Sheriff Out Five Thousand Dellars Paid Deputies for Services.

AW BOES NOT WARRANT THE PAYMENT

Moral Obligation Rests on Board of County Commissioners, but No Legal Way of Meeting Bill is Found.

sheriff John Power has lost out on his appeal from the action of the county commissioners in disallowing his bill for a delolency of $5,342 in the fund for paying his leputies. Judge Redick, in a decision rendered Wednesday morning, held there is no statute under which the bill of the sheriff can be allowed.

The court, in rendering decision, said that it felt there was a moral duty resting on the Board of County Commissioners that authorized the expense to pay the sheriff's bill. In not doing so a great moral and legal injustice had been done the sheriff, because he had, it appeared, been promised by the commissioners that at least the salary of his chief deputy would be paid by the county. Later, when the commissioners found that there was no warrant in law authorizing them to redeem have the matter settled once for all.

Did Get Your Order?

A FEW more days and Nicoll's Stock Reducing Prices will be a matter of history.

HUNDREDS of shrewd and economical buyers have availed themselves during the past week of this tempting opportunity to have garments made to order, at about cost of material and making.

YOU must see the fabrics to appreciate the price; you must feel of their excellent quality- and also see the workmanship and trimmings that we put into the garments.

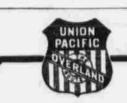

MANY men-after examining the quality of the cloth-inspecting the workmanship and trimmings seem puzzled at the very low price.

THERE'S no secret about it! It's simply Nicoll's way of cleaning up the surplus stock-the odds and ends that accumulate during a busy season's trade.

THERE'S mighty little profit in it for us-but in return we gain many hundred new friends whose patronage remains with us permanently.

THE assortment is still liberal—and you'll pick from the best if you
