THE JAPANESE POLICY.

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE. E. ROSEWATER, EDITOR.

PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

DELIVERED BY CARRIER. Bee (without Sunday), per copy... 2c Bee (without Sunday), per week. life Bee (including Sunday), per week. life y life, per copy ng Bee (without Sunday), per week To ng Bee (including Sunday), per k Sunday Evening week Complaints of irregularities in delivery hould be addressed to City Circulation De-

OFFICES. OFFICES Omnha-The Bee Building. Twenty-South Omaha-City Hall building. Twenty-fith and M streets. Council Binfra-19 Part street. Chicago-1640 Unity Building. New York-225 Park Row building. Washington-661 Fourteenth street. CORRESPONDENCE.

Communications relating to news and edi-torial matter should be addressed: Omaha Bee, Editorial Department.

REMITTANCES.

Remit by draft, express or postal order, psyable to The Bee Publishing Company, Only 2-cent stamps reactived in payment of mail accounts Personal checks, except on Omsha or assister present checks. THE BEE PUBLISHING COMPANY.

LATE & PROPERTY AND ADDRESS OF	termone antoni
STATEMENT OF State of Nebraska, D	CIRCULATION
Claure of Nebrasea, D	secretary of The Bee Publishing Company,	being duly sworn.
save that the actual	number of full and complete copies of	The Daily, Morning.
Evening and Bunday]	Bee printed during the month of December, 1	1904, was as follows:
1	17 32.715
2	18
3 32,550	19
4	20 28,630
5	21
6	⁹⁹
7	23
8	31,000
9	35 30,220
10 32,000	35
11	25.350
12 29,100	28 28.470
13 28,780	29 28,220
14	20 28,330
15 25.780	31 31,470
16	August 100 - 100
Total
Less unsold copies
Net total sales	011 846
Daily average	sector states and sector and sect
	GE B. TZSCHUCK.
before me this sist da	resence and sworn to (Seal)	M. B. HUNGATE.
	Notary Public.
	A

To judge from the remarks of the Fillpinos someone is discovering that "the foreigner pays the tariff tax."

deny that they desire it, but it is possible that even the ezar would thank someone for helping him to let go.

Those Russian soldiers who are going as prisoners to Japan will have an opportunity to take the rest cure they would hardly find anywhere else.

With the preliminary meetings of the league and associations the time is almost ripe for base ball forecasts telling how Omaha is to hold that pennant.

Young Kingdon Gould seems to have imbibed the Texan's opinion that no one should pull a gun unless he intends to shoot, even though he intends to hit no said that Japan would be found ready owners of adjacent property on the reto make peace whenever her enemy was paved streets and the other half to be willing to negotiate and she would make borne by the city at large.

no upreasonable demands. She went to ritorial aggrandizement and while her. by the revision committee may be satis. Omaha as a grain market. The same the duty contemplated. The officers were and hand the country over to its rightthat Russia also leave that territory.

At a meeting of Japanese in New York | shall have forty days to enter a protest Sunday, the consul general of Japan, and, failing to do so, or if 40 per cent. doubtless speaking with authority, de- of those interested do protest and 60 per are on strike for a nine-hour day and clared that Japan is willing to make cent petition for the pavement, then the wages of $10 per month would probably peace if Russia is willing, but otherwise council shall be authorized to have the consider the Standard Oil company's tabulated, and from the list will be sethe war must go on. It is not for Japan pavement laid at the expense of the rates and hours something beyond hope. to ask for peace, at least under present adjacent property, the city bearing the although that concern can compete with conditions, and if these were different expense of paving the intersections. In the Russians on their own soil and pay It would be utterly useless for her to any event, no street should be ordered the American scale. omaha seek peace. She is thus far the victor paved unless it abuts upon streets al-

and the attitude she presents to the ready paved. world is in the highest degree com-RULE OUT THE LOBBY. mendable. It cannot fail to strengthen the respect which the world feels for her. Governor Mickey struck the keynote In his address at the New York meeting General Woodford said: "In all the con- in his message that "the bane of every duct of this great slege Japan has set legislative body is the subsidized lobby. an example to the nations and soldiers Vicious legislation is not the result of of the civilized world by the humane ignorance, but is rather the result of conduct of its armies. You have been as prejudicial influence, which ought not to generous in victory as you were brave exist and which certainly ought not to in battle." The praise was fully merited. be tolerated within the halls, cloak The announcement that Japan will es- rooms or offices of any deliberative body tablish a naval station at Port Arthur which has powers over the destiny of a will cause no surprise. She is entitled people.' Everybody familiar with the prejudito that and it implies no purpose to absorb territory. Indeed, it is perhaps ab- clai influence that surrounds our legislasolutely necessary as a barrier to future | tures knows that the most vicious lobbyists are not always the horde of paid Russian aggression should that power lose in the war. China could not be de- retainers, whose sole mission it is to depended upon to safeguard Port Arthur, bauch the members of the legislature in but in Japanese hands it would be quite the interest of questionable enactments secure and it would not be closed to or against wholesome measures in the other nations in the matter of commerce, interest of the people, but the lobbyists lucrative commissionerships. Japan says to the world that she must who manage to get themselves folsted fight on because her enemy so wills it, on the legislative pay roll. This class but she holds out the assurance that if of lobbyists are constantly in touch finally victorious she will make no de- with the members and naturally become mands that the fair judgment of civilized their intimates, and their opportunities mankind will not approve. What belongs for corrupting members are much to China will be restored to her, condi- greater than those of men whose move tioned upon her making ample provision ments are subject constantly to exposure by publicity. The only way to for its security, and the rights and interests of other countries in Manchuria will make this class of lobbyists barmless is be respected. This is manifestly the by the adoption of rules that will pro- own the trusts, and the latter are com-Russian officials only talk of peace to polley of Japan and it will have uni. hibit all persons on the pay roll of the legislature from acting as lobbyists, or versal commendation. cappers for corporations, claimants and

> PURE FOOD LEGISLATION. Whether or not there will be pure food legislation at the present session With the professional lobbyist banof congress appears to depend to a con- ished from the legislative halls and corwith the statehood bill. It is announced ployes who are inclined to pernicious money interests of the country will do all that the pure food bill is to be kept in activity in order to earn perquisites, the in their power to maintain favorable finanthe background for the present, its lawmakers will be in position to live up friends thinking that its chances will be to their obligations and enact laws in improved by not pressing for immediate the interest of the people. consideration. Unquestionably there is

CONTINUANCE OF TARIFF TALK. a strong popular demand for such legis-The talk at Washington of tariff relation. It is well known that nearly dismissal.

claim brokers under penalty of summary

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE: TUESDAY, JANUARY 10, 1905.

be done without the consent of property a reduction on the city suddenly ceased. A few weeks ago the Japanese minis- owners whenever two-thirds of the It is barely possible that the extension ter to Great Britain, who is the special council declare it necessary, one-half of proposition was promulgated for cammouthplace of his government abroad, the cost of repaying to be charged to the paign purposes only.

The first steps toward establishing On streets that are to be paved for the less promising of success than the first | war for self-preservation and not for ter- first time, however, the plan endorsed steps toward the establishment of officers who were deened able to perform self prepared to get out of Manchuria factory, namely, that whenever the energy and enterprise exerted for the council declares it necessary that a grain market that was put forward for ful sovereign, China, she should insist street or a part of a street shall be the live stock market will be sure to win dered. The letter als: stated that while paved, the owners of abutting property out with signal triumph.

Russian workmen in the oil fields who Irresistible Temptation. Philadelphia Record.

It is not the fault of the cartoonists that Governor Pennypacker lends himself so school for bakers at Fort Riley, Kan., at readily to caricature. The temptation to of legislative reform when he declared use him is hard to resist.

Blood Doesn't Count. Washington Post.

The war is costing Russia and Japan about $1,000,000 each a day, exclusive of the red blood of the brave men, which is about the only thing upon which a financial value has not been placed.

The Spider and the Fly. Indianapolis News.

repeat its offer permitting employes to sub- the theory of Secretary Taft, that the artilscribe for stock. The necessity of going lery corps should be increased by the early to avoid the rush, however, will not, cavalry. It is thought that no specific It is thought, develop.

A Jolt for Indolence. Chicago News.

Probably it will surprise some of the Panama commissioners to learn that the prime object of canal legislation was to would attend the transfer. In the first dig the waterway and not merely to provide Dangerous Freedom. Chicago Record-Herald.

Over in Russia the people are beginning to stone the palaces of the grand dukes. The Russian aristocracy can never hope to likely to be imparted to that body by the enjoy complete safety as long as the free use of stones is granted to the peasantry.

A Change of Septiment. Baltimore American.

The trusts have long owned the people It is now proposed that the people shall plaining more in sorrow than in anger on the evil development of the popular greed.

Barometer of Prosperity. Philadelphia Record.

It is predicted in Wall street that the railroads will issue $1,000,000,000 of bonds in the near future. This gives evidence of the belief in continued and increased prospersiderable extent upon what shall be done ridors and a restraining order on em- ity. It is also an assurance that the great cial conditions, so that they can marke their bonds.

Money Fit to Burn. Philadelphia Press.

There is no other great nation which allows the circulation of dirty paper money as is the case in the United States. The everything in the way of food is adul-transfer and while this adulteration is not are persistent in asserting that President in the case in the United States. The money on deposit with the government. terated and while this adulteration is not are persistent in asserting that President pel banks to have their soiled bills re-

STATE PRESS COMMENT.

Papillion Times: Omaha took care of Matters of Interest Gleaned from the he 2000 school teachers in a manner very Army and Navy Register. satisfactory to all. The business men and War department is in receipt of carlous organizations made a special effort plies from retired officers of the army who to entertain their guests and succeeded in have been asked whether they desire as-Omaha as a live stock market were far signment to duty with the full pay of their a way that will be a strong inducement respective grades. General Chaffee went for the association again meeting in Omaha.

ARMY GOSSIP AT WASHINGTON.

to other duties mentioned in will be composed of eighteen recruits selected so as to have four from the cavalry four from the artillery and ten from the

to duty.

trade.

Norfolk Press: In no better way can the carefully over the dist and selected those legislature show a disposition for economy than by lopping off its own useless employes. Thousands of dollars are squaninformed that they would be expected to accept the assignment without condition an dered at every session by putting men on the pay roll who do not earn a dollar of to the locality where they might be or the money paid them, and this species of recruiting duty was that to which most of grafting should be wiped out not only for them might be assigned, it was possible this session, but for all time to come. that the retired officers might be assigned Tekamah Journal: Governor Mickey has ordered certain ex-brigadier generals to authorizing the detail of retired officers to walk up and plank down various sums for active duty. Later on the replies will be which examinations of their office show they are delinquent. This, with the dislected those officers who will be assigned closure of Judge Sears as to the past England. manipulations of state moneys, shows that there are some citizens of this state in The need of good cooking in the army has high positions with nerve enough to call seen the subject of numerous reports from a halt on horse play with state money bags. officers who have seen service in the field Table Rock Argus: Fifry years ago on and who realize that dietetics have a direct hristmas Edward Rosewater, editor and and intimate influence upon military effifounder of The Omaha Bee, arrived in ciency. A general order issued from the this country, a poor emigrant boy from War department establishes a training Bohemia, and took his first lessons in which successive classes will be instructed the English language in trying to read for periods of four months. Each class the big signs over the stores in New York City. Edward has had a stormy and some what exciting career during the intervening years, but he has achieved the success infantry, the men selected to be of good of power, influence and wealth by indomcharacter and willing to learn the baker's itable courage and perseverance.

York Republican: Mockett, in his reply 1861 to Sears, who charged that the Stueffer

No decision has been reached by the gen investigation was a whitewash, makes a eral staff on the question of re-arranging funny falldown in the end of his letter. the proportions of cavalry, infantry and He characterizes as a malicious falsehood The Steel trust announces that it will artillery of the army, in accordance with Sears' statement that Ager, the special agent of the Burlington, was in the office every morning during the session, and then transfer to that branch of some of the apologizes for Ager's presence there in these words: "Mr. Ager, or any citizen recommendation along that or any other of Nebraska, was welcome at the speaker's line of readjustment will be made by the office any time during the session." general staff. It is known that General Kearney Hub; Omaha bankers gave Chaffee does not favor the plan, mainly on State Treasurer Mortensen the loy mitt, account of the numerous difficulties which so it is said, when he asked some of them to go on his bond as state treasurer, after place there would be some trouble about the surety bond law had been declared converting cavalrymen into artillerymen g. That was not very nice of the Omaha under the existing exactions of qualificabankers. But as soon as the news got out tion governing appointments and transfers through the state the treasurer was bomto the artillery and promotions within that barded with telegrams from country bankcorps. A more important consideration is ers offering to make his bond good and no the effect upon congress; the impression is questions asked. It is sometimes very satisfying to find out where your friends are. admission from the War department that Blair Pilot; Reports from Lincoln there is a superfluity of cavalry. There is would indicate that State Superintendent very apt, in the present temperament of Fowler will land the soft snap of the congress, to have such a proposition met presidency of the State Normal school at with the reply that if the cavalry is too Kearney. This will not be news to those large it may be better be reduced and the who had given the presidency any thought enlisted force of artillery accomplished simply by the increase in authorized enlisted It was Fowler who worked the school strength. Conservative observers do not let through the legislature and why shouldn' that possibility escape them in their estihe land it? Who else, in the hundreds o mate of the situation and it is a factor good school men in the state, has so good which may in the end prevail to gain notha right to the position as Fowler! ing on the subject from the general staff Weren't the rest of 'em in favor of one school centrally located and twice as large. in the way of radical readjustment. Everyone admits that the question is one which with ten times the capacity for good! And didn't Fowler's idea for cutting up regulres much thought and an appreciation of the elements, political as well as millithe school carry? Then why shouldn't Fowler fall into the soft snap at Kearney? He should and the Pilot hopes that the soft snap at Kearney will stay with Fowler The judge advocate general of the army has been considering an interesting questhe rest of Fowler's natural life and then permit Fowler to name his successor. tion relating to an enlisted man who had on deposit with an army paymaster a sum of Who cares for the rest of the school men money intended to be applied to the sol- of the state? dier's purchase of discharge. The soldier Blair Pilot: Governor Mickey says that was tried and convicted on the charge of

Dr. Green of the insane hospital is "all desertion and, of course, forfeited the right." Green is all right-he's usually the kind of a man usually found to be right. It may be that mixup between two insane pa-

grand jury shows that it is a common prac

Taking the population of Great Britain

Of the 500,000 of depositors in 1865 it was found that 285,000 were females, children under age or trustees of small amounts, that 140,000 were mechanics, artisans, porters, domestic and farm servants, policemen, laborers, beatmen, fishermen and seamen, and that 53,000 were tradesmen, their assistants, farmers and clerks.

LAUGHING GAS.

"Have you congratulated our hostess on drthday' "No," answered Miss Cayenne. "I have ondoled with her."-Washington Star

"What's the mater with Jonesby?" "What's the matter with After he moved in from the suburbs the strain of trying to keep from sprinting toward the corner whenever he heard a car coming was too much for him."-Chicago Record-Herald.

"Here," cried the low comedian, when the footpads held him up, "it strikes me you're mighty familiar." "Indeed? Well, here's something that will be more familiar." replied one of them, stuffing an old handkerchief into the victum's mouth. "It's an old gag."-Phila-delphia Ledger delphia Ledger.

"You've burned fifteen tons of anthracite already this winter?" exclaimed the visi-tor. "Why on earth have you had to use so much?" "To reduce the visible supply, I suppose." said the victim of the Coal trust's greed, grinding his teeth in impotent rage.-Chi-cago Tribune. tients should have been made public, but tor.

POSTAL BANKS IN GREAT BRITAIN

How the Government Posters Savings Among the Poor.

J. H. Heaton, M. P., Illathe Arena One thousand million pounds, or since one not is the estimated amount The state of the second second to the credit of the thrifty pana and the working classes in Europe, which means fund is backed up by the avenue, at a government of each country. of this can no less than £200,000,000, or al of an represents the amount intested postoffice savings banks of Great the and Ireland, and savings banks and most equally good security. There are about half a dozen sociated in English history with the e tion of savings banks. Danlet 1-to- is said to have proposed them in the area exactly 100 years afterward, on May 174 a clergyman in Wendhover, Buckmahren shire, started the first savings burg in Charles William Sikes, a cashier Huddersfield Banking company, was and to be the originator of the idea of a states of savings banks under the control government.

Fortunately for Mr. Sikes, the schem found a champion in Mr. George Chetword one of the ablest officials in the monorder office of the general postoffice, 1. don, and this gentleman's plan for cars ing it out was backed up by the postmastgeneral, Lord Stanley of Alderly, and b Mr. Scudamore, one of the most brillian official heads at St. Martins-le-Grand Right Hop, William Ewart Gladstonintroduced the postoffice savings bank but in the House of Commons on February 5.

The postoffice savings bank bill passed the House of Commons in March and the House of Lords on May 17 following.

Mr. Charles William Sikes afterward received the honor of knighthood from the queen for his efforts in the promotion of the great and benevolent scheme.

On September 16, 1861, four months ex actly after her majesty gave her assent to the measure, the postoffice savings bank act came into operation in Great Britain

Three hundred postoffice savings banks were opened at as many postoffice money order offices, and the sum of nearly £1,000 was lodged by 485 poor people on the first day.

and Ireland at slightly over 40,000,000, we find that one person in every four and one-half has deposits in the postoffice say ngs banks.

a fraud upon the consumer.

When it comes to settling the coal bill it will be found that the weather man agriculture announced the establishment has not been allowing any of us to pass of inspection for food products. A statethrough a winter season without know- ment published a short time ago said ing it.

Indiana's new governor wants a railroad commission created for that state. feited in such fashion that the house-A discarded law on the statute books of Nebraska will show him how it should not be done.

General Wood is of the opinion that the Moros will be quiet in the future. but as the remark is not limited, it may be that he refers particularly to those he met after long pursuit.

The constitution of Nebraska calls for a state census in the year 1905. If the legislature does not observe the mandate of the constitution how can it expect other people to respect and obey it?

With no material increase in public school enrollment and the long, lingering deal with their own local shams and deficit about extinguished the second place their citizens on a healthy basis. board ought to give us this year the low. so far as foods and drinks are concerned. est school levy we have had in Omaha for a long time.

The munificent sum of $300 was ap- The only excuse that can be suggested propriated by the last legislature to de- is the hesitancy of congress in undertak fray the expenses of the presidential ing a reform that belongs primarily to in the electoral college. Not much room enters into interstate commerce that it for side lines and junkets here.

Japanese citizens will give a public cast their lot with the soldiers who are hand and the public given some assurprisoners of war, evidently admiring ance that it could get what it actually that judgment which prefers the climate of the islands to that of St. Petersburg.

Governor Folk of Missouri shows his devotion to the democratic party by suggesting that all persons who fail to vote should be disfranchised, he evidently being of the opinion that the "stay-athome" vote gave Missourl to the republleans.

protection.

PAVING AND REPAVING.

public improvements, and especially the repaying of business thoroughfares, can be easily obstructed, if not thwarted, by combinations of contractors and obstrep-erous property owners.

Holt county citizens must be more anxious to get their coin than to see heretofore prominent citizens behind the hars, regardless of what effect such action would have on other custodians of their savings. A premium on bank embegglement is a bad thing.

When the wool growers and cattle men meet at Denver to discuss the question of combining the conventional shooting which generally follows meetings of adjacent to their lands and lots, it is these parties in the west will probably questionable whether they should be albe avoided, but each member of the committee should take the usual precautions.

The rough draft of the proposed bill for direct primary nominations adopts and incorporates into it almost every feature of the recent direct primaries conducted in this county under direction of the republican county committee. This cost of paving with durable material. is pretty good tribute to the fairness of the direct primary as worked out by any compulsion by law.

n all cases injurious to health, yet it is In his annual report the secretary of this does not appear. According to one of these the president's view of revision has now come to be with reference to slons to industries that complain of too to stop the evil, that spices, the ordinary condiments, the heavy burdens of taxation. Some of the cheaper kinds of sauces, even so famillar president's advisers are said to have an article as red pepper, are counter-urged that in order to meet the situation keeper often has no idea what she is purchasing. Sauces and washes and an extra session of the Fifty-ninth congress in the spring and if this should be other medicines are often put up with wood alcohol, which has recently been decided upon it is thought probable that the extra session will be called to meet found to be one of the most insidious in April. It is pointed out that in view eminent men, but some of them are so poisons. Here is a great field for inspection by the Department of Agriculture of the expected deficit there are strong considerations in favor of a spring sesand there can be no doubt that it will be carefully cultivated. The department can sion, which if called for the specific purpose of revising the tariff could complete inspect everything that crosses state the work before the time for the meeting lines or passes over an interstate railof the regular session in December. road. This embraces pretty much every-The president had a conference with thing which enters into general consumpleaders of the senate and house a few tion. The rigid enforcement of the law days ago, but the public has not yet been will furnish such an example to the states that they will soon conclude to one of the matters considered. If so, surfeited with delay, Mr. Roosevelt doubtless found that the opposition to it is strong and determined. It is not creditable that the United but of course it remains with him to States should be so tardy in caring for say whether there shall be an extra sesthe health and comfort of the public sion to consider the tariff, or it be allowed to go over to the regular session. Of course the question of revenue is imelectors chosen to cast Nebraska's vote the states. It is only when an article portant, but the expected deficit of a few millions ought not to cause the administration any anxiety or alarm, in view of falls under the supervision of the genthe present sound condition of the treaseral government. In the enlightened ury and it can be prevented if congress ings of the roads. Rallroad men assert that countries of Europe these adulterations reception to those Russian officers who and imitations were long ago taken in will exercise a reasonable degree of economy in appropriations.

> No matter what charter changes may wanted and not a mixture or an imitabe in contemplation the new law cannot tion. The proposed legislation has been possibly go into effect for two months very carefully considered and it is beeven if enacted with an emergency lieved would give the public the needed clause attached. The municipal tax levy for the year 1905 therefore will have to conform to the requirements of the charter as it now stands and come below the Among the problems which appeal for limits fixed for all the different funds resolution to the charter revision comspectively. In making estimates and mittee none will affect the property plans for the coming year the beads of owners and all the people of Omaha more vitally than that of paving and reto keep this in mind and to cease build paving 'The experience of the past ing aircastles on extra money supposed decade has taught us that much needed to be forthcoming after the revised charter becomes effective. One of the blg railroads doing business in Nebraska has issued an order to emphasize the importance of compelling

While equity and justice may be subtrain crews to take the minimum rest be served by requiring the consent of real tween runs. Even from the selfish estate owners for street improvements standpoint of avoiding wrecks and damage suits this is an advance over the driving methods previously pursued on lowed to stand in the way of improvemost of our railroads. Some of the roads ments that have become a public necesmay yet reach the point of adopting new sity, especially when streets have be-mechanical safety devices without being come impassable by reason of cheap forced to do so by penalties of the law. pavements laid at the instance of real estate owners who lack public spirit and The proposition to reduce the price of purposely sign for inferior and cheap electric street lamps in consideration of a five-year extension of the contract with paving material to evade the increased the electric lighting company as a guar-Under existing conditions, after an ex- auty of undisturbed monopoly has evipenditure of millions of dollars for part, dentity lapsed with the expiration of the the so-called machine politicians without ing and repaying. It seems to us only year. After the defeat of municipal right and proper that all repaying should ownership the strencous efforts to force semed. It is only necessary to send them the depositor. though what authority they have for to a subtreasury, and the government then says: pays the remainder of the expense. There "It has been held in a similar case by this are a sufficient number of subtreasuries to office that 'where a soldier deposited $50 enable the banks to comply with the law under the act of May 15, 1872, presumably without much expense. Disease is conveyed in expectation of his application for purmore revenue and not to make conces- by dirty bills. But congress does nothing chase of discharge and subsequently, while such application was pending, deserted, held that said deposit was necessarily tary.

unconditional, and, like any other de-deposited by Private Mitchell with turned as soon as he was sober. These facts do not indicate that the animus non revertendi was present. However, it has tion to duty 'as such' produced to require the forfeiture, and the question of Private

Mitchell's desertion it not before this office

The judge advocate general's office will take up in another form the question of the

During the month of November 1,721 en-

PERSONAL NOTES.

The Kansas man who hugs the delusion

J. P. Morgan's greatest charity is keeping

John Sparks, governor of Nevada, is the

This mutual dislike for consideration."

soldier's culpability.

been held that the desertion and restora-

There

shoulder

dians.

take another one.

Get Busy and Dig. New York World.

posit, was forfeited . by desertion." President Roosevelt's plan to legislate the would appear no reason for changin a business-like way there should be Isthmian Canal commission out of existence ing the above opinion. The amount and put the work in charge of Secretary Taft, as his own representative, is characthe paymaster, whatever its derivation or teristically Rooseveltian. But change in purpose, can only have been expended by some form seems desirable. the latter under the statute permitting an enlisted man to deposit his savings and to The commission is composed of able and draw 4 per cent interest on the deposit.

the whole to be paid to him on his dis fully employed clsewhere that they can charge. One of the stipulations under have little active connection with the canal. which the government consents to receive Others are so well advanced in years that, these deposits and to pay interest on them valuable as they may be in counsel, they is that both the deposit and interest shall are not fitted for active field work in a be forfeited by desertion. It must theretropic climate. The commission has in fact fore be held that the request to have the been in Panama only six weeks in the last amount of deposit refunded must be denied. ten months Whether Private Mitchell intended to de-

What President Roosevelt wants in the sert appears on the statement given of his Canal zone is precisely what the people case to be very doubtful, and it would want-construction. They do not care seem unfortunate for him that he was alinformed as to what was discussed, whether the canal is dug by a commission lowed to admit desertion and accept a resthough very likely tariff revision was or by John Doe, if it is only dug. They are toration to duty. From the letter of Captain Hervey, Private Mitchell absented himself from the post while drunk and reno serious objection to the regulation of rates by the national government if in return congress will repeal the section of the interstate commerce act which prohibits the pooling of freights by different and competing railroads or dividing between them the aggregate or net proceeds of the earnif pooling is legalized the payment of re-

0.00 Unreasoning.

would for the traffic manager of a road could listen with indifference to the threat of a large shipper that he would send his goods by some other line if concessions were not made to him trade in legislation suggested by railroad men. The general public has been educated for twenty years in the belief that pooling was injurious to its interests and cannot at a moment's notice unlearn all that it has that he is a toad is probably a hop fiend. learned and admit that pooling can be good

The popular distrust of pooling is not blind and unreasoning. It is founded the various city departments will do well the belief that if it were permitted the community would suffer even if the power to regulate rates were exercised whenever the need arose. The roads have ceased to compete with one another in rates-except era Europe. He will return in time for lence of service. They strive constantly the inauguration of President Roosevelt. to provide better facilities for doing busi-Dr. William G. Anderson, director of the They are continually spending ness. money for that purpose.

me great incentive to better the service. There would be an end to all efforts to cultivate the shipper by giving him improved facilities. That is the way in which most roads would be apt to economize. Such economies would be at the expense of the ommunity.

oads, which do business at a disadvantage. They would like to have stronger roads take care of them by guaranteeing them a percentage of the total net carnings. That would appeal to them as it has appealed to many weaker manufacturers who have gone into combines. It should not appeal to the wealthy and powerful roads, which can take care of themselves. They ought o see that general pooling would be detrimental to the efficiency of the American railroad systems. That would be huriful them as well as to the country. $1:25,000.

since the close relatives of the dead victim The judge advocate general desired that the matter be kept quiet the Pilot sees no reason for the public making yelp. Dr. Green is criticised by some of the cheap state officials for offering to The itinerant preacher was looking over The inherant preacher was looking over the morning's collection. "No wonder," he mused, "that the con-gregation didn't get the power today, for I see that this is indeed a short circuit." His sermon that evening electrified his audience.—Cleveland Leader. pay half the cost of an investigation, providing the World-Herald pays the other half, and then proposes to let the World-

Herald pick the committee. Green is right again. Nothing like calling a bluff, and, coming from a man like Dr. Green, it tastes pretty good to the public generally. Dr.

"That politician speaks very flatteringly Green is the kind of a man who doesn't of you." "Well," answered Senator Sorghum. "It must be for one of two reasons. He wants a favor or else he wants to lull my sus-picions and catch me off my guard about something."-Washington Star. need advice from the statehouse in the proper performance of his duty, and the Pilot feels just a little proud to know that he has been hitting straight from the

"He would never have become so ad-dicted to drink if it hadn't been for the trouble he had." "Why, what trouble did he have?" "He had trouble keeping away from it."-Philadelphia Press. Tekamah Journal: The Bancroft News thinks the white man should reform some before he kicks up such a muss about the marriage relations of the Winnebago In-An investigation by the federal tice among the Indians to live with one S. E. Kiser in the Record-Herald. woman until they get tired of her and then fen little resolutions all in line. The News thinks if the jury had looked into the product of Doug-Good man burns his thumb, then there are but alne las county's divorce mill they would have

RESOLUTIONS.

Nine little resolutions wondering at fate. discovered that the noble red man is following very closely in the steps of his Ten dollars comes in sight, then there are but eight. pale-face brother, and while differing in style the results are the same. The white Eight little resolutions point the way to man pays a lawyer $5 and about $10 court Long comes a poker game, then there are costs and is free to marry again, as the but seven. motto of the Douglas county divorce is Seven little resolutions in a sorry fix, Pretty woman comes along, then there are 'Ask and ye shall receive." The Winne Pretty. bago saves this $15 to blow in on the new but six squaw by calling a witness, breaking a stick in two pieces in his presence and he Six little resolutions trying hard to thrive. 'Long comes a horse race, then there are but five. then free to marry again. There is no denying that the Winnebago method should be stopped, but is it any more demoralizing Five little resolutions, only five, no more. Keyhole can't be found at all, then there are but four. than the Douglas county method? Some time ago the clerk of the district court of that county completed a report of the liti-Four little resolutions still must pay a fee. Wife makes some inquiry, then there are but three. gation for twelve months, which showed Wife that of the immense business handled by that court with its seven judges, 20 per Three little resolutions, looking very blue, cent were divorce cases. About a year me unheard-of circumstance brings them ago Judge Day, who had been appointed down to two.

to fill a vacancy, announced that he had Two little resolutions pondering what's to granted 126 divorces in a year, and there be done, were five other judges of the same court Preacher's sermon hurts the man, then doing the same kind of business at the there is but one same time. The best way to reform the One little resolution leaves a month before, Never mind; next New Year's day you can make some more. Winnebago is to set a good example for

WOOD COKE COAL KINDLINC

We sell the best Ohio Cooking Coal-clean, hot, lasting Rock Springs, Hanna, Sheridan, Walnut Block, Steam Coal-Best medium grade is Illinois Nut S6; Egg and Lump $6.25. For heaters and furnaces-Cherokee Nut $5.25; Lump $5.50. A hot burner-Missouri Nut, large size $4.50: Lump $4.75. Scranton-the best Pennsylvania Anthracite mined. Spadra-the hardest and cleanest Arkansas Anthracite. All cost hand-screened and weighed over any city scales desired. COUTANT & SQUIRES, 1406 FARNAM STREET listments were made for the army in cities and 1.545 at military posts and in the field, making a total of 3.766. For the infantry (white) 451 enlistments were made: coast artillery, 564; engineer battallons, 25; cavalry (white), 117; field artillery, 499; U. S. Military Academy detachments, 4: infantry (colored), 31; cavalry (colored), 60; Indian Nobody seems to listen favorably to the scouts, 3; Porto Rica regiment, 7, and Philippine scouts, 1,105.

under some circumstances. young boys off the street by getting them work largest owner of range cattle in the United States.

George B. Cortelyou and Mrs. Cortelyou have gone for a seven weeks' trip to southby stealth-but they do compete in excel-

Yale gymnasium, will start next week for an inspection of some of the leading school The pooling of earnings would take away and college gymnasiums in the north and middle west. Herman H. Knippenberg, said to have been the oldest postmaster in point of continuous service in the United States, has just died in Femma Osage, Mo. He was appointed by President Filimore.

Rumor comes from London that Mrs. The pooling plan would help the feebler Leiter's two titled sons-in-law hate each other like poison. fourishes, in spice of the fact that the early of Suffolk is alde-de-camp to Lord Curson viceroy of India.

The joint wedding gift of 100 cities o Prussia to the Crown Prince Frederick William and the Duchess Cecilia on the occasion of their aprpoaching marriage will represent about 1º cent apiece from each Prussian city dweller. It will be a silver table service for fifty persons to cos

WHY POOLING IS 'OBJECTIONABLE. Popular Distrust is Not Blind Chicago Tribune.

Many railroad officials say they will have bates will stop automatically. Probably it