Does Not Believe in Theosophy. GRAND ISLAND, Feb. 27, 1905.—To the Editor of The Bee: I read an article in your issue of today under the heading "Theosophy Anger," and in relation to the statement made by "Agumyl Guru Paramahansa" and his so-called disciples, "Dr. Thakore and Gorin Rao," as quoted by your correspondent as to "H. P. Blavatsky, Koot Hoomi, and pretending females," are false from beginning to the very end of the statement. This I know of my own personal knowledge, notwithstanding "Agumyl Guru Paramahansa" and his disciples' wonderful miracles performed in controlling the heart's action, which I have seen done by many persons of ordinary capacity in daily life, during a period of forty years of medical practice, and I presume that many other persons have seen the same.

M. J. GAHAN, M. D.

University of Pennsylvania.

OMAHA, March 4.—To the Editor of The Bee: On Washington's birthday The Bee published a complete Associated Press dispatch of the proceedings at the Academy of Music in Philadelphia, where Provost Harrison of the University of Pennsylvania, in accordance with the request of the board of trustees, conferred the degree of L. L. D. on President Roosevelt and Emperor William of Germany. Following this there is a sketch of the university from the time of its foundation by Benjamin Franklin in 1800; of its patron, the first president of the United States, George Washington; of its many beautiful buildings on the west side of the Schuylkill river in Philadelphia and a history of some of the illustrious men of the university for 120 years.

OLD COMPANY BRANCHES OUT. The Omaha Clothing Co., One of the Oldest Firms in Omaha, Adds Department of Furniture.

The Omaha Clothing company some time ago leased the three-story building at 1215 Farnam street and moved their stock of clothing from their old location at 1214 Farnam into the first floor, thus giving them much more commodious quarters, which they rapidly increasing clothing business demanded. The second and third floors were occupied by Schmoller & Mueller as a storeroom for their pianos until recently. Upon their removal both floors have been remodeled and stocked with a complete line of furniture.

Mr. Rosenbhal, manager of the Omaha Clothing company, states that in their furniture department they will extend the same liberal credit to furniture buyers as it has been their policy to do in the past with their clothing creditors.

NO!!! BLUNT MEN. As a rule, sharp business men are rather blunt. Maybe that's why they prefer the blunt-end Cutaway Frock. They'll be pleased to know that Dame Fashion has included the Cutaway Frock among her favored styles this spring. The Gray Worsteds that we're showing just now make up particularly smart in this style that makes the boss look more like the boss and less like the clerk. $40 is the favorite price.
