CHICAGO, Jan. 27.—Receiver Edwin C. Day was in charge of the Pan-American Banking company's affairs today. A small number of depositors were on hand at the opening hour. They were informed by the receiver that no statement of the defunct concern's condition could be given out until later in the day. The Twentieth Century limited, on which, according to the bank's officials, President W. H. Hunt was due to arrive with funds to relieve the situation, reached Chicago today. So far as could be learned President Hunt was not on board.
