INDIAN BILL IN THE SENATE

Upper House Spends Most of the Day in Considering the Measure.

KEARNS DISCUSSES THE MORMON CHURCH

He Charges the President and Apostles Control the Business and Politics of Utah.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—The senate spent almost the entire day considering the Indian appropriation bill which was not passed on yesterday and extended the session into the night for that purpose. There was quite a lengthy discussion of the committee amendment prohibiting the use of tribal funds in the support of sectarian schools. The provision was modified so as to allow individual members of tribes to use their proportion of funds in support of such schools, and as thus amended was agreed to. Many other features of the bill were also debated.

Another feature of the day's session was a speech by Mr. Kearns of Utah on the Mormon church. He charged that the church controls the politics and business of Utah. He denied in emphatic terms that he had paid Lorenzo Snow, the president of the church, for support of himself for senator.

A half dozen bills intended to remedy the defects in the laws as to the inspection of steam vessels which were brought to the surface by the disaster to the General Slocum in New York were passed.

Proceedings in Detail.

Immediately after the senate convened today Mr. Kearns from the committee of interstate commerce reported a resolution authorizing that committee to conduct an inquiry into the railroad rates during the approaching congressional recess and it was referred to the committee on continuances.

The House Joint resolution authorizing the president to convey the thanks of the United States to foreign governments participating in the St. Louis exposition was agreed to.

Mr. Allison presented the final conference report on the District of Columbia appropriation bill and it was agreed to. He stated that the house had yielded to the senate on the price fixed for a municipal building in Washington which is $2,500,000.

A joint resolution presented by Mr. Fulton, accepting the invitation of the management of the Lewis and Clark exposition to be held next summer at Portland, Ore., was adopted. It provided for the appointment of a committee of ten senators and fifteen members of the house of representatives to represent congress on that occasion. The chair brought to the attention of the senate a communication from former Senators Thurston and Higgins, attorneys for Judge Swayne in the recent impeachment trial, making request for a sufficient allowance to the judge to pay the expenses of the trial, including counsel fees. The communication was referred to the committee on judiciary.

Mr. Kearns attacked Mormon Church. The anti-polygamy resolution introduced by Mr. Dubois was then laid before the senate and Mr. Kearns addressed the senate.

Mr. Kearns said he could not permit the occasion to pass without saying what it seemed should be said by a senator under such conditions before leaving public life. He then reviewed the history of Utah and recited the conditions under which statehood was granted.

"The pledges given by the people of Utah," said the senator, "I believe consisted of the following propositions: That the Mormon leaders would live

MARTIN BILL SURE TO PASS

Decisive Majority for It is Assured in the Lower House.

FATE IN THE SENATE NOT SO CERTAIN

Joseph J. Langer of Nebraska, Consul at Solingen, Germany, Tenders His Resignation to the President.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—(Special Telegram)—From the number of speeches made by Representatives in the bill extending to South Dakota the features of the Kinkaid act, following diametrically opposite views were expressed. Mr. Underwood of Alabama said the passage of the bill would open wider and wider the gates for the fraudulent taking up of public lands. Mr. Underwood probably had in mind the indictment against high officials in the public service for land frauds.

Mr. Burckett contended the bill was entirely right, because the homestead law did not give to the honest settler in the section covered by the Martin bill land enough upon which a living could be made for a family.

Ex-Governor Lind of Minnesota said he had been over the bill twenty years ago and its condition had not changed today. He said the cattle syndicates got all the profit from the great Sioux reservation and he thought it ought to be put to civilized use instead of being great grazing ground for the cattle of the Indians.

Congressman Lacey of Iowa said the Kinkaid bill was surely an experiment and from the expressions of a number of papers in Nebraska the bill was not proving the success anticipated. He said so far as the Kinkaid bill had done it had done nothing new light on the situation. He stated the interior department was hostile to the legislation and there was nothing to be gained by hasty action.

Burke of South Dakota said he resided in the section affected by the bill and for some years it has been apparent there must be changes in the homestead law to permit the settlement of the section mentioned in the bill.

Reeder of Kansas was most emphatic in his opposition to the bill and said that if the land included in the bill under the 60 acre proposition would be left to normal settlement inside of thirty years the great Sioux reservation would have as many people as certain sections of Kansas on the same parallel land.

Congressman Martin, author of the bill, in a very tactful speech, showed how the land included in the new homestead provision had not attracted a single homesteader in many years, notwithstanding it was parallel with the old homestead law. The bill was devised to prevent fraud and safeguards were thrown around its every feature so that the honest settler might not only secure a home capable of supporting him but that he would be protected in all his rights.

Sure to Pass House.
For three hours the debate on the Martin bill continued and ended only by Mr. Martin moving the previous question. The bill was placed upon its passage, but objection being made to its being considered, it was postponed to the next day.

DYNAMITE CANNOT MOVE ICE

Gorge in Blue River Has Already Wrecked Two Bridges and One More is Threatened.

CRETE, Neb., Feb. 28.—The ice in the Blue river has already carried away two wagon bridges at this point and during the past twenty-four hours has been forming an immense gorge just below the upper dam. Since early this morning crowds of people have been watching the formation of the gorge which now completely fills the river bed, which is here from twenty to thirty feet deep to a distance of 200 yards in length, diverting the water in a new channel around the dam. Charges of dynamite were exploded in the gorge last night and this morning, but had no appreciable effect. It is feared that the Burlington railroad bridge lying 50 yards below the gorge will be wrecked when once the ice is lodged. The bridge, though recently constructed on large concrete pillars, may be ruined if the gorge cannot be gradually broken up.

Consults a Physician

Every woman dreads the ordeal of the physician's consulting room. A sensitive, refined woman shrinks from the searching questions and the physical examination! It is not so in writing to Mrs. Pinkham. Thousands of women owe their present health and happiness (yes, and their good looks, too) to the fact that they have told all their physical troubles to Mrs. Pinkham and followed her advice and been cured of female diseases.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Cures more women every year than any other medicine in the world. If you are in doubt about your case, write in perfect confidence to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass. You will receive in reply a personal letter of advice free.

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—For three months I was sick in bed with female trouble and had four doctors, who all agreed that I must undergo an operation and have my ovaries removed. My sister advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before I submitted to an operation. I did so and am very glad to say that after I had used five bottles I was restored to perfect health, which I have enjoyed ever since. I am only too glad to recommend your medicines, as they saved me from an operation which might have proved fatal.

Mrs. Hayes also profited by Mrs. Pinkham's advice. DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Sometime ago I wrote you describing my symptoms (fibroid tumor) and asked your advice. You replied and I followed all your directions carefully and to-day am a well woman. 22 Ruggles St., Roxbury, Mass.

COWBOYS OFF FOR CAPITAL

Party from Black Hills Makes a Short Stop in the City.

GOING TO SHOW TOUCH OF WESTERN FIFE

Members Expect, in Addition to Riding in Parade, to Meet the President and Give Riding and Hoping Exhibition.

A brigade of about fifty cowboys from the Black Hills county passed through here last evening over the Burlington enroute to attend the inauguration ceremonies at Washington next Saturday. They came in at 6:08 and left at 8:05 for Chicago, where they will spend four hours before proceeding to the national capital, where they will arrive over the Pennsylvania lines on Thursday. Accompanied by J. L. Bentley, commercial agent for the Burlington at Deadwood, and T. H. Thorp, traveling agent for the Pennsylvania lines, the party dined at Maurer's restaurant. During the two hours the rangers were here not one window was shot out, nor did the earth tremble to any great extent, so well did the boys behave themselves. But they are having a good time generally and are going to make the welkin ring along the Potomac next Lord's day, after the ceremonies are over.

The brigade will participate in the inaugural parade by special request of the inaugural committee, which body appointed Captain Seth Bullock to make all arrangements for the appearance of the westerners. The cowboys are paying their own expenses. They sent their horses ahead last week. Captain Bullock went through here last Saturday evening. The event is a great holiday for these men of the west and they are making the most of the occasion. Next Monday or Tuesday they will give a roping and riding exhibition at Washington and will no doubt meet the president, as Captain Bullock is a personal friend of the president, and the men he has selected are known for their ability as representative westerners. Ready for Any Emergency. In addition to their six-shooters, saddles, "chaps" and ropes, the boys are taking their suit cases with them, so they will be able to meet the "great father" in boiled shirts and upright collars should the occasion arise, and it is said the occasion no doubt will offer itself. A touching little incident occurred along the way yesterday. When the train arrived at Broken Bow, John Owens, sheriff at Newcastle, Wyo., became so ill he had to leave the train and return to his home. Owens is a typical westerner and was one of the party. It is reported he cried when he had to give up and leave his associates. Mrs. James Hart is the only woman on the trip and her 6-year-old daughter Marjorie, the only child in the party. The personnel of the brigade is as follows: Newcastle—A. M. Nichols, Mack Quest, James Hart, P. O. Johnson, Percy Keys, Leon McLaughlin, Clarence Smith, Joe Durling, Clyde Johnson, Tom Howell, William Bailey and Ed Leppa. Deadwood—Joe Lytle, Ben Rubin, Seth Bullock, George S. Fuller, Ed Cesnar, Altho Hodge, Ed Lopez, M. Hamilton, C. D. Calhoun and C. F. Calhoun. Spearfish—Jesse Driskell, Rhok Hall, W. E. McLaughlin, G. W. Holmes, G. C. Huff, D. R. Thompson and Boss Hettell. Belle Fourche—Henry Roberts, Stanley Gringle, P. M. Conlon, J. F. Conlon, R. F. McAdams and Theodore Shumaker. Rapid City—James Halley, Jr., R. P. Holcomb and Herman McCain. Belle Fourche—Henry Roberts, Stanley Bullock, F. N. Fuller and J. M. Barrett. Sturgis—Joe Lytle and Eugene Heeter. Wind Cave, S. D.—W. A. Rankin. Harding, S. D.—C. Hanlon and J. D. Whison. Whitewood, S. D.—Bob Carr, editor of the Plain Dealer. North Dakota—F. B. Miller, G. A. Watt, C. J. Milligan and Frank Hatch of Sioux City joined the party at Omaha.
