KENTUCKY GIRL WANTS CASH

Sees an Iowa Stockman for Failure to Wed Her as Promised.

Twenty-Five Thousand Will Settle It

Contest for Position of Assistant Adjutant General is Warm and Promises to Become Warmer.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

DES MOINES, Jan. 27.—(Special Telegram.)—On the claim that W. H. Kennedy, a wealthy stockman of Illinois, Montgomery county, la., proposed marriage to her three times and then refused to carry out his promise, Miss Cynthia Ferguson of Louisville, Ky., has begun suit for $25,000 in the United States court in this city. The suit will be tried at Council Bluffs in the federal court, tried at Council Bluffs in the federal court, tried at Council Bluffs in the federal court.

Formally Invite the Governor. A committee of five Chicago business men, officers and members of the Chicago Merchants' club, arrived in Des Moines today by special car and formally invited the governor to address the club in Chicago February 18. Later the committee took lunch at the Savoy hotel with the governor as the guest of the committee.

Big Plans Incorporated. Articles of incorporation were filed with the secretary of state today by the Waterloo Skirt and Garment company with a capitalization of $100,000, of which $12,000 must be paid up before beginning business, and by the Waterloo Loan and Trust company with an authorized capitalization of $50,000, with authority to begin business when $10,000 is paid up. Of the skirt and garment company C. H. McWilliams is president, secretary and treasurer.

Fight Over Adjutant's Assistant. Captain J. E. Whipple of Vinton is in the city today by appointment to meet Captain W. H. Thrift, the newly appointed adjutant general. Captain Thrift had gone back to Dubuque, although he is said to have known that Captain Whipple was coming. Captain Whipple is a candidate for the position of assistant adjutant general. The fight for the place is growing warmer, and those who have been following the campaign see in the disappearance of Captain Thrift today an indication that the captain has not made up his mind and would rather see candidates.

Girl May Be Drowned. William Rood of East Sixth and Lyons streets found a woman's handkerchief and a gold bangle bracelet beside a hole in the ice on the Des Moines river. Skates were laid up to the hole, but did not connect. No report of the girl missing has been made to the police, but unless something is heard at once an investigation will be made to discover whether or not anyone has been drowned.

Blithe is Attacked by Cummins

Governor Says Republican Committee is Working for Railroads.

CEDAR RAPIDS, Ia., Jan. 27.—Marked copies of the papers containing the bitter attack of Governor A. B. Cummins on J. W. Blithe, the governor's old political enemy, before the state implement manufacturers' meeting, were forwarded to Blithe at his home in Burlington today. The attack came during a conference on the Hepburn railroad rate bill, which Governor Cummins does not endorse. He declared that the "Republican party of Iowa was placed in the hands of a man who was now at Washington, and that such a man was not fit for political leadership."

Wilson Arrested for Murder. SIOUX CITY, Ia., Jan. 27.—(Special Telegram.)—"Jocko" Wilson, one of the most notorious criminals in the northwest and a member of the famous gang which robbed the Quinby bank over a year ago, has been arrested in Yankton, S. D., on the charge of being the murderer of John J. Lafey, alias Joe O'Brien, who was killed on a Sioux City street in the afternoon of January 12. Detectives have been following clues and finally, after Wilson had been identified by his picture by Mahlon Davis and William W. Smith, witnesses of the murder, as the man who did the shooting, Detective Polls went to Yankton where he found Wilson in jail and placed him under arrest on the charge of murder.

Will Retain Inspectors. The Board of Public Works has decided to retain the four sidewalk inspectors now in the service in order that they may work on the records and in addition prepare for the walks to be laid during the coming season. Inspectors Snowden and Tahan were summoned before the board and advised each of the members that there is plenty of work to do.

Iowa Fugitives Arrested. James Bunker of Fort Dodge, Ia., and J. H. Whitcomb of Des Moines, Ia., were arrested Friday afternoon on the charge of being fugitives from justice. The regular trial of justice they are said to be fleeing from, has not yet been made public.
