The Cleverest Little Alcohol-Gas Stove Invented

It's just what you are looking for for sick-room, nursery or light housekeeping. It makes its own gas. It's easy to get ready. It's easy to carry. It gives great heat and only burns 20 worth of alcohol an hour.

BULLET ENDS HER SUFFERING

Sadie White, Hopelessly Diseased, Shoots Herself Through the Head.
Tired of a life that seemed to have nothing in store for her but sickness and death, Sadie White committed suicide at the Cambridge hotel yesterday.

Some More Good Things.
A hospite created a diversion by sickening one of his piano-players on a poor little piano, which was soon crying for mercy.

MELLIN'S Food for the Baby
A baby who frets, worries, or cries, or sleeps poorly is probably poorly nourished, unless there is actual disease. Mellin's Food provides plenty of good nourishment; easily digestible, and does away with all fretting and crying.

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Police Force Has Not Enough Men to Properly Patrol City.
DIFFICULTY IN REPRESSING CRIME
Chief Briggs Thinks He Could Get Along with Six More, but No Way to Provide for Them Appears.

Another Grading Petition.
A petition for the grading of sixteenth street from a point 20 feet north of Missouri avenue to I street was filed with the city clerk yesterday.

Barrett Boy Again.
No sooner had P. A. Barrett, the special agent of the legal department, finished serving sidewalk notices than he was put to work on another deal.

LIBRARY BOARD'S MEETING

Annual Report of Librarian Showing Increased Use of Books is Received.
The annual report of the librarian read at the regular meeting of the Library board last night showed a gratifying increase in the use of the library in all its branches during 1904 over previous years.

Teachers' Meeting Postponed.
On account of the sudden serious illness of B. R. Stouffer, who had agreed to deliver an address at the general teachers' meeting today the meeting has been indefinitely postponed.

Game of Season.
Deputy Game Warden Pierson has confiscated six dressed quail at the Henshaw cafe. A complaint was filed against Man-

Yester's Peculiar Humor.
In a little account in The Bee Friday morning of a court case between Attorney Erickson and Yelzer, at one point it was written that Mr. Yelzer was in "an offensive humor." It got into the paper as "an offensive humor" which was not at all the meaning intended to be conveyed. Mr. Yelzer is not given to offensive humor.
