The executive committee named by President Scudder, who resides in New York, is composed of C. H. Morrill, J. W. Mc-Donald and W. H. Dorgan. This committos will stand between the people and the nonresident owners of the property and will listen to all complaints and order all improvements. It is expected that improvements will be started at once and the system put in first-class condition. For years the people of Lincoln have been fighting for better street car service without success. Some days ago fifty citizens subscribed money for the organization of a new company and the first result came the home of the parties involved in the octoday.

Congressmen on Tariff Revision. The republican members of the Massahusetts delegation in the house met today and adopted resolutions favoring tariff revision. The following statement in opposition to tariff revision is being signed by members of the house from the Rocky mountain and Pacific coast states:

The Rocky mountain and Pacific coast, states are overwhelmingly opposed to the agitation for tariff revision, and we, the undersigned members of the house of representatives, representing the states set opposite our respective names, are not in favor of calling an extra session of the fifty-ninth congress for the purpose of revising the tariff, and we believe that the agitation of this question at this time is neither necessary nor desirable.

Would Amend Quarantine Law. Representative Wadsworth of New York, chairman of the house committee on agriculture, has introduced a bill to enable the secretary of agriculture to establish and maintain quarantine districts and to permit and regulate the movement of cattle and other live stock. It authorizes the secretary to quarantine any state or territory wherein any live stock is affected by contagious disease. Penalties are provided for violation of the secretary's order or for
