Son of Count Tolstol Writes Article Severely Criticising the Action of Great Britain Toward Russia.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 6 .- Regarding the peace talk abroad M. Souvorin editor of the Novoe Vremya, in a signed editorial in that paper today passionately declares that the voice of the nation should give an answar, in order that the world might understand once for all Russia's position. The emperor, he added, should consult with representatives of the land as his predecessors did before the days of John the Terrible. While papers abroad now say that peace could be concluded without dishonor if peace were made, they would declare it disgraceful. What the people want, he (M. Souvorin) cannot affirm, but the idea of ending the war at this juncture is abhorrent to him and, he believes, to the Russian people. If the inscriptions on the banners of demonstrators and the action of some of the zemstvos in favor of peace, represented the voice of the nation, it would mean the collapse of all of Russia's aspirations and farewell to its position in the
