LONDON. March 4-(Special Cablegram) to The Bec.)—"We must have an alien bill as soon as possible. The East End demands it." said Hon. Rupert Guinness this week, and a great East End audience gathered at and a great East End audience gathered at the Baths loudly cheered the declaration. In the East End Englishmen had been driven from their homes and deprived of their work by the influx of allens, he con-tinued. It was not alone the pauper and the criminal allens who had done this, and to deal with this matter there must be a really strong alien bill going into every ramification of the question.

> upon the government to pass the alien bill.
> The dean of Norwich, who seconded the resolution, aroused the enthusiasm of the speech Having remarked that he, as a minister of religion, was not affected by alien labor in his profession, Dean Lefroy proceeded: "But I say that, as a minister of religion, I am in my right place in rais-ing my voice against the degradation of the homes of English workingmen. I am in my right place in protesting against their honorable labor being destroyed by the in-tolerable exigencies and avarielousness of claim for those who are born in this country a priority of right to the labor that the country affords. We will make it known to England that whatever the government does or does not do, it shall deal with this question "
