they attempt to prevent others from performing that empt to prevent others from performing he same work or to prevent the employer employing others to carry on his actions are unlawful and cannot be

The sole prophet to the contrary was placed across two of the archways in the rear of the house. Representative Frewen proposed the railing with the idea of protecting the members in the rear seats from the crowding spectators.

Representative Bromley, who sits in the inst row, declared that he wished no railing. "There may be things doing in this room before long," he asserted, "and I may want to get out quickly." The roar of laughter that followed his words effectually disposed of the proposition to build the railing.
