Missouri Member Talks of Charges of Impropriety in Conduct of the Recent Presidential Campaign.

«CASHINGTON, Jan. 18.-The house to day adopted the twelve articles of impeachments against Judge Charles Swayne f the district court of the northern district of Florida, which had been presented by its special committee of investigation The speaker was authorized to appoint seven members to present the case to the senate and conduct the impeachment proceedings before that body. This action was then the culmination o a debate which has been in progress over a week and which has developed partisan feeling and personal vituperation. The first vote, that to table the first three ar ticles, those relating to the falsification and expenses, went against Judge Swayne by the narrow margin of five votes. This was regarded as the test vote, as the charge regarding expenses was the only one not concurred in by the members of the committee signing the minority report. The motion to table these articles was lost, 160 to 165. Twenty-four republicans voted with the democrats against tabling and three democrats voted with the republicans to table. On roll call these three articles were adopted. Articles iv and v. relating to the free use of a private car by Judge Swayne, were made the subject of a separate vote and adopted. Like action followed with regard to articles vi and vii. charging him with nonresidence in his district. This was the last roll call, as when articles vill, ix, x and xi, relating to the Davis-Belden contempt case, and article xii, relating to the O'Neal contempt case, were declared adopted on vivi voce votes. The last time the house voted to present articles of impeachment was in 1876, when it voted the impeachment of W. W. Belknap, secretary of war under President Grant.

The debate today was chiefly notable for the closing arguments in the case. That for Judge Swayne was made by Mr. Gillett of California and for impeachment by Mr. Palmer of Pennsylvania. Mr. Gillett made an earnest plea for the judge, and Mr. Palmer spoke strongly for purity on the bench and for impeachment.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE SENATE Address of Senator Stone on His Cam paign Fund Resolution. WASHINGTON, Jan. 18 .- The charges o impropriety made in connection with the campaigns of 1896 and 1904 were revived for a time in the senate today by Mr. Stone, who spoke in support of his resolution providing for an investigation of the charges. He used with much freedom the names of President Roosevelt, Judge Parker and Chairman Cortelyou and again related the allegations that Mr. Cortelyou had used the information secured by him as secretary of commerce and labor to secure money from the trusts. The discussion of the statehood bill continued, with Messrs. Clay, Nelson, Balley and Stewart as speakers. The former senator and the late vice presidential candidate, Hon. H. G. Davis, was a visitor on the floor of the senate and was cordially received by the senators generaly, especially by Senator Fairbanks, his rival in the recent campaign.

the revenue law to any extent, believing that the election demonstrated that the people were satisfied to give it a fair trial.

Former Senator Warner from Dakota ounty has been here a couple of days and left for his home this afternoon, promising to come back if needed. Mr. Warner was a member two years ago and was a strong one. He was a part of the telephone investigating committee.

Senate File 68, by Williams of Wayne, introduced this morning, not only creates a board of three members the duty of which shall be to manage the state institutions, taking the power now delegated to the State Board of Public Lands and Buildings, but it goes further and appropriates out of the public treasury sufficient money to pay the salaries of the board members and all other expenditures specified in the bill. It thus relieves the house of its constitutional privilege of appropriating money. According to his bill Mr. Williams would have the governor appoint three electors, no more than two of whom shall belong to the same political party, to form a "board of control," each to serve six years. names of the members of the board shall first be indorsed or passed upon by a committee of five from each political party affected, after which they shall have to be affirmed by the senate. Then on July I the members of the board shall begin to draw salary, which the bill fixes at $2,500 a year each. The board also has the privilege of naming a secretary to be paid $2,000 a year and a stenographer; also a state architect, who shall be paid $3,000 a year. It is given further power to appoint women living in the vicinity of a state institution to visit them and draw the same expense account that is now drawn by the visiting boards No man shall hold a lucrative office in the state during the time he is a member of the board, and neither shall he hold such lucrative office or become an employe of a state institution for one year after his term as a member of the board expires. The board shall have absolute control of the state institutions, shall have all expenses paid in visiting them and shall appoint and remove heads or superintendents of institutions. The records of all proceedings shall be kept in the office of the board, which shall be at the seat of government and shall be accessible only to the board members and proper clerks and to others with the consent of the board or upon an order by a

The members of the board who shall try to help any political party or who shall pense will not go over the $250 allowed contribute 1 cent toward the campaign fund shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be dismissed from office. The su perintendents shall select their own assistants. The bill contains fifty-nine sections, detailing the duties of those connected with the board or the institutions.

Superintendent McBrien and a number of educators from out in the state were in consultation today discussing legislation. The educators will prepare a bill to change the manner of apportioning the state school funds. As the law provides now the money is apportioned according to the number of children of school age. The educators want today sent to the senate the following the money apportioned among the districts according to the number of children who actually attend school. This would affect every district in the state, but which would get touched the most has not yet been figured out. It would be to the advantage of the smaller districts, of course, and would infure more the larger districts like Omaha and Lincoln, for usually these districts would have the larger number of absentees.

> but the Trail Plays Out.

Mrs. Charles Wasmond, living at 617 South Seventeenth street, reported to the police that her husband, Charles Wasmond, aged 70 years, had left home on January 10 and had not been home since, and asked assistance in locating him. At the time he left home he is known to have had between $400 and $450 on his person. Through certain sources, known only to themselves, the detectives found that he had been in the ompany of Mrs. Julia Betters and Mrs. Dunn, both of whom reside at 517 North Fourteenth street, and also with Irene Smith, who lives at 1816 Pierce street, since the time he left home, and that he had been in Council Bluffs with these women and that they had been drinking a great deal. Detectives Dunn and Ferris went to the homes of the women and they denied all knowledge of the whereabouts of Wasmend. The women were brought to the station by the detectives and when searched y Matron Anderson at the station the Betters woman had a cashler's check from the First National bank made out to Wasmond for $300, but it could not have been cashed by the woman, as it had not been endorsed by him, and she also had a receipt rom her attorney showing she had paid him the sum of $10. The Dunn woman had $55, principally in bills, while there was no

City's Bill for Interest Comes in for Earnest Attention.

ONE-THIRD OF TAX LEVY IS REQUIRED

Forty-Six Thousand Dollars a Year is Now Paid in Interest on Bonded Debt Amounting to 8757,843,

Out of the 1994 city tax levy amounting to $152,091 there must be paid something like $46,000 interest on outstanding obligations. At nearly every regular meeting of the council City Treasurer Howe calls attention to the amount of interest due at the state fiscal agency in New York City. Wednesday afternoon the treasurer filed a communication asking that $839 be drawn on the interest fund to meet ma turities at New York City on February 1. This amount is due on district indebtedness and is still unpaid. The city will make arrangements for the money and take up the obligations when due. Of the large amount paid on January 1 there is still due Kountze Bros. the sum of $6,389 on interest and commissions. This sum should have gone forward the latter part of December in order to be in the hands of the fiscal agency not later than January 1. Through some oversight, the matter was overlooked and the obligation is delinquent. It is understood that the mayor and finance committee will take up this in terest matter in order that the necessary warrants may be ordered drawn at the meeting of the council to be held on Monday night At the close of the city's books on January 3, there remained in the interest fund $26,458. This amount will hardly pay the interest coming due betwee: now and the close of the fiscal year, July 31. From the amount of the levy and th amount of the interest to be paid annually, It will be seen that the interest on out standing obligations eats up nearly onethird of the revenue derived from taxes each year. The general bonded debt of the city is now $695,188 and the special bonded debt $62,655, making a total bonded debt of

PIERRE, S. D., Jan. 18 .- (Special Telegram.)-State Secretary Wipf filed the primary election petitions in both houses to day and in the senate it was referred to the elections committee without reading. The introduction was followed by the introduction of a bill by Shoter to enact its principles into law for submission to the people at the next election. In the house it was read before being referred to the elections committee, and in that house the reading was followed by a resolution by Rogde of Minnehaha alleging that a number of the names were secured by misrepresentation, and asking for an investigation before action be taken by the house. Among the senate bills introduced were By Doughty, limiting municipal taxes or agricultural and horticultural lands inside of city limits; by Wright, to provide for lien in growing crops; by Mortimer, declaring all unnavigable waters of the state to be public property for irrigation purposes, with the irrigation code. Senators Bonney, Branson and Vessey were appointed a committee to attend to funeral of Mrs. Brown, wife of the representative from Sanborn.

Senate file No. 1, to provide for the taking of the census and the collection of vital statistics, was passed by the senate and pushed to the second reading in the house. In the house Groce of Lake attempted by resolution to reduce the pay of legislative employes to the same rate as for last session, but did not find much encouragement n the vote on the proposition. The house educational committee recommended the passage of the resolution for a constitutional amendment to take the two-term limit off county superintendents. The principal house bill introduced was by Blain, to fix salaries of county commissioners, with increased pay for the larger counties of the state.

A resolution of sympathy was adopted by the house on the death of the wife of Representative Brown of Sanborn and a fund was raised for flowers.

CONDITIONS ON THE ROSEBUD

First School on Old Reservation is Opened at Gregory. GREGORY, S. All lines of business are rep resented and enjoy a good trade. All lands within ten miles are filed on and are being rapidly settled. There are but few that wish to sell their relinquishments, and when a man wants to sell there are several ready to take it at a reasonable fee. There is no question but land will sell within the next two years for from $10 to $30 per acre and be in good demand. Hay and grain are scarce and very high. Settiers should not bring any stock until grass starts, as feed will have to be hauled for thirty-five miles and hard to get at that. Gregory has the first public school opened on the Rosebud.

DANCE AT THE AUDITORIUM Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and Friends Have Pleasant Evening.

The fifteenth annual ball given by Success lodge No. 135, Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, at the Auditorium last evening, was the most successful ball that was ever given by that organization in Omaha. It was a complete success from both a financial and social standpoint. There were about 1,500 tickets sold, and about 400 couples were present. Of these 400 one will be safe in saying that all of them had one of the best times that they have ever had in their lives.

The hall was tastefully decorated in red and green, the colors of the brotherhood, and the programs were dainty and tasty. Promptly at 9:45 the orchestra struck up the grand march, which was led by G. M. Palmer and his wife, a number of pretty figures were gone through and one of the most intricate ones that has ever been seen on a dance floor in Omaha was successfully executed, that of the initials of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen. During the evening a flashlight picture of all the members of the lodge present was taken on the stage. There were about intestines and carries them out of the seventy in the picture. At 3 o'clock this morning the orchestra struck up the "Home, Sweet Home, 1906," waltz and at its conclusion everybody departed satisfied.

Refreshments were served in the basement during the intermission, which was further acts as a natural and eminently taken at 1 o'clock. The music was furnished by Olsen's orchestra of twenty-five pieces. The committee on arrangements. to whom is due the greater amount of the credit for the success of the affair, was composed of G. M. As we know but little about matters there, I am not prepared to say anything on the matter intelligently. I do think the matter is one that should be and may be taken up by the present conference. It looks to me is a fruitful field. At all events we shall know something more about it before the conference adjourns. The conditions there are such as appeal to all Christian people and should be remedied."
