Firemen Suffer Intensely from Cold While Fighting It.

PAWNEE CITY, Neb., Feb. 14 -(Spr cial.)-About 2 o'clock yesterday morning fire was discovered in the rear end of Bogie Bros. department store. Captain Strump. the night watchman, first saw the fire from the court house. The flames were soo bursting from the second story of the building. The fire department at once re sponded and from that early hour con tinued to fight until morning. The ther mometer registered 22 degrees below zero but the men held their places as best they could with garments covered with ice and n several instances fingers, hands and feet frozen. The building, 100x24 feet, was hard to get action on, as high walls on either side hindered them from getting at the center of the fire. For almost two hours it was doubtful as to whether they would be able to save the buildings on each side However, the water system was in excel lent condition and streams of water were played on the flames, which finally suc cumbed. The building was completely gutted by the fire and the stock of goods was entirely destroyed.

The building was owned by James O'Loughlin of this place and the loss, $7,800 was not covered by insurance.

DEAR MRS. PINEHAM : - I was troubled for eight years with irregularities which broke down my system and brought on extreme nervousness and hysteria. I could neither enjoy my meals nor sleep nights, became easily irritated and nervous and very despondent. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound proved to be the only medicine which helped me. None of the points here raised apply to he pending bill. No documents of any kind can be obtained by the Historical soeiety under the bill except upon two necessary conditions precedent: 1-That they have not been in active use for twenty years. 2-That the present legal custodians the Historical society rooms a warehouse for all the old municipal papers of Nebraska. The present crowded condition of he rooms would not permit it and the office force has no desire to enter upon the task of running a general storage nouse. The sole purpose is to furnish a legal way to preserve important documents which are now going to destruction. Let me give a concrete illustration:
