"I just want to state for the benefit of the members there are in the hands of various committees and overdue fifty-two bills and thirty on general file," asserted Speaker Rouse as the house was about to adjourn at noon today until 2 p. m. Monday. "I just want you to know the amount of work we have on hand. On my farm I always make it a rule to tell the boys what we have to do so they may get in and work and get everything done up on time." Burns of Lancaster arose to make a motion for adjournment when the speaker, without heeding the member, proceeded: "The hour for adjournment fixed by the resolution adopted yesterday having arrived I declare the house adjourned until 2 o'clock Monday afternoon."

The speaker had resisted the motion for this recess, prging the members that the house had a great deal of work to do and ought to remain in session until that work was cleared up so as to finish within the sixty-day imit. The adjournment was taken because of the fact that the members of the finance, ways and means committee and others were going, on invitation of the university people, to Ames, Ia. to visit the agricultural farm with a view of recommending larger appropriations for the agricultural department of the home institution. B OTH health and beauty are threatened in all cases of chronic catarrh. No one can expect to have good health so long as their vitality is sapped away with catarrhal discharges. Facial deformities are largely a result of catarrh of the head and throat. Thus it is that women especially dread the ravages of a three hours' drive through the strike quarters not more than a dozen men under the influence of liquor were seen, and the strikers are unwilling to have inebriates around. Excitement at Lods. LODZ, Feb. 10.-There was great excitement here this morning among the strikers, who are gathering about the mills in a somewhat threatening manner. An additional regiment of infantry has arrived here. Troops are stationed in the streets leading to the Grand hotel, where the gov ernor has taken up his headquarters. The manufacturers today agreed on an ultimatum to the strikers to the effect that unless they return to work February 13 all the mills would be shut down indefinitely. It is reported that the socialist organs have advised the strikers to resume work, he present agitation having sufficiently lemonstrated the strength of the labor novement and the leaders now being conent to await a more favorable opportunity for furthering their cause. It is feared, however, that the agitation has gone beyond, the control of the leaders. The manufacturers realize that they made mistake in paying the men in advance. Today the strikers are clamoring for another installment. The governor has issued an order prohibiting further payments and sent troops to one factory today to prevent the men from approaching the noise of the rumbling of carts gives evi- ankles strapped. The general situation is far from beassuring. Reports which have been circulated here of proposals to raise money in England for the benefit of the strikers have created a bad impression.

A conflict between troops and striker took place here this afternoon. According to one report, strikers fired on a detachment of soldiers from windows and the latter then fired a volley into the crowd in the streets. Another report says one striker was killed and four wounded. Other reports estimate the number of killed at twenty and say that fifty were wounded. The conflict occurred at Louis Geyer's factory, where troops were lined up to prevent the men from entering to demand their pay. The strikers generally are enraged at the to attack. There have been frequent refusal of other manufacturers to give them clashes between patrols, but without any their pay, and several other encounters between mobs and troops are reported from different directions.
