British Ambassador Protests.

Sir Charles Hardinge, the British ambaasa Sir Charles Hardings, the British ambassador, today called Foreign Minister Lamsdorff's attention to the telegram posted at Moscow saying that the disturbances at the Russian dock yards and arsenals were due to Anglo-Japanese instigation and that both Great, Britain and Japan were spending vast sums to prevent the Russian second Pacific squadron from going to the far east. At the same time he pointed out that a similar telegram appeared here this morning in the Russky Invalid, the army organ. Count Lamadorff assured Ambassador Har dinge that such publications had no official sanction, but added that he would inquire whether it had been given an official appearance at Moscow. The matter is not likely to assume the
