ATTORNEYS CLASH IN COURT

County Attorney Hess and Clem Kimball Narrowly Miss Coming to Blows.

COURT DISPOSES OF THE CONTROVERSY

Unusual Number of Divorce Cases Have Been Filed, One of Which Promises to Develop a Sensation.

A personal encounter between County Attorney Hess and Attorney Clem Kimball, counsel for Joe Dunn, on trial in the district court, was narrowly averted today afternoon. J. Moran, a witness for the state and husband of the woman with whom Dunn is charged with maintaining unlawful relations, occupied a seat at the trial table back of the county attorney.

The state concluded its evidence yesterday afternoon in the case and the introduction of evidence for the defense will be begun this morning.

Bunch of Divorce Cases.
The petition in the suit of Mrs. Anna Karrer, wife of Karl Karrer, the Treynor bank robber, against August Olderog and family, in which she seeks recovery of $20,000 for loss of her husband's affections, was filed yesterday. Mrs. Karrer makes some startling allegations against the Olderog family and accuses them of conspiring to induce Karrer to lavish his money on her.

The petition in the divorce suit of Mrs.
Elizabeth McKeey against Frank S. McKeey, representing Charles McKeey, who was born at Rockford township and was married March 27, 1888. On February 8 of this year McKeey was arrested and sentenced to the county jail for assaulting his wife, and this forms the grounds on which the attor now seeks a divorce. She also asks that she be given the personal property as alimony.

Mrs. Sophia Minnick yesterday began suit for divorce from Ernest Minnick, to whom she was married June 29, 1904. A few days before she had secured a divorce from her former husband. She charges her husband with treating her in a cruel and inhuman manner.

Mrs. L. A. Royce made statutory charges against her husband, W. H. Royce, for suing for divorce begun yesterday. They were married in Glenwood, Ia., April 4, 1900, and lived together until July 4, 1904.

Mrs. Susie O. Whitlock, the recently appointed marion at the county poor farm, filed suit for divorce against her husband, A. A.
Whitlock, who charges her with treating him in a cruel and inhuman manner. They were married at Eldora, Ia., March 31, 1903.

Henry C. Dreyfus, plaintiff in a suit against the motor company to recover damages placed at $50 for the flooding of his land near Lake Manawa, alleged to have resulted from the dams constructed by the defendant company.

Former County Attorney Killpack, on behalf of his client, James Arthur, convicted of complicity in the attempted robbery of the Treynor bank, filed a motion for a new trial yesterday. Among the large number of reasons stated by Arthur should be granted a new trial it is alleged that County Attorney Hess was guilty of misconduct in stating to the jury in the course of his argument that he knew positively that the defendant was guilty. Such a statement, it is claimed, was prejudicial to the plaintiff.

While this statement was made by Mr.
Hess it was immediately retracted on Mr.
Killpack entering an objection.

Doyle-Burns Case.
The famous Doyle-Burns mining suit from Colorado will be tried in the district court before Judge Thornhill beginning on Tuesday.
The attorneys for Burns at that event notified Doyle's attorneys that they had abandoned the intention of applying to a judge of the supreme court for a stay of proceedings pending the determination of the appeal from Judge Thornhill's ruling overruling the motion to transfer the suit from the law to the equity docket. They stated further that their client would be ready for the trial of the case next Tuesday as previously arranged.

A telegram received by his local counsel last night stated that Mr. Doyle would start today for Council Bluffs and that his wife would follow in a day or so.

REPUBLICAN TICKET IS NAMED

Mass Convention Draws Out a Representative Body.
For the Long Term—JOHN P. HESS
For the Short Term—W. E. MCCONNELL

These nominations for the Board of Education were made last night by the republicans of the independent school district of Council Bluffs at a mass convention.

A mass meeting to make nominations was an innovation with the republicans in this city, but it was generally conceded that it served the purpose just as well as a delegate convention without all the fuss and feathery. The meeting brought out about 100 representative members of the party, each having a right to be represented.

Senator C. G. Saunders stated he would step upon to preside by City Chairman Hess and P. J. Clatterbuck acted as secretary.
The convention got to work at once and the following were placed in nomination: George Gorman, J. P. Hess, N. E. Anderson, W. E. McConnell, Dr. L. E. Devo and Glen Devo. Mr. Devo was the candidate of the western part of the city and a strong plea for his nomination was made by Harvey Swartz, president of the West End Improvement club. Mr. Swartz had the distinction of making the only nominating speech of the evening.

A vote of the method of procedure of nominating resulted in the convention deciding that the two securing the largest number of votes on the first ballot be declared the nominees for the regular three year term. The vote resulted: J. P. Hess, 53; N. E. Anderson, 78; G. W. Gorman, 43; W. E. McConnell, 21; Glen Devo, 12; Dr.

BIG DEAL FALLS THROUGH

Armours Said to Be Negotiating for the Des Moines Street Railway.

THOMAS MURDER CASE DRAWS TO CLOSE

Delegates Representing the Miners' Unions of the State Holding Annual Convention at Des Moines.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, March 2.—(Special)—According to a rumor that has gained considerable currency in this city, the Armours of Chicago are at the head of a syndicate that has made an effort to purchase the gaslight, electric light, waterworks and street car systems of this city.
The deal is said to have failed because the street railway would not give an option on its plant. Such an attempt was made recently in Sioux City, but failed there.

Murder Trial Closed.
The closing argument of Judge Spurrier for the state was made today and it is expected that the Thomas murder case will be given to the jury some time tomorrow. The case has been characterized by the attacks and counter attacks of the attorneys alleging bribery and impure motives.

Will Condemn City Jail.
The final report of the Polk county grand jury, which is expected to be made tomorrow, will condemn the city jail as being in a frightful condition. The report states that from appearances the bedding has not been changed for years. The county jail is condemned as lacking ventilation and recommendations for radical improvements in both will be made.

Grand Army Fixes Date.
C. J. F. McNeil of Oklahoma is a candidate for the position of senior vice commander of the Iowa department of the Grand Army of the Republic, the date for the encampment of which has been fixed at May 13 and 14, 1905. McNeil is being in a faithful condition. The report states that from appearances the bedding
has not been changed for years. The county jail is condemned as lacking ventilation and recommendations for radical improvements in both will be made.

Planning Federation Program.
The executive committee of the Iowa Federation of Women's clubs is meeting today in Marshalltown and will continue its session until Saturday, at which time the program and other details of the coming biennial meeting in Waterloo in May.

Opposed to Board Idea.
Senator Shirley Giffland of Mills county was in the city yesterday on his way home from Iowa City, where he has been visiting the State university. He states that everything at the university is harmonious and he is in favor of the Board of Control idea for the state educational institutions.

Taylor Jury Disagrees.
The trial of ex-Governor Taylor of Kentucky for the murder of Senator Cowley had before the Drake university law students, resulted in a disagreement.

Miners' Convention.
One hundred and thirty delegates of the miners' unions of the state assembled today for the eighth annual convention. Speeches from E. J. O'Brien of Denver, State Labor Union, and from Brigadier A. L. Urlick, president of the State Federation of Labor, and others consumed the time of the morning session. Changes were made in the organization to make it conform to the national constitution.

Famous Dog Case Again.
The famous Iowa county dog case, known to the courts as Brooker vs. Oskaloosa, will make its initial appearance before the supreme court at the next meeting of that body. The case is one in which a dog, known to be vicious, attacked a horse belonging to M. C. Brecker, the animal becoming frightened and running into a barbed wire fence in such a manner that it died a few minutes after the accident.

The case attracted universal attention in the minor courts and the decision will be a precedent in dog cases of the state.

State Reward Only.
Only the $500 offered by the state of Iowa remains of the reward once offered for the conviction of the murderers of Mabel Scott. The subscription paper with the names of people subscribing $2,000 as reward has been lost and it is doubtful if the money can be collected even though the paper is found.

Abstract is Filed.
The abstract in the biennial election test was filed yesterday late in the afternoon.
The arguments will be filed this week of the first of next and it is thought there will be no difficulty in getting the case submitted to the supreme court next week.

Want a Juvenile Home.
A conference of the supervisors of Polk county and the city council is being held with leading citizens of the city over the matter of securing the Tracey home as a detention home under the new juvenile court law. The matter is of importance as giving the law an adequate test. The statute creating the court requires that the children brought before the court shall not be kept in a jail, but fail to provide for the erection or renting of any suitable place.

TREYNOR, N. D.—(Special)—The Metropolitan Water company of Kansas City, Kan., today began suit in the United States court here for $140,000. The suit is brought to recover money alleged to be due for water furnished the Armour company, for which it is claimed the Metropolitan Water company, under a city ordi-
