

CORN RATE AT STANDSTILL

Burlington Ready to Go Further if Other Lines Insist.

MILLERS NOW WANT A SHOW AT CUT

Nebraska Manufacturers Asks for a Concession on Meal, Bran and the Like to Domestic Destinations.

While the Burlington is ready to make another cut at the grain rates if it becomes necessary, the opportunity has not come for further action. Lines interested in the controversy seem to have been satisfied by the 11-cent rate to the Gulf ports and the proportional rates to the Atlantic seaboard which followed as a result of the action of the Burlington. It was expected that the Milwaukee and the Chicago Great Western would give the grain rates another jolt toward the bottom, but these roads have remained silent.

Shippers Holding Corn. A Rock Island man says: "No corn is moving to speak of. Shippers are holding from fifty to seventy cars each in the yards at Council Bluffs, waiting for this thing to be settled. They are paying demurrage rather than ship before the rates are settled, and they can afford to do this. We have no word from headquarters other than that the Rock Island and the Missouri Pacific and Burlington would be met to the Gulf and that proportionate rates would be made to the Atlantic ports. We have no advice regarding the rates to Little Rock or Memphis. This would indicate that the Rock Island is not in the fight so far as it affects the shipments of grain for domestic use."

COLD WEATHER PERSISTENT

Below Zero Temperature Clings Round Us Still, but Welch is Optimistic. A pretty good article of cold weather continued to do business in this locality. Sixteen below zero was the figure at 7 yesterday morning, and at about 7:30 16 1/2 below zero was registered at the government observatory.

Cold Weather Stops Work. Building Inspector Lays Off Men Employed at Demolishing Ruins of Mercer Building. Building Inspector Withnell has stopped tearing down the walls of the burned Mercer building because of the cold weather, which hinders the laborers to do great degree. Most of the structure that withstood the fire has been demolished, but enough remains to prevent the use of the alley at the rear, inconveniencing a number of the wholesale houses in the locality. By reference to the weather map for today you will find that there is an area of low temperatures within 100 or 200 miles of Omaha, with this city somewhere near the center. Higher temperatures are shown all around us, or rather rising temperature during last night and early this morning. Just why it should be so no one knows, but I merely call attention to it.

TOPREVENT COLDS

Keep the system strong and healthy and well fortified by taking a few doses of the Bitters, and you need not fear any attack of Chills, Colds or La Grippe. It has made a splendid record of cures in such cases during its 50 years' experience.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters

should be in every home, especially during these cold, wet months when you are so liable to take a cold. It never fails. Then it also cures Indigestion, Flatulency, Liver Troubles, General Debility, Constipation, Dyspepsia or Indigestion. Try a bottle at once.

AMONG THE RAILWAYS

Burlington's New Lighting Plan. An innovation is to be introduced on Burlington sleepers between Chicago and Omaha. The cars are to be lighted by electricity supplied by the wheels of the coaches.

Promotions Follow Park. Several changes have occurred as the result of the vacancies which have followed the promotion of W. L. Park to be general superintendent of the Union Pacific. E. Stenger, formerly at Grand Island, has been appointed superintendent at W. A. Whitney, who was appointed superintendent of the Wyoming division at Cheyenne. W. R. Cabell, trammaster of this city, has been appointed assistant superintendent of the western district and will also have charge of the branches north of Grand Island. H. E. Cox of Denver has been appointed trainmaster at Omaha, succeeding Cahill.

Sickness Causes Much Distress. Superintendent Morris of the Bureau of Associated Charities notes that a number of cases under his notice the last few days were instances of sickness caused by poverty. It is further worthy of note that nearly all of the recent cases reported to the Associated Charities involved people not over middle age. But few old persons appear to be suffering for the necessities. In some instances the weather has caused or relatives go or are sent to the county poor farm.

Loggers at Station. At the police station this week fifty nightly loggers was the regular number, which was twice the number for the same period of last year and the year before. The Salvation Army women's lodging house on South Thirtieth street, and the county storehouse on St. Mary's avenue, as well as the other places of a charitable nature, report many applicants for help.

CHINESE CASE BEFORE MUNGER

Appeal from Commissioner Anderson is Argued and Taken Under Adjudication. The hearing in the appeal case of Law Quan, a Chinese, ordered deported by United States Commissioner Anderson, has had before Judge Munger in the United States district court. The special contention in this case is that the deportation was a violation of the merchant's certificate and subsequently became a common laundry laborer, and thus having abandoned his original vocation is now within the inhibition imposed on the laboring class and is subject to deportation. This is the position taken by the government and was the basis upon which his deportation was ordered by Commissioner Anderson. The attorney for Quan holds that it is not within the jurisdiction of the United States courts to order the deportation of the accused, but that his duties are simply ministerial, and all he can do is to bind the accused over for probable cause. The further contention is that the accused has proven his legitimate right to be in the country and has the right to remain, regardless of having changed his vocation. Judge Munger has taken the matter under advisement.

More Damage Claims. Two more requests for damages because of a fire caused by slippery sidewalks have been filed with the city. Martha A. Graham wants $500 for the bones of her only child, who she claims she lost on January 24. William Miller requests only $100. He alleges that while walking on the sidewalk on that date, he was struck and injured, but does not explain just how.

Business Good in the West. Prudential Life Insurance Company. Manager Finds Conditions Generally Very Encouraging. Fred W. Tansley, manager of the ordinary agencies, western division of the Prudential insurance company, is in the city looking over the company's interests at the request of Mr. J. P. Warton and Mr. J. M. Tansley is returning from the Pacific coast. He has jurisdiction of the territory west of Pennsylvania and New York. He is enthusiastic over the general conditions of the country as he has just found them in the west. The fruit and wood industries are booming, he states, and reports the interest being taken in the Lewis and Clark expedition as one of the liveliest characters. Mr. Tansley goes from here to Lincoln, where he will open an office to take care of the western Nebraska business.

LOCAL POOR WELL CARED FOR

Associated Charities and Other Agencies Relieve Distress Promptly.

Suffering Reduced to a Minimum. Several pathetic cases developed by the present cold snap, but all given assistance as soon as discovered. There never was a winter when Omaha was better able to care for its poor and indigent than the present one, if the reports of those interested in this class of work may be taken as criteria. The charitable work of the city has reached its high water mark for the season with the present cold snap, but it can be said that those who, without the necessities of life, though unfortunate, sickness or other causes, are being cared for as far as the cases are reported to the proper authorities. Not a small amount of good work is being done by the smaller societies organized for charitable purposes and committees, churches, lodges, and in many instances neighbors have helped the poor of their vicinity.

At least, if it is possible to recall the girl from the downward path she seems to be going the matron is going to do it. Friday evening Miss Davis was arrested with Emma at 24 South Thirtieth street and charged with being inmates of a disorderly house. The girls were each fined $5 and costs in the ordinary manner when arraigned in police court. Her mother, who lives on South Thirtieth street, has been notified and she is expected to come to her department a touching scene followed.
