side the barn, where it was surrounded by stacks of corn fodder hauled from the fields. The chopped leaves, stalks and husks were blown into the barn and the hooked ears loaded into a wagon, all by electric power.

Some Tersely Told Tales Both Grim and Gay

"The Rule of Gov't."
A NEW golf story comes from Scotland, where a couple of old antagonists meet on a course every Saturday afternoon to determine their own private championship for the week.

end of alarmist talk about the decay of faith and all that sort of thing. But I, for my part, scoffed at this talk of modern skepticism, holding it to be groundless till yesterday. Then, at a friend's house, I heard a most disagreeing thing.

ored man who called on him for legal advice at Columbia, Tenn. The elder of his church had advised his wife to get a divorce from him, and the negro asked: "If I would have the pats again, I told my man to fetch it. He, with a confused air, said he didn't know where it was. I told him to go, then, and ask the cook."
