When the vote was taken the lobby outside of the senate chamber was pretty well filled, while most of the space in the rear of the last row of chairs was occupied. The gallery contained a small number of spectators, though it was by no means crowded. Among the visitors were Arthur Wakeley, Attorney Gilbert and bride of Omsha, Edward R. Sizer and Tom Munger, political manager for Mr. Burkett; George Tobey, secretary to the new senator; for-mer Senator Young and many others. Sena-tor Beghtol of Lancaster was called first by Assistant Secretary Greevy and he promptly cast his ballot for Elmer J. Bur-kett. Resolved. That we are unalterably op-posed to any increase in the maximum lim-itations fixed by the charter upon the vari-ous funds of the city reised by annual tax-ation, except such increase as may upon full investigation be found to be strictly necessary in the case of the fire fund. That we are unalterably opposed to any increase in the maximum limitations fixed by the charter upon the bonded indebted-ness of the city, except so far as may be required of the issue of such paying inter-section and sewer bonds as may be strictly necessary.

That the maximum limitations on taxa-tion and bonded indebtedness should con-tinue to be expressed in specific figures and should not be changed to percentages of assessed valuation. That we are unaiterably opposed to any interference with those provisions of the present charter which guarantee to the abutting property owners the right of peti-tion as a condition precedent to paving and renaving.

tion as a condition precedent to paving and repaying. That we favor the consolidation of the office of tax commissioner with that of county assessor and such other convolida-tions, in whole or in part, of city and county offices as may be in the interest of economy and good government and not contrary to constitutional provisions. That we favor such fair and reasonable legislation as may terminate the present legislation as may terminate the present contest over paving specifications and make it possible for property owners to secure the paving and repaying for which they have petitioned or shall be willing to peti-tion tion. That we reserve recommendations on other subjects of charter legislation until the necessity arises. That we heartily agree-with the settled opinion generally expressed by the citizens and the press of Omnha that the keynote of charter revision should be the reduction of expenses of the city government and the keeping down of taxation, and we would regard any revision on different prin-ciples as hostile to the interests of Omnha.
