BEVERIDGE WILL NOT ATTEND
 Indiana Senator Declines Invitation to Address McKinley Club's Annual Dinner

The McKinley club banquet, which is to be the event of January 25, will not be addressed by Senator Beveridge. Mr. Beveridge has replied to the invitation of the club that the legislation pending in which he is interested as chairman of the committee on territories is such that it is impossible for him to come to Omaha. Mr. Beveridge added that he would try to attend the dinner of next year. The committee which has the securing of speakers in hand has sent invitations to other orators in the east, but declines to make public these names until a response is received.

DIAMONDS
 Most luxuries are an expense and at best but a fleeting pleasure. Diamonds are a luxury—it is true one of the greatest, but an everlasting source of pleasure and an emblem of prosperity. More than that, they are an investment, as they have been increasing in value and no doubt will continue to. We contract to give you back in cash nine-tenths of what you paid us, any time within one year, should you desire it. Rings from $5.00 to $500.00.

It Opened with a Rush
 The big sale of the Ellswanger Stuck opened with a big rush. It consists principally of just such goods as the people need in this cold weather and the prices are so ridiculously low. Men's Overcoats at low as $1.48. Heavy Black and Blue Heater Overcoats at $2.90. Heavy Gray Ulsters at $3.90. For $4.90 you can get extra heavy all wool Cheviot Overcoat lined with satin sleeve lining, worth $12.50, and so it is with almost everything that is on sale—just a fraction of the actual value. If you fail to investigate you will certainly miss it.

A Continued Story
 Of the Omaha Drug Combine.
 The DETECTIVE was left in jail in our last ad.
 Captain Dunn took him in hand and after a little awaiting process MR. PINKERTON'S PUPIL owned up and let another cat out of the old bag.
 The police captain called on Mr. Mahoney and they concluded that, inasmuch as Mr. Detective did not get any information or ANYTHING ELSE BUT A GOOD ROASTING FROM OMAHA'S POLICE FORCE or being mixed up in such a sneaking deal, they told him to take his clothes and duck for Kansas City, and he sure did.
 The police captain then informed us that we had a case for the GRAND JURY and we consulted COUNTY ATTORNEY ENGLISH'S FORCES. That gentleman, after DUE DELIBERATION, DECIDED WE HAD NO CASE, and that, "while the law regulating trusts and combinations in restraint of trade was being grossly violated, still it could not be enforced."
 Then we laid the case before State Attorney General Froun and next ad will tell you what he did to 'em!

Did We Get Your Order?
 A FEW more days and Nicoll's Stock Reducing Prices will be matter of history.

HUNDREDS of shrewd and economical buyers have availed themselves during the past week of this tempting opportunity to have garments made to order, at about cost of material and making.

YOU must see the fabrics to appreciate the price; you must feel of their excellent quality—and also see the workmanship and trimmings that we put into the garments.

MANY men—after examining the quality of the cloth—inspecting the workmanship and trimmings seem puzzled at the very low price.

THERE'S no secret about it! It's simply Nicoll's way of cleaning up the surplus stock—the odds and ends that accumulate during a busy season's trade.

THERE'S mighty little profit in it for us—but in return we gain many hundred new friends whose patronage remains with us permanently.

THE assortment is still liberal—and you'll pick from the best if you pick now.

Almost everyone does. That's why we sell COLD CREAM MATERIAL. We use such care in procuring these materials.
